YELLOW RACES AGREE ON WAR ALLIANCE

FUTURE OF PACIFIC FLEET IN BALANCE; SAVE NAVAL BASES

HAVE YOU DONE YOUR BIT TO SAVE THE FLEET?

Advices from Washington indicate that the fate of the Pacific Fleet may be decided in the Senate very soon. The obstructionists who, through petty jealousies and sectional views, seek to block the necessary appropriations for the Navy's program for building the naval bases on this coast which are essential to keeping the fleet in western waters are marshaling their forces for a finish fight. Only a tremendous and concerted demand on the part of all the people of the West can avert this disaster, not only to the Pacific Coast, but to the whole United States.

Officers and members of civic, business, social and professional organizations are urged to immediately bring the matter before their bodies, cause strong resolutions to be adopted and wired without delay to Washington. The co-operation of women's clubs is particularly desired. Individuals and others should write or wire, from this vicinity, to Congressmen H. Z. Osborne and Walter F. Lineberger, both of Representatives, or Senators Samuel M. Shortridge and Hiram Johnson, Senate, Washington, D. C. It is suggested that readers of The Times may substantially help the cause by clipping the form below, pasting it on the back of a sheet of paper and asking as many persons as possible to sign it that day. This filled sheet should be immediately mailed to some one of the Congressmen named above and another petition started with a fresh blank.

TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES:

We, the undersigned, respectfully urge your honorable body to approve without delay the appropriations recommended for the construction of needed naval bases on the Pacific Coast as set forth in the report of the joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives:

Name.	Address.	City.	State.

Editorial advices to The Times last night that the entire Pacific Coast is aroused to the danger is occasioned by the second effort in Congress against the naval bases on this Coast, from San Diego to Seattle a flood of telegrams and letters is going to Washington demanding the passage of the appropriations to complete the Navy's program of bases essential to keep the fleet intact. Half a dozen inland states have enlisted in the fight. The Times has received assurances from the great newspapers of the Middle West will assist and promote campaigns in their states.

Senators and Congressmen representing the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain States and the governors of Western States will meet in Washington today to decide upon a course of action relative to the efforts to save the Pacific bases appropriation items.

Word was arranged yesterday by U. P. Blaine of the Western Defense Association, that assurance was assured in a telegram received in Los Angeles from Harold Krueckman, secretary of the League of the South-

Mr. Blaine received the following telegram from Gov. Oliver H. Shoup of Colorado:

"Have asked our representative in Congress to support the Pacific coast program."

Telegrams from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico and Wyoming will be sent to the Western States' delegations.

The Los Angeles City Council yesterday passed strong resolutions, introduced by Councilman Farmer, in favor of the Pacific coast appropriations. Councilman Rose seconded them, and supported the resolution with a telegram to Miss Jean Rhonds, which were dispatched to Senator Hiram Johnson for immediate delivery to Vice-President Coolidge, Senator Gillette of the Senate Appropriations and to Representatives and Senators in Congress.

"Whereas, abandonment or curtailment of any part of the Navy Department program for the development of naval bases and shore equipment stations on the Pacific Coast would be a disastrous and irreparable blow to the measures planned for the defense of this country; now be it

"Resolved, that the City Council of Los Angeles hereby urges immediate action by the national Senate and House of Representatives in approving appropriations recommended by the Navy Department for the establishment of naval bases on the Pacific Coast with the enlargement of bases already in operation; and, be it further

"Resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent by telegraph to the Vice-President of the United States,

Big Balm Wanted for Husband's Freedom

Peggy Hopkins Joyce,

MISCONDUCT CHARGES ARE DENIED IN CROSS COMPLAINT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, May 16.—Margaret Hopkins Joyce, known on the stage as Peggy Hopkins, filed a cross bill for separate maintenance in the Superior Court today against her third husband, James Stanley Joyce, wealthy Chicago lumber man. His bill was for an annulment of their marriage, which he charged took place two days before his wife was granted a divorce from her second husband, Phillbrick Hopkins. She denied all charges of misconduct made by Joyce.

Mrs. Joyce also asked a bill of injunction preventing her husband from having her "hounded" by detectives or from molesting her. She also asked for $10,000 a month temporary allowance. She said her husband's income was $1,000,000 a year.

Mrs. Joyce declared shortly after their marriage her husband conveyed properties to her and gave her money amounting to $500,000. For a home in Miami, Fla., he paid $250,000 and gave it to her in a quitclaim deed, she said. Later, she asserted, he attempted to question her right in the property by giving a warranty deed to his brother, David G. Joyce.

While in Paris last year she said, Joyce told her he had to return to America on business and left her. When she returned, she declared, she found her husband had taken her two fur coats valued at $50,000 from storage. The coats were given her by a former husband, the bill asserted.

"I'LL GET A MILLION."

Mrs. Stillman's Rival Made Boast, Letter by Woman Asserts.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, May 16.—Mrs. Florence H. Leeds, named by Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman in her answer to the complaint in the divorce action brought by her husband, James A. Stillman, boasted that she would get "a million" out of Stillman, according to a letter received by Mrs. Stillman's attorneys some time ago, a part of which became known today.

The letter from a woman whose name was withheld, is supposed to have furnished Mrs. Stillman's attorneys with their first definite information concerning Mrs. Leeds and was dated March 12, 1921. It told of Mrs. Leeds's career as a chorus girl under the name of Florence Lawlor, told of the birth of Jay Leeds on Sept. 17, 1918, and said that Mrs. Leeds took a trip to Europe with "Mr. Leeds" in the spring of 1920.

"Mrs. Leeds frequently threatened to expose Mr. Stillman if he did not divorce Mrs. Stillman and marry her," one sentence of the letter reads. It then continued: "She has boasted that she intends to get a million from him and I have reason to believe that she has nearly reached her mark. Last year Mrs. Leeds sold her automobile, Mr. Stillman buying her a Brewster car said to have cost $10,000."

The letter added that Mrs. Leeds had two bank accounts, one with the Corn Exchange Bank and one with the Empire Trust Company.

Mrs. Stillman's attorneys were said to be investigating another woman as the result of a letter received during the last few days. This woman, who is described as good looking and of the plump blonde type, is said to have occupied an apartment very near Mr. Stillman's city home at 270 Park avenue. According to the letter, this woman has been divorced and was very much in the company of men of wealth.

MORE TALK ON NAVAL BILL

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—When the Senate adjourned tonight little or no progress had been made in the consideration of the naval appropriation bill and all of the Pacific Coast items were still in abeyance, to be considered later. Senators Pomerene and La Follette denounced the enlarged appropriations for the Navy and insisted that the Senate should not follow the committee's recommendations on many points.

It was hoped early in the day that the Senate would consider the Pacific Coast items and accept them for incorporation in the bill as it is to pass the Senate, thus placing the difficult task of reconciling the differences to the conference between the House and the Senate. The speeches of La Follette and Pomerene, however, occupied most of the time and prevented any consideration of the West Coast needs.

Both Senators declared great expenditures were unnecessary and inexpedient. Senator Pomerene supported the Borah amendment and advocated one of his own to clothe the President with authority to suspend capital ship construction for six months.

Senator La Follette declared the Navy building program was a "waste of the people's money." Capital ships would become obsolete in five

NEW YORK, May 16.—Manufacturers and business interests are urged to take the offensive and resist the alleged attempt of union-labor leaders to dominate industry, in the report of the Committee on Industrial Betterment, Health and Safety, presented today at the annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"Leaders of labor cannot and apparently do not care to hide their determination to rule industry," said the report, "and aspire to govern it politically as well.

JAPS ABANDON HOPE OF YANK-BRITISH QUARREL; WANT CHINESE AS ALLY

[Copyright, New York World.]

TIEN-TSIN (China) May 16.—Information in high diplomatic circles is that an air-tight amalgamation of the yellow races has been put under way as the result of conferences being held in this city and Tokio. Here the three great war lords of China have been meeting, while in Tokio the chiefs of the army, the government and the elder statesmen have been called together to consider the whole situation in the Far East.

Japan, it is understood, has given up hope of driving a wedge between the United States and Great Britain and intends to make a close agreement with China. The program, as it is understood in high diplomatic quarters, involves the following:

PROGRAM OUTLINED.

The immediate and unconditional return to China of the Province of Shantung.

Reunification of the North and South governments of China, which have long been in opposition.

Reorganization of the finances of China, including the cancelation of loans and the application of the Boxer indemnity paid to Japan for educational purposes for Chinese, following the example set by America.

Rehabilitation of the Chinese navy and co-operation against the Russian reactionary forces now operating in Mongolia.

The three Chinese War Lords—Gen. Chang Tsao-Lin, Governor of Manchuria; Gen. Tsao-Kun, Inspector-General of the Province of Chi-Li (which contains Peking,) and Gen. Wang Chan Yuen, Military Governor of Hupeh, have practically taken control of the government of China after a meeting here in which they are understood to have come to terms with Japan for a close affiliation against the western powers.

Can't Get Old Stand-by Medicines Any More; Where Will It End?

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The extremes to which some men go to satisfy the craving for strong drink since the country went dry, shocked the House Judiciary Committee today at the hearing on the Volstead bill to make the prohibition enforcement law more drastic.

Representatives of manufacturers of flavoring extracts, patent medicines and perfumes in protesting against added restrictions, which they claim would interfere seriously with their business, were outspoken in opposition to medical beer and the sale of concoctions masquerading as medicine, but actually used as beverages. The story of the man who became drunk after drinking hair tonic, jamaica ginger and similar things crept in continually.

OLD-TIMERS GONE.

In a list of more than 100, products, branded as "booze medicine," some old bottles that had their place on the shelves of country drug stores for more than half a century were paraded in full view of the committee and denounced by spokesmen for proprietary medicine associations, who declared they had begun medicating alcohol used in all their preparations long before the Eighteenth Amendment swept out the bars.

There were frequent clashes. Nobody said a word in favor of beer. Patent medicine men told Mr. Volstead that so far as they were concerned he could go as far as he liked with beer, but they did not agree with his announcement that he would fight to prevent the use of wine as an alcoholic base for any remedy.

EXTRACT MEN HEARD.

Extract manufacturers were more pronounced in their opposition to the new tightening-up measure, one witness reminding the chairman his enforcement act had to be amended in the House to give them a chance to live.

Charles D. Joyce, president of a flavoring extract association, declared no man had ever been able to drink lemon extract in sufficient quantities to make him drunk and live.

"The only man who ever tried to do it, to my knowledge," he said, "had to line his mouth and throat with talcum powder before taking the first swallow."

DUBLIN, May 16.—Capt. Henry Harrison, secretary of the Irish Dominion League, declared today that he was in possession of information that unless a settlement between Ireland and Great Britain was effected within the next two months England would begin an intensified coercion on a scale hitherto unthought of.

Crown officials here believe that if they were given a free hand they could pacify Ireland within a few weeks.

THIRTY-THREE DEATHS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

DUBLIN, May 1.—Reports of ambuscades and other attacks on the military police and civilians Saturday and Sunday show there were thirty-three deaths from violence, this being the highest number recorded for such a period.

Four persons, one a woman, were killed in County Galway last night by men lying in ambush at Ballyturn.

Those killed were District Inspector Blake and Mrs. Blake, Capt. Cornwallis, a son of Col. F. S. Cornwallis, in whose automobile the party was riding, and Lieut. McCreery. Mrs. Gregory, the only other person in the car, was not injured.

The party had been playing tennis at the residence of Magistrate Bagot of Ballyturn house and were returning home at Gort. Reaching the end of the avenue leading from Ballyturn house and finding the gate closed Capt. Cornwallis got out to open the gate. Shots immediately were fired from the shrubbery and he fell dead.

Armed masked men said to have numbered about forty then surrounded the car and ordered the women to leave. Mrs. Blake refused, saying she would die by her husband. Mrs. Gregory was led away.

Shortly afterwards the four bodies were found near the gate.

After the shooting several men went to Ballyturn house and handed in a notice threatening to burn the house if there were reprisals. Military and police reinforcements sent to the scene were fired on and one constable was seriously wounded.

Lieut. McCreery was only 19 years old. Mrs. Gregory is a daughter-in-law of Lady Augusta Gregory, an Irish playwright.

DE VALERA STATEMENT.

Premier Lloyd George, says the Freeman's Journal today, has offered to meet Eamonn De Valera, or other Irish leaders, without conditions. De Valera, adds the newspaper, replied that if the Premier made such a statement public, he (De Valera) would give a public reply.

Early this month a conference occurred between Eamonn De Valera and Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier designate, at which these two leaders of their respective sections of opinion in Ireland talked over the situation. The meeting was said to have been without tangible results, with respects to the warfare in Ireland, but the fact that it was held was commented upon in Dublin Castle and other circles as a hopeful sign.

UNION MEN RAID SHIP.

Attack and Drive Off Crew of Steamer; Police Called to Guard Dock.

PORTLAND (Or.) May 16.—Men said to be marine strike sympathizers raided the 12,000-ton steamer Swiftscout today and a free-for-all fight between the raiders and members of the nonunion crew ensued, which ended in the crew being expelled from the vessel, after which the raiders also went ashore.

Capt. George E. Bridgett, marine superintendent of the Swiftsure Oil Company, owner of the Swiftscout, was on board directing the operation of lining the vessel, which has been chartered to load grain here. Capt. Bridgett was roughly handled by the raiders and his clothes were partly torn from him.

Capt. Bridgett sent a call for police protection, and after a new crew had been supplied by the Federal Sea Service Bureau, operations on the Swiftscout were resumed with police guards on the dock to prevent further attempts at boarding.

WILLIAMSON (W. Va.) May 16.—Firing on the Crystal Block Coal Company headhouse at Rawl, W. Va., broke out early tonight, according to reports received here by Capt. J. R. Brockus at State police headquarters.

It was the first disorder reported today in the Kentucky-West Virginia border trouble zone. The shots were fired, Capt. Brockus said, from the Kentucky Mountains. He added the shooting lasted but a few minutes.

An Associated Press correspondent had traversed the trouble zone from Rawl to Sprigg, with Capt. Brockus and a detachment of State police an hour earlier without hearing a shot. Evidences of the battles of the last few days, however, were plentiful at Rawl, Merrimac and Sprigg.

GERMANS RECEIVE ALLIED DISARMAMENT ORDERS.

Berlin Again Told of Failure to Live Up to Treaty Terms; Only Immediate Action to Stop Ruhr Invasion.

BERLIN, May 16.—The Allied Powers in a communication received at the Berlin Foreign Office yesterday set forth the disarmament measures which Germany must put into effect immediately in accordance with the terms of the Allied ultimatum of May 6. The Allied note, which is signed by Gen. Tollet, head of the inter-Allied disarmament commission, details the particular cases in which Germany has failed to carry out the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles and points out that immediate dismantling of fortresses and destruction of war materials as called for in that pact is imperative if the invasions of the Ruhr is to be avoided.

"WILL DO HER BEST."

After the note had been digested at the Foreign Office an official close to Chancellor Wirth quoted the Chancellor as saying, in commenting on the communication:

"Germany will do her best to fulfill the conditions prescribed. She will carry out the terms before the expiration of the time limit if possible."

Gen. Tollet's note recalls that the reduction of certain fortresses is already overdue and points out that the treaty gives Germany until July 1 to complete disarmament.

The Foreign Office official told the correspondent that orders for the dismantling of the fortifications on Germany's eastern frontier had been issued just prior to the receipt of the Allied note.

CONFERENCES ARRANGED.

Conferences with members of the Allied Disarmament Commission will be arranged to work out means for fulfilling the other disarmament terms set forth in the note. The German authorities undertake by their recent acceptance of the Allied ultimatum, to carry out the program which the Entente officials dictate.

At the War Ministry today a statement was issued giving revised figures on the extent to which the disarmament has already been affected. The statements assert that the following quantities of war materials have been destroyed in accordance with the terms of the treaty: 49,320 guns and cannon of all calibers and parts thereof; 26,350 gun carriages; 37 mine throwers; 5700 machine guns; 152,494 parts of machine guns; 4,767,752 hand weapons, both arms and rifles; 227,330 infantry weapons of all sorts; 28,000,000 loaded shells, 300,000 tons of unloaded shells; 52,000,000 fuses; 24,700 tons of cartridge shells; 345,000,000 pieces of munitions for hand weapons and 18,000 tons of powder.

CEASE TO EXIST.

Germany's munitions industry has ceased to exist, the statement continues, as all the machinery used in the manufacture of munitions and weapons has been destroyed or dismantled. War Ministry officials contend that Germany has made an honest effort to disarm as far as the destruction of war materials is concerned.

Measures for the trial of war criminals are now under consideration by the Ministry of Justice. According to the program now arranged, the trials, immediate disposal of which was demanded in the Allied ultimatum of May 6, will begin May 23, before the high court in Leipsic. German officials assert that the speed with which these can be dealt with depends upon the extent of co-operation the Allied powers are prepared to give in the submission of evidence and the production of witnesses against those charged with the violation of the laws and usages of war. Germany will be governed in this matter, Ministry of Justice officials assert, by instructions that are expected from the Allies in elaboration of the ultimatum demand.

MAKES THEM THINK.

Fulfillment of the economic terms to which Germany subscribed by her submission to the Allied demands is causing the statesmen of this country to think and think hard. How Germany is going to discharge her obligation is being discussed at length in business and political circles and in the press.

UPHOLDS DRY AMENDMENT.

Supreme Court Declares Limit on Time of Ratification Doesn't Invalidate.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The requirement that the prohibition amendment be ratified within seven years by three-fourths of the States does not invalidate the entire measure, the Supreme Court today ruled. The decision was given in the appeal of J. J. Dillon of San Francisco from decisions in lower courts refusing his petition for a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that the limitation made the amendment invalid.

Dillon was arrested while transporting a case of wine to the home of its owner. His counsel asserted that Section 3 of the amendment, originally proposed by Senator Harding, placed a limitation on the action of the State legislatures and was therefore unconstitutional.

SUCCEEDNG ACTS.

"We find that proposal and ratification of an advance are treated as succeeding acts in a common endeavor," the opinion said, "and there is a fair implication that they should be fairly contemporaneous."

In the course of the decision the court ruled formally that the prohibition amendment went into effect Jan. 16, 1920. Dillon's alleged offense was on Jan. 17, 1920.

Article 5 of the Constitution makes no limitation of the ratification period, the court said, and this section covers the amending powers of Congress.

LIMITATION NECESSARY.

Congress had in mind the fact that two proposed amendments had "lain dormant for almost a century," after they were submitted, the court said, and a majority of

Women's Buying

Some one has said that "style isn't style until it crosses an international boundary."

As an adjunct to its Fashion Service, Butterick publishes paper dress patterns.

The sale of these patterns throughout the civilized world gives an indisputable comparison of women's buying.

Butterick sells more patterns in a store in the Avenue de l'Opera, Paris, than are sold in any other store in the world.

But the strange phenomenon is, that whenever fundamental changes in style (they originate in Paris) are accepted by the women of any great country, they are simultaneously accepted in every great nation.

In Stockholm, or Sydney, Cairo, Egypt, or Cairo, Illinois, the women who lead, all really follow Paris, but inexplicably they somehow seem all to divine at the same moment that they want the same thing.

We don't know why this is true, but it has been demonstrated too frequently to be only a coincidence.

If you make goods approved by women generally in one State, you may be sure of their acceptance by women among all great nations.

WORKERS REPLY TO RAILROADS.

Jewell Files Rebuttal With the Labor Board.

Declares Human Rights Are Held Irrelevant.

Charges Roads With Ignoring Equities of the Case.

CHICAGO, May 16.—B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, filed his final reply today to the list of arguments presented to the Railroad Labor Board by the railways in support of their plea for a reduction of the wages of common labor.

The roads closed their case on May 7 and representatives of the employees had until today to present their final rebuttal. Today the board began consideration of the case in executive session, a decision not being expected for several weeks.

IGNORE EQUITIES.

In his statement Mr. Jewell held that in regard to the fundamental issues the carriers have said nothing beyond declaring that questions of human rights and human standards are irrelevant. He declared the roads have only emphasized their financial needs, seeking to appeal to the sympathies of the board without regard to the equities in the case.

Mr. Jewell declared in a number of exhibits the employees have shown such an appeal for sympathy to be unfounded. In answer to the attack of the railroads on the exhibits entitled "inadequacies of management," he quoted the Railway Age as estimating that the transportation industry needed $6,000,000,000 to put it abreast of the time. It would be a fundamental injustice, he said, if the board should grant a reduction in the rates of pay because of the financial embarrassment of the roads.

Mr. Jewell's reply urged that unless the needs of a normal family are used as the basis for establishing a minimum wage the tendency would be to discourage marriage or to make necessary the labor of wives and young children, and thereby bring about a steady deterioration of the health and moral qualities of families affected.

He declared "there has been suggested no method of determining what wage, to be used as a basing point, is just and reasonable, except the method of ascertaining what wage is a living wage, that is, is sufficient to maintain the worker and his family in health, decency and efficiency."

RELY ON JUSTICE.

After pointing out that the railroads or employees were never in favor of the Transportation Act as it was enacted, he added, "now, obedient to the law, they come before this board, temporarily, at least, laying aside their proven weapons and relying on the board for justice. Thus, it is absurd for the roads to talk about supply and demand and to attack the living wage principle as impracticable."

Mr. Jewell quoted statistics to show the United States possesses ample power of production to sustain a high general standard of living and added, "but it is obvious that America cannot utilize these productive powers to the full unless she does maintain a high standard of living."

YELLOW RACES PLAN ALLIANCE

Yuki Chi Obata, the Japanese Minister to Peking, who went through Tien Tsin on his way to the Tokio council, disparaged the banking consortium whereby it was planned to put the finances of China in good condition by the co-operation of Great Britain, France, the United States and Japan. Mr. Obata said, however, that China must have financial assistance from outside sources.

"The attempt to recover the Nishii Hara loans must be avoided now that China is in sore straits," he said, "and the general principle of the co-existence of China and Japan must be recognized."

Japan, however, is taking precautions to be in the most favorable position in case of the surrender of Shantung. The Japanese garrison commander at the vital port of Taing-Tao is demanding that the Chinese shall pay off the mortgages which the Germans took on desirmeans of foreclosure on those who means of foreclosure on these who cannot pay the Japanese will thus acquire favored sites. They are also buying other sites in the port and also at Tsinan-Fu, the junction of the Shantung railroad, with the main line from Peking south.

They later plan to establish exclusive concessions near the railway and port terminals which give them an advantage in trade. It is said that the new Cabinet in Peking favors all the above acts.

JURY DISAGREES ON TWIN FALLS FORGERY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

TWIN FALLS (Idaho) May 16.—A jury in the District Court here in the case of A. D. Pollock, former vice-president of the Bank of Hansen, on trial for alleged forgery of the name of his father-in-law, O. M. Etter, to a $3500 note passed through his bank, today reported its inability to agree, and was discharged.

TOWN HAS TRAFFIC RULES FOR BUMS; SHERIFF RAIDS OWN FARM AND FINDS STILL.

ESTON (W. Va.) May 16.—Traffic rules for bums have been adopted by local authorities. Large white lines have been painted on certain streets and the lines thus merged mark a forbidden zone. The restricted district comprises the main business section.

FRANKLIN (Ky.) May 16.—Sheriff McClanahan made a raid on his own farm and found a whisky booth which had been set up by four bootleggers from Tennessee. Sixty gallons of moonshine were seized. The Tennesseeans were ignorant of the land's ownership.

ASHLAND (Ky.) May 16.—Jack Davis appeared before the Council to get a license to operate a jitney bus, leaving the jitney outside. He was granted the license, but now has no use for it. Some one stole the car while he was at the meeting.

PROTEST OIL MONOPOLIES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—It is the policy of the American government in every part of the world "to inquire and make representations to foreign governments wherever it appears that monopolistic petroleum concessions might be granted to the possible detriment of American citizens," according to a State Department report signed by Secretary Hughes and transmitted to the Senate today in answer to a resolution passed by the Senate a year ago.

Secretary Hughes included in the report copies of communications exchanged between the United States and Holland in reference to the Djambi oil fields of the Dutch East Indies and summaries of State Department actions taken in Mexico.

TO MAINTAIN RIGHTS.

The report supplemented and brought up to date information given the Senate last year, when the world oil situation and the diplomatic steps taken by the United States in endeavoring to maintain rights of Americans to participate in the exploitation of foreign oil fields was explained.

In all diplomatic communications, the statement said, it had been emphasized that foreign nationals and corporations controlled by foreign nationals have enjoyed privileges in the exploitation of American oil fields equal to those extended to citizens of the United States.

In the British empire during the year, however, the report said, "the operation of the Anglo-Persian Oil Company, in which the British government owns two-thirds of the ordinary shares, have steadily increased." In British dominions and French possessions further steps were said to be tending to establish ownership of oil developments and potential fields in the nationals of the countries concerned.

IN DJAMBI FIELD.

In the Djambi matter, the statement said, it was hoped that the concessions bill might be modified to let Americans participate, but under present conditions it was certain that control of the development would go to the Bataafsche Petroleum Company and the Shell Transport and Trading Company.

As to British plans, the report said, an agreement was concluded during the year by which the Papuan oil fields are to be exploited under direction of the Anglo-Persian Company. In India, it adds, regulations now refuse permits to prospect for oil, except to British subjects or companies controlled by them. In Canada, the only new restriction noted was one denying the right to prospect or develop oil within the Dominion to citizens of countries which discriminate against Canadian subjects.

Recent decrees promulgated in Mexico were given in the report, together with a statement that the United States "had not been informed of any steps taken to the detriment of American citizens."

Under them, though, representations were continuing with reference to oil lands titles.

MORE TALK ON NAVAL MEASURE

years, he said, adding that with development of aircraft, submarines and seacoast defenses the United States would be impregnable from attack.

NO EXTRAVAGANCE SHOWN.

Demands for disarmament finally caused Senator Poindexter, in charge of the bill, to state no information had been submitted to show extravagance in the proposed naval purchases.

Senator Pomerene replied that when "officers with gold lace whispered 'Yap,' members of the Naval Committee had America and voted for large appropriations."

Senator Borah interjected that military expenditures were holding up projects like soldier relief, western reclamation and other developments.

Senator La Follette said "great financial interests" desired a powerful Navy to protect their interests. He introduced an amendment providing that none of the American warcraft should be used to "coerce or compel collection" of any private claim, grant or concession.

SHORTRIDGE HOPEFUL.

Senator Shortridge was hopeful tonight that the feud between Alameda and Vallejo would not result in the exclusion of all the Pacific Coast items until next year, or whenever the various Coast districts could get together and make a unanimous request for specific appropriations for all of the communities. He believes that if the items can be placed in the bill by the Senate he can hold the Pacific Coast items which are not in controversy, at least, even if the Alameda base item is eliminated for this fiscal year.

The Pacific Coast items which it is hoped to save in conference are as follows:

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

Naval air station, Sandpoint, Wash., for heavier-than-air equipment. Equipment, $600,000; grading, filling and clearing, $200,000; total, $800,000.

Completion of naval hospital, San Diego, $1,000,000.

All of these items have been added by the Senate Naval Committee and it is believed all or most of these can be held in the bill through the conference.

The conference on the part of the Senate will include Chairman Page, Poindexter and Hale of Maine. The House conferees will probably include Chairman Butler, Fred A. Britten and Sidney E. Mudd. Congressman Britten was one of the members of the joint naval commission of the House and Senate which, after a visit to the Pacific Coast, unanimously recommended the naval bases over which there is now so much controversy.

REBEL IS EXECUTED.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CORK (Ireland) May 16.—Daniel O'Brien of Knockandbane, Liscarrol, County Cork, was tried by drumhead court-martial Saturday and executed in the Cork detention barracks this morning.

O'Brien met death bravely, maintaining the same attitude that he displayed at his trial, when in answering the request to plead he replied:

"I have no defense; I was caught as a soldier and you can try me."

An attack was made on the Cork prison at midnight last night. It took the form of attempts to snipe the guard. The guard replied with machine guns and sent up signal lights which brought a strong military force from the barracks and the attacking party was dispersed.

This was the third attack within two months.

ARRESTS IN LONDON.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, May 16.—Three arrests have been made by the police in connection with Saturday night's attack on residences in London and its suburbs, which relatives of members of the Royal Irish Constabulary attributed to a Sinn Fein campaign to terrorize London.

A number of houses and other buildings were fired and three persons wounded, one probably mortally.

RAIDERS IN LIVERPOOL.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LIVERPOOL, May 16.—Six houses in widely separated parts of this city were raided and set on fire by unidentified parties last night. The occupants of every house thus visited have relatives serving in the Royal Irish Constabulary. The inmates were in some cases gagged and bound, the furniture was drenched with kerosene and set on fire, and in some instances the helpless people were left to the mercy of the flames by the raiders, who fled in automobiles.

The raids were in all ways similar to those made in suburban districts of London and in this city Saturday night.

WOMEN NOT IMMUNE.

One house that was raided was occupied by a widow and her daughter. The latter opened the door when there was a knock, and she was seized by the throat by the intruder. She struggled and fled to her mother and then fainted. The women were too terrified to raise an alarm.

In another house were three sisters, who were overawed by a dozen men, who displayed revolvers and threatened to shoot them if they stirred.

A terrier attacked the raiders when they assailed his 77-year-old master and prevented them from setting fire to the house. When the raiders ran, the dog chased them, but was shot dead.

A sailor named Brailsford, who lost a leg in the famous naval raid on Zeebrugge, refused to throw up his hands when men broke into his house, but threw a sewing machine at the intruders, who fled, firing their revolvers.

None of the raiders has been arrested.

FIND BRIDE SLAIN, HUSBAND MISSING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FLORENCE (Ala.) May 16.—The mutilated body of Mrs. Myrtle Williams Seay, a bride, aged 20, was found last night on a hillside at Stewart's Springs, near here. F. W. Seay, the husband, is missing, according to the police.

GEORGIA COURT IS REVERSED.

Federal Reserve Bank Case is to be Retried.

Charged "Cash Over Counter" Hurts Small Banks.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The Supreme Court today reversed decrees of Georgia courts, which had refused to enjoin the Federal reserve bank at Atlanta from collecting checks drawn on nonmember State banks and the case was remanded to the lower courts. As the issue before the Supreme Court was merely whether, as a matter of pleading, the plaintiff's bill of complaint stated a cause of action, the decision today was not a final determination and the case will go back to the District Court of the Northern District of Georgia, where the next step is expected to be tried upon its merits.

HARD ON SMALL BANKS.

The plaintiffs asserted that to enforce its policy of par collection of checks the Atlanta Reserve Bank planned to hold checks of small nonmember banks until they reached a material size and then to demand payment "in cash across the counter" and to utilize other methods, which would necessitate nonmember banks keeping always on hand a sum out of all proportion to their capital. Such methods, they said, would force them to close or to join the Federal reserve system. A suit for an injunction to restrain the reserve bank from proceeding along these lines was dismissed when the Georgia court sustained a demurrer of the Federal reserve bank. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court.

WILL NOT INTERFERE.

Gov. Harding of the Federal Reserve Board said tonight the Supreme Court's decision will not interfere with the check-clearing functions of the Federal reserve banks and those banks will continue to collect checks drawn on those banks, which are listed on the par lists.

"The opinion of the Supreme Court does not deny the legal authority of the Federal reserve bank to collect checks on nonmember banks by making presentations thereof at the counter," Gov. Harding said, "but holds merely that nonmember banks may be entitled to relief if they can prove that the Federal reserve bank maleiously intends to accumulate checks and present them in an oppositive manner for the sole purpose of injuring the banks upon which the checks are drawn."

In opposing the suit, counsel for the Federal Reserve Board denied it "intended any illegal act" and asserted that par collection on checks would save more than $70,000,000 a year to the public.

RESUME ALASKAN SERVICE.

SEATTLE (Wash.) May 16.—Passenger, freight and mail service to ports of Southeastern and Southwestern Alaska will be resumed tomorrow under orders issued by the United States Shipping Board. The steamship Northwestern will sail tomorrow with the first mail from Seattle to Alaska since the shipping strike started, and the Admiral Watson, which arrived last night, will sail on the return trip Wednesday, it was announced by the Pacific Steamship Company. The Northwestern was chartered by the Shipping Board to carry supplies.

A complete crew was signed for the Northwestern at the new Shipping Board scale, Pacific Steamship Company officials said. The new scale is 15 per cent below the old scale and provides for payment for actual overtime. The crew was signed under open-shop conditions, officials said.

REFUSE WAGE CUT.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Representatives of the clerical forces and stores and station men of the Southern Pacific refused today to accept a 20 per cent reduction in wages proposed April 28 by the company, on the ground that the living conditions did not warrant it. The company will take an appeal to the Railway Labor Wage Board.

Freight handlers and truckers were not included in today's conference, which will be followed this week by other company conferences with representatives of employees in different departments.

mit members of their organization, are policies of coercion and intimidation, are therefore notoriously in disrespect of law except when in their own favor."

The report charges that union labor spent $1,377,204 during the year ending April 30, 1920, for administration, politics and strikes.

The committee urged that the open shop movement be stimulated by the extension of plans for industrial representation, explaining:

"If plans for its adoption are wisely introduced, industrial representation should become the most approved method of dealing with labor. Such plans can be inaugurated where friends of labor organizations, as well as independent workers are employed."

Contractors who conspired with labor leaders to compel extortion of payment for construction were condemned and the report recommended that they be "ostracized as far as possible and preference be given contractors who deal honorably and honestly not only with the employee but with the owner."

The report declared no co-operation from the leaders of present labor organizations can be hoped for in reducing cost of transportation, housing, rents and labor, adding they are all pyramided on labor costs and cannot be successfully reduced except by the co-operation of labor.

COAST APPEALS TO WASHINGTON

as presiding officer of the Senate; to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to the California Senators and Representatives at Washington."

OTHERS ACT.

Similar action was taken by the Santa Monica City Council and by civic and commercial organizations in communities scattered along the coast from California to Washington.

Five hundred members of the Hollywood Business Men's Club met and adopted the following resolution, which, signed by James B. Irsfeld, president, was forwarded to Senators Samuel M. Shortridge and Hiram Johnson and Congressmen H. Z. Osborne and Walter F. Lineberger:

"The Hollywood Business Men's Club earnestly urges you to support to the utmost the appropriations recommended by the government naval experts for improvement of Pacific Coast naval bases."

The Chamber of Commerce, following its wire of Saturday, in which all important seaport communities of the Coast were asked to swing into line, sent the following telegram to the inland cities of Sacramento, Walla Walla, Wash.; Boise, Idaho; Reno, Nev., and Eugene, Or.:

"Interests of the entire West will suffer if Congress fails to approve naval base program for Pacific Coast. Will you not join port cities in wiring your representative in Congress to wage vigorous battle to retain Pacific Fleet in these waters and provide adequate facilities for its maintenance? Highest authorities agree on policy of having large fleet completely equipped in Pacific at this time."

The message was signed by Frank Wiggins, secretary.

"Adequate naval bases on the Pacific are just as vital to the safety of this region as an ample fleet and men capable of handling our fighting material," declared Rear-Admiral J. S. McKean last night in an address at a largely attended meeting held at Immanuel Presbyterian Church under the auspices of the Church Brotherhood.

"The American Navy has the finest men to be found anywhere and they can do their part when occasion arises, but they must be supplied with the vessels and with the bases which are absolutely essential if they are to protect either coast in time of war.

"The Atlantic Coast has one really adequate base, in Chesapeake Bay. There is no such base on this coast and it will be too late to build one if we wait until war reminds us how seriously we need it.

"This country seeks no special favors and it expects none. However, it must demand that it be given on a square deal everywhere, and the only way that it can be assured of getting it is by being prepared to enforce that demand should it ever become necessary to do so. To protest our rights we must have a navy that is fifty-fifty with the best that any other nation has afloat."

Others who discussed the fleet situation, earnestly demanding that the people of the Pacific Coast obtain from Congress the adequate naval protection contemplated in the program of the Navy Department, included Chaplain E. G. Scott of the U.S.S. New Mexico; Dr. Ford A. Carpenter, manager of the department of meteorology and aeronautics of the Chamber of Commerce; Mayor Snyder, Chairman Jonathan S. Dodge of the Board of Supervisors and Chief Yeoman E. Lee of the New Mexico.

Admiral McKean fully discussed the condition of the fleet on this Coast and spoke of the difficulties experienced in maintaining a fleet without adequate docking and repair stations ashore.

Dr. Carpenter, who holds the rank of lieutenant, senior grade, in the Naval Reserve Corps, and who is recognized as one of the leading aeronautical authorities of the country, asserted that "a navy is helpless without its docks and repair stations ashore."

"The three important points in the question that confronts the American people as a whole now that the Pacific Coast naval program is not yet outlined are:

"(1.) The need for a navy in the Pacific.

"(2.) Requirements of docks on the Pacific.

"(3.) Procedure necessary to give the navy its opportunity.

"As for the need, [illegible] the Pacific was considered a lake; it was, and is to a certain extent today a desert ocean, to say a deserted ocean. But especially the months since have changed all of this. The world's theater of [illegible] naval activity is rapidly moving from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

"History shows that a navy is the backbone of [illegible] for it is an axiom as old as the Phoenicians that 'trade follows flag.' There never was a [illegible] cial nation which did not have a strong navy. When Roosevelt was Assistant Secretary of the Navy he enunciated the policy to 'speak softly, but carry a big stick.' It has always been the policy of United States Navy to be prepared for an emergency.

"Now, for the matter of argument, Napoleon said: 'An army crawls on its stomach.' This can be paraphrased and we can say that a navy is as strong as its docks. Airplanes without landing fields on the coast without a harbor for refuge, a navy without adequate bases—all are equally helpless.

"Touching protection, climate and the various dangers associated with both harbor and fleet. The Pacific Coast of the United States has unequaled diversity of [illegible] Each harbor on the Coast, Puget Sound, San Francisco Bay and San Diego, each [illegible] particular contribution to the perfect whole.

"ALL PULL TOGETHER.

"Therefore, all should pull together, each working for the interests of all. The lesson of [illegible] nal negligence spelled by unpreparedness only a few years ago should stand us all in good stead in putting over the program for a proper naval policy."

Supervisor Dodge, who is a graduate from Annapolis, drew attention to the growth of the Pacific Coast cities and the greater need for protection.

"The Pacific Coast," he said, "has had a taste of the advantages of security offered by the Panama Canal and it is decidedly of the opinion that the number of ships in these waters should be increased rather than diminished. A united front from this great Coast should be presented to Congress that we demand what is due in asking for the new battleships, the fleet and for adequate docks to maintain the fleet."

A CORRECTION.

Through an inadvertence, Capt. H. J. Hatch, commanding officer at Fort MacArthur, was quoted in yesterday's Times as declaring the Pacific Coast defenses at Los Angeles harbor were not immune to attack or destruction by enemy guns.

What Col. Hatch said was that the fortifications now provide adequate defense for all ships in Los Angeles harbor from attack by enemy warships, but would prove of little value in an attack on ships in the harbor by enemy submarines.

Defense against a submarine attack by enemy submarines is amply supplied by the Navy, Col. Hatch declared. He urged the establishment of a naval base on the Pacific Coast sufficient to supply the needs of the entire American Navy, declaring that the Navy could operate successfully on the Pacific coast for a length of time without a base on this Coast.

Burial in Cemetery is Also Halted.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 16.—On the spot where he had fallen, under the shotgun fire of hidden assassins, the body of Tony D'Andrea rested today, while a grief-stricken priest intoned prayers for the repose of his soul.

The vast funeral procession had been barred from the Catholic church. Little Italy, in its colorful shawls and best suits and dresses, stood with bent head while the steps of the murdered leader's home were impressed into impromptu service as a bier and the sidewalk and street became for the moment a great church. The Rev. Father Louis D'Andrea, brother of the slain man, read the prayers. He preached no sermon. His attitude throughout the brief service was rather that of an intercessor pleading a personal case than that of a pastor reading from a ritual.

BURIAL IS HALTED.

Preceded by the D'Andrea automobile, filled with flowers, the vast throng then started for the cemetery. Here another setback was experienced, as the hand of the church also halted burial. Last-minute efforts secured a resting place for the body in a neighboring cemetery.

The news that D'Andrea had been refused church burial flashed through the great crowd just before the burial procession started on its way through the Italian district. Seventy uniformed policemen, a squad of motorcycle police and a score of plainclothes men mingled with the cortege, which proved two and one-half miles long, as it wended its way to the cemetery.

ACTION IS AUTOMATIC.

The order barring the body from the church was issued today by Archbishop Mundelein. Chancellor Hoban said that the action of the church was entirely automatic. "He had not carried out the conditions the church imposes," the chancellor said. "The law of the church is the same to all."

Close friends of D'Andrea said that, although he had been educated for the priesthood in Italy during his youth he had proclaimed his separation from the church and had never wished to be considered a Catholic.

Police today admitted that no new clews to D'Andrea's slayer had been found. His killing was the result of a bitter political feud that had been waging in the Nineteenth Ward, the Italian district, for years.

WADHAM WINS FIGHT FOR MAYOR RECOUNT.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, May 16.—The recount of the ballots cast in San Diego's Mayoralty election, contested by Attorney James A. Wadham, one of the candidates, began this afternoon after Judge J. P. Wood of Los Angeles had decided that it should be held. Counsel for Mayor-installed John L. Bacon fought to prevent it, although he had announced he would offer no obstruction.

During the preliminaries, a sensation was caused by evidence that six of the 122 packages of ballots had come to the City Clerk from the election boards with war seals broken and the end flaps of the envelopes open. City Clerk Allen H. Wright said the seals were probably broken in handling of the cans in which the envelopes were placed for transport to the City Hall.

The ballots are being recounted by employees of the County Clerk's office. Attorneys representing both sides watch the proceedings and Judge Wood presides. When contested votes come up the judge lays them aside for argument by the attorneys later. The counting will require several days.

FORMER ADMIRAL OF MEXICAN NAVY DIES.

CAPT. BRENTON, RETIRED, SPENT HIS LAST YEARS IN MISSIONARY WORK.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Capt. Reginald Carey Brenton, senior captain on the emergency list of the British Navy, and former admiral-in-chief of the Mexican Navy, under the Diaz administration, is dead in Mexico, at the age of 73 years, according to word received by friends today.

Capt. Brenton was known on the Pacific Coast through frequent visits. Several years ago he retired from active naval service, to devote himself to non-sectarian missionary work. He founded a missionary at Port Said and did religious work in France, Spain, Mexico, and along the Pacific Coast of the United States.

POLICE SAY DENTIST SAW WOMAN DIE.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—Dr. C. W. A. Spies, a dentist, today, according to the police, admitted he drove Miss Vera Burkhardt, 21, a school-teacher, to the place on a country road near here where her body was found May 7.

Dr. Spies, police said, stated he drove Miss Burkhardt there at her request and he saw her place something to her mouth as she alighted from his automobile. An autopsy revealed she died of poisoning.

COUNTRY'S RAILS ARE IN JEOPARDY

Expenses Must be Cut or Revenues Increased.

Private Ownership May be Lost, Says Cummins.

Willard Tells Senate Roads Needed High Rates.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Private ownership of railroads cannot continue if railroad operating costs, when fair return on capital is considered, continue to exceed revenues, Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio, today testified before a Senate investigating committee.

He said the railroad situation in so far as depression and lack of earnings were concerned, differed "only in degree" from that now being encountered in other industries. General economic conditions and difficulties encountered in Federal war-time operations, he added, were largely responsible for present difficulties and he expressed confidence that private ownership would justify itself financially and work out under present laws and government policy.

DEFENDS INCREASE.

Mr. Willard, although remarking on the unfavorable returns from present railroad operation, said the government policy of insuring a 5½ per cent return had given investors care in the "ultimate outcome" of operations. He defended the increased freight rates, citing statistics on comparative costs of moving wheat from Argentina and from Kansas to New York.

Federal operation had resulted in turning back 40 per cent of the freight rolling stock in bad order, he said, due to undermaintenance orders. The allowable percentage of bad orders cars should be about 4 per cent, he explained.

Mr. Willard undertook to show private operation during the last nine months of 1920 and to date had justified itself by the expeditious movement of record-breaking quantities of freight.

ANXIOUS TO SOLVE PROBLEM.

The Harding administration is anxious to solve the railroad problem and to make certain the continuance of private ownership and operation.

The Cummins committee has been investigating the condition of the railroads for days, and the Iowa Senator announced that the situation challenges the permanence of private ownership.

"Some way must be found," says Senator Cummins, "either to reduce expenses or increase the revenue, or else the deficits the roads are incurring will have to be paid out of the national treasury."

Mr. Cummins's opinion has been repeated many times. The reason the investigation is on is to find a way either to reduce expenses or to increase revenues. Ostensibly the digging is being done to find out what is the matter with the roads, but this presupposes either reduced expenses or increased revenues. Saliently, however, investigation is on to try to find out which is right, the roads or the labor organizations, in the wage controversy.

FRICTION AT BOTTOM.

A matter of friction is at the bottom of the investigation and friction is manifest during its continuance. Possibly some means may be found to overcome friction and to allow the railroads and the employees to learn "where they are at" and to be content with "whereatness" on a new basis.

Question marks upstanding in the foreign fields have been appealing to the administration for answers for some time. It seems to be arriving at the answer from the point. The railroad question mark has been upstanding and it can be said that although the other marks have somewhat overshadowed it, the administration's eye has been on it through all the fogs and mists of foreign emanation. In fact, the railroads being an entirely national problem, upon the solution of which prosperity so largely depends, it is probable that the administration's interest in it is a way keener than in that of reparations, Versailles treaties and some other things.

RUMOR OF CUTS.

Recently in Washington the opinion has been advanced that the Railroad Labor Board will decide on a reduction of wages of about one-fifth of the present rate. This rumor of intention has come to Washington, but what basis it has naturally no one seems to know. If the reduction shall come and shall be accepted, it is understood that the Interstate Commerce Commission will consider the matter of a reduction in railroad rates.

However, if what seems to be a new conservatism in Washington is to come into its own, it is probable that out of the decisions of the various government boards there finally will come an adjustment of things which, in plain terms, will enable the roads to make more money, to keep up improvements, to pay their stockholders and to avert the bogy of Federal control or actual Federal ownership.

Just what is to come out of the hearings before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, with Mr. Cummins in the chair, no one knows, but it can be said that the roads are putting their best men forward to present their case. They also are making every proper endeavor to get the case presented in the newspapers of the country.

HEARING LENGTHY.

This is a hard thing to do because the hearings are long drawn out, the arguments are not reduced to that minimum of words in which the matter properly can be presented, and the writers find themselves laboring with an immense amount of technicalities with which most of them are not familiar.

President Harding, in the course of his campaign, and in words after the election, has made it perfectly clear that he is opposed to anything approaching government ownership of the railroads. Senator Cummins is opposed to government ownership and also to Federal operation. His friends believe this, and some of them say that the Iowan is a much more conservative man than generally is believed.

WANT TO SOLVE PROBLEM.

It is known that the administration desires that the railroad problem be removed from the field of perplexity just as soon as it is possible to do it. It seems to be generally accepted in Washington that no stability of economic conditions, and no solution of wage controversies can come until railroad trains can run on roads unimpeded by obstacles at every short stage of the running.

While things are somewhat obscure at present, it can be said that the general feeling here is that the railroad matter, like the reparations matter, will be cleared up, and that then the wonder will not be that the country had so much trouble, but that under the circumstances it had so little.

WORLD WAR VETERANS PRAISE LEGISLATURE.

RAINBOW DIVISION SOLDIERS OF CALIFORNIA ELECT OFFICERS AT SACRAMENTO.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, May 16.—Resolutions commending the last Legislature for passing the four welfare bills of the American Legion program, were adopted at the second annual convention of the Rainbow Division veterans of California held in the assembly chamber at the Capitol yesterday.

San Francisco was selected as the meeting place for the 1922 convention and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Calvin Reed, San Francisco; first vice-president, Earl Burlington, Lodi; second vice-president, Ed Regan, Los Angeles; secretary-treasurer, Arthur Brett, Los Angeles; chaplain, John Wirsching, Los Angeles, and historian, Arthur Davis, Los Angeles.

Gov. Stephens addressed the convention and praised the division for the part it played in the World War. He urged the veterans to render as efficient service in civil life as they did in the Army.

The bronze plaque placed on the graves of deceased veterans of the division by the Sacramento chapter was adopted by the State organization and will be placed on the graves of all Rainbow veterans in California.

PRIEST USED STOLEN BONDS TO AID POOR.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 16.—A padlock swings today from the front door of the Church of the Assumption in New Chicago, Ind.

New Chicago, seven miles from Gary, had its beginning four years ago when the demands of the war swept thousands into the maelstrom of the steel mills. In the last year, however, many after man was thrown out of work until the parish of the Assumption learned the meaning of actual want.

Throughout the past year, Father Gorek preached hopeful sermons. He went to the grocers and butchers and pleaded for additional credit for his flock. He strove by every means to keep his parish together and his parishioners faithful. Then came the thing which appeared a miracle. Father Gorek appeared at backdoors, and in addition to advice and spiritual pleadings, he handed out actual cash for the wants of the needy. He told the people that their prayers had been heard.

Then came the shock. The money that Father Gorek had bestowed was part of the proceeds of $1,000,000 mail robbery in Toledo. Father Gorek admitted to government officials that a former woman parishioner had handed him for safekeeping a package of bonds and that he had sold $1000 worth.

Investigation today showed that he had actually used the $1000 to alleviate the sufferings of the poor.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Liniment advertised for sprains and soreness and she asked him to buy a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved the pain and soreness and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. If you are troubled with rheumatism give Chamberlain's Liniment a trial. It is excellent.—(Advertisement.

HARDING'S NOMINATION IS REJECTED.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 16. — The Senate Judiciary Committee voted today to reject President Harding's nomination of Frank Linney to be United States District Attorney in North Carolina.

It was decided, however, to hold this action in abeyance to allow Mr. Linney to be heard in his own behalf. Members of the committee were of the opinion, however, that the action would stand.

Protests against confirmation of Linney's nomination were made by negro clergymen and evidence was presented to show that Linney had promised to connive with North Carolina Democrats to deny negroes the right to vote, in violation of the Fifteenth Amendment.

Linney is Republican State chairman of North Carolina and was a delegate to the Republican National Convention in Chicago last June. His appointment is the second of the North Carolina appointments to meet Senatorial objection, the other being that of David H. Blair of Winston Salem, to be Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who is under investigation of the Finance Committee upon charges preferred by Senator Johnson. It is understood that several more North Carolina appointments on the administration slate will be closely scrutinized.

Any question about whether Carpentier would train in private was settled by Descamps, who said:

"Carpentier will train in private. Newspaper writers will be permitted to see him in his daily workouts, but the public will not be admitted to the training camp. That's one reason we picked the seclusion of Manhasset. We did not come to America to get the admission money at the training camp. Georges is here to win the title, and we consider that far more important than the money."

GREAT RECEPTION.

Carpentier was accorded a wonderful reception on his arrival. When La Savoie warped into pier No. 18, close to 12 o'clock, there was a throng of several thousand people to greet him. The newspaper writers hopped to the job and went out to meet the Frenchman on a revenue cutter. Then after brief interviews, Carpentier landed and was met by Promoter Tex Rickard, Jack Curley and Capt. Mallet. Carpentier walked off the gangplank, holding a cane in one hand, while in the other he held a chain, on the other end of which was a black Belgian police dog.

Carpentier was accompanied by two French sparring partners, Paul

The Preakness Stake Is Won by Broomspun.

BALTIMORE (Md.) May 16.—Probably 25,000 persons at Pimlico racetrack today saw Harry Payne Whitney's colt Broomspun win the fourteenth running of the Preakness, the Pimlico classic. Polly Ann, owned by Spalding Lowe Jenkins of Baltimore, was second; J. E. Griffith's Jeg was third, and the Xalapa Farm's Leonardo II. was fourth.

The race was worth $46,000 to the winner, $5000 to the second horse, $2000 to the third and $2000 to the fourth. It was the year's richest American stake, the value to the winner being more than $4000 in excess of the amount paid to the winner of the Kentucky Derby. The time of the race—for the mile and one furlong—was 1:54-1-5.

Leonardo II. fought a losing fight to get in the first three and was beaten for show by Jeg by a length. The fourteen starters finished in the following order:

Broomspun, Polly Ann, Jeg, Leonardo II., Tryster, Touch Me Not, Copper Demon, Bon Homme, Star Voter, Sunny Jim, Quacreck (added starter), Careful, Loughstorm and Mythology.

FRESNO MAY ASK FOR COAST LEAGUE GAMES.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—The Fresno Chamber of Commerce is planning to request the Pacific Coast League to play one month of baseball there next season.

A conference on the subject was held between Roy Payne, a director of the chamber, and William H. McCarthy, president of the league, it was announced today.

If an agreement is reached an adequate baseball park will be constructed, Payne said. It is the intention of the chamber to ask that two weeks of baseball be played at the opening and two weeks at the end of the league season. President McCarthy said this would mean an extra month of baseball in 1922 if the arrangement was made.

BERLIN CHESS MEN WILLING TO PLAY.

NEW YORK, May 16.—Word was received today from Berlin that several prominent chess players had expressed willingness to take part in the proposed international chess masters' tournament in Havana in January.

SCHAEFER IS STILL LEADING HOREMANS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Jake Schaefer of San Francisco established what was said to be a world's 18.2 balk-line billiard record here today when he scored 400 points in three innings against Eduoard Horemans, Belgian champion, who scored 111 points in two innings.

Schaefer had an incompleted run of 68, remaining from Saturday's contest. His first inning today resulted in 326 points—a total run of 394. He scored 70 points in his second inning and ran out the four points to complete the 400 block in his third inning.

LEO HOUCK JOINS DEMPSEY'S OUTFIT.

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) May 16. Leo Houck, middleweight from Lancaster, Pa., arrived at Jack Dempsey's camp today, the forerunner of several sparring partners who will help the champion to prepare for his battle with Georges Carpentier in Jersey City July 2.

Dempsey loafed yesterday and this morning. Road work and gymnastics kept him busy this afternoon.

COACH POWELL PROMOTED.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 16.—Stanford University is to have a new football coach next season, Walter Powell, last year's coach, today having been appointed general director of physical training here to succeed Dr. A. B. Browne. Dr. Browne will continue in his post as adviser of men here.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, May 16.—The American amateur golf players who have come to attempt to win the British championship played over the links at Hoylake today. Many British players who are to compete in the championship also were practicing, but the Americans always had the largest gallery.

Dr. Paul D. Hunter of California was in good form today. He made 72's in both his morning and afternoon rounds. This is only one stroke over the amateur record. In the morning, when Dr. Hunter played with Francis Ouimet and Bobby Jones, he scarcely made a single fault. Jones required 76 for the round.

This afternoon Dr. Hunter and Jones defeated Ouimet and J. Wood Platt in a four-ball match, 3 up and 2 to play.

W. C. Fownes, Jr., and Fred J. Wright had 76's in the morning play, while Platt, Jesse Guilford and Charles Evans, Jr., each required 75.

An international match between England and the United States will be played Saturday at Hoylake with eight men on each side.

ARMY ATHLETES TO TRY OUT FOR MEET.

PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—Tryouts to select some of the Army's representatives at the American Legion field day here on June 4 will be held at Camp Meade, May 30. Tryouts also will be held at Camp Dix within the next two weeks. Winners and second and third-place men will be entered in the meet.

SOFT FOR SOUTHERN CLUBS.

Angels Should Fatten on Ducks and Tigers on Bees This Week; Ball Gossip.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

This present week should be rather prolific for the two southern clubs--Los Angeles and Vernon.

Between them they get the soft pickings, and the importance of these pickings is not to be overlooked. It is of such clubs, as a rule, that pennant-winning clubs win flags, just as .300 hitters make their .300 marks, or a very considerable part of these marks, off poor pitching.

Percentages such as that are not made off top-notching pitching. Otherwise, it wouldn't be top-notch.

And top-notch clubs generally are fighting each other so hard that they make little progress against one another, with the result that they usually advance at the expense of weaker clubs, for the most part out of the race. This is the general rule, not without its exceptions.

So the soft pickings are not to be sneezed at, and neither should the opportunity be lost through overconfidence.

Los Angeles draws Portland, the ugly duckling of the league, while

Big Dog Show at Ambassador for June 10-11 Promises Many Exhibitors.

More entries have already been received for the fourth annual dog show of the Los Angeles Kennel Club at the Ambassador Hotel, to take place June 10 and 11, than have ever been received at any show previously given on the Pacific Coast. With the assurance of dogs from the Anokia Kennels, Sylvester Spaldings and Norman Papst kennels at Beverly, the magnificent German police dogs of Mrs. Alvie Untermyer, the show will present a three-ring circus of assorted blue-blooded dogdom, such as has not been seen before here.

One reason for the added interest in the coming show is the fact that it will be held on the Ambassador Plaza in the open air, thus overcoming the objections of many dog fanciers, who do not wish to show their dogs in inclosed places. Prizes and trophies aggregating many thousands of dollars have already been offered; in fact, altogether there are over 200 trophies and premiums offered, leading with the Ambassador Hotel trophy for the best dog in the show and the president's trophy, offered by Mr. William Welch Cockins, for the best of opposite sex.

MURPHY LOSES SUIT AGAINST CHICAGO CUBS.

CHICAGO, May 16.—Charles W. Murphy, former head of the Chicago National Baseball Club, today lost his right to maintain a suit against the new owners of the club to compel them to carry out the terms of the lease of the old Cubs' park, according to a decision of the Appellate Court.

The lease called for the payment of $1,530,388 in regular installments from 1908, when it was signed. The old park, which is owned by Murphy, was abandoned when the National League club took over the Federal League Park. Murphy held that the old lease was a debt for which the stockholders of the club were liable.

The court, however, held that the lease was not a debt, but a liability which had not yet become due.

SALT LAKE PLAYER FINED FOR SPIKING.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Third Baseman Don Brown of the Salt Lake club of the Pacific Coast Baseball League was fined $100 by W. H. McCarthy, president of the league, here today for spiking Jim O'Donnell, first baseman of the San Francisco club, in the afternoon game here yesterday.

McCarthy said Brown spiked O'Donnell deliberately.

NEW YORK AMERICANS HAVE NEW BALL PARK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, May 16.—The New York American League baseball club today formally acquired title to its new playing field in the Bronx. A stadium seating 75,000 and costing $2,000,000 will be erected. Preliminary work will be begun at once. Col. Ruppert and Col. T. L. Huston, owners of the Yankees, were said to have paid $620,000 for the site.

MICHIGAN PREVAILS.

COLUMBUS (O.) May 16.—Michigan defeated Ohio State today, 5 to 0, in a western conference baseball game.

MAY RUN PONIES AT BEVERLY SPEEDWAY.

Announcement of a winter horse-racing season here each year backed by a number of the most influential men of Southern California, together with the construction of a mile-track inside the present Beverly Hills Speedway, was made last night by Dick Ferris, one of the backers. It was also stated that Tod Sloan, internationally known jocky, will leave for the East within a few days to secure entries for the fall season of this year.

According to Mr. Ferris, local men believe that horse racing can be conducted upon gate receipts alone without the attending evils of betting and a movement has been started among local men, headed by J. M. Dansiger, capitalist, and Stanley Anderson of the Beverly Hills Hotel, to build a track inside of the Speedway. Each of these men has subscribed to five of the 100 memberships and Arthur Peck and Jack Jevne have each taken several memberships.

OXY AND POMONA MIX.

Occidental's baseball nine journeys to Claremont this afternoon to meet Pomona. The game was scheduled for a week ago, but, due to illness among the Oxy men, the game was postponed. Pomona is the favorite. Hitch and Judson will form the battery for the Tiger team, while Taylor and Bassler will work for Pomona.

MISS KAVANAGH IS THE LEADER.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

Miss Doreen Kavanagh of the Los Angeles Country Club, State champion, yesterday won the medal in the qualifying round for the Southern California golf championship for women, scoring a thoroughly commendable 83 over the Midwick links.

Miss Margaret Cameron of the Annandale club and Mrs. Dorothy Hill of Midwick tied for second, each a stroke behind the leader. Mrs. Hill's play was one of the sensations of the day, for she was hardly figured to finish so close to the leader, whom the advance thinkers had named as either Miss Kavanagh or Miss Cameron.

GLOOMY WEATHER.

The day was dreary and the outlook gloomy as the sixty-six starters began teeing off at 1 o'clock. A thick mist had fallen in the morning, making the course several strokes slower for the fair ones. This probably explains the fact that only nine scores under the century mark were registered.

Miss Kavanagh was hitting "them a mile" and was the cynosure of many eyes as she trudged her way about the course. Her playing of the ninth hole was one of the outstanding features. Her drive was a dandy, and her brassie shot came to a rest on the edge of a 414-yard hole. Her approach putt was bad, but she made up for this by sinking a fifteen-footer for a par 4. She was out in 42 and back in 47. Miss Cameron's card read 45-45 and Mrs. Hill's 44-48.

Curiously enough, Miss Kavanagh obtained the edge over Miss Cameron and Mrs. Hill by scoring one more par than her rivals. She had seven, whereas Miss Cameron and Mrs. Hill each had six.

Incidentally, Mrs. Hill tied for low net honors with Mrs. W. K. Parkinson. The former had 90-5-84 and the latter 114-30-84.

'RAH FOR MISS SHERK.

Miss Elizabeth Sherk of the Midwick club provided one of the surprises of the day when she landed in the first flight with a nicely-played 96. Miss Sherk has been out of the game for nearly a year, and had been over the links only a couple of times previous to the start of the tourney.

Through an unfortunate angle of the draw, the favorites, Miss Cameron and Miss Kavanagh, should they be successful in the early rounds, will meet in the semifinals of the upper bracket. Miss Kavanagh meets Miss Katherine Mellus of the Los Angeles Country Club today and Miss Cameron tackles Mrs. Frank Griffith, also of L. A.

One of the championship fighters is Miss Mary Browne, former national tennis champion, who seems to have taken to golf with the same avidity that landed her at the pin-

BOUT PROMISES FURIOUS ACTION

Goozeman to Swap Punches With San Francisco Lad.

Fine Card of Seven Pairings on for Tonight.

Henry Gastine and Jimmy Dundee will box the main event in the weekly boxing show at the Vernon ball park tonight. It will be the second time the boys have met, Gastine having taken a decision from the Oakland boy a few weeks ago. The boys stack up as two of the best 128-pounders on the Coast. Dundee is a clever boxer with a lot of speed, while Gastine is more of a plodder, but hits hard.

Ernie Goozeman is in good shape for his bout with Al Walker, the San Francisco 125-pounder. The two will mix in the semi-wind-up, and unless all signs fail they will crowd the main event as far as real action is concerned.

BISS VS. O'LEARY.

Another good bout is the fifth preliminary in which Sailor Biss will meet Mike O'Leary. Biss is one of the hardest hitters the local ring has known. He is a willing mixer, but O'Leary is expected to meet him half way.

After taking on all classes of boxers Young Papke has stepped into what promises to be his toughest fight, being matched with Al Grunan. The latter is the better boxer of the two and is a good right-hand hitter. His tendency to hold in the clinches has worked against him in many of his local bouts, but if he opens up and fights he should give Papke a lot of trouble.

Eddie Macy will meet Jimmy Powell at 118 pounds and Gus Martin meets Sailor Kelly at 145 pounds. George Wells and Jerry O'Keefe will box the opener. They are 125-pounders.

The ring has been lowered enough so the ringside patrons will be able to see to a better advantage from now on.

CARPENTIER IS HERE FOR WORK

Journee and Battling Marcot. Marcot is a middleweight and is a unique member of the party because he does other things beside fighting. He has been appointed the official chef of the Manhasset camp and will cook the food that is served to the man who hopes to knock Jack Dempsey for a row of sad dreams, while the Cardinals knocked Miljus out of the box in the fourth and scored the tying and winning runs off Mitchell in the sixth. The score:

Carpentier's weight today was announced as being 175 pounds. It also was stated that the Frenchman isn't going to grind to any extent at Manhasset that will remove poundage. He figures on entering the ring weighing 173 or 174 pounds.

BULL MONTANA TO ASSIST IN BENEFIT.

"It's up to us prosperous actors to look after the ones who fall by the roadside on the lean days," declared Bull Montana last night. The Bull was conferring with President Daniel Frohman of the Actors' Fund of America over plans for the big festival to be staged at the speedway on June 4. Montana offered to stage a wrestling show for the fund, and his offer was accepted.

"I first offered to play the part of Sultan in Dick Ferris's harem scene, then, following Farris's turndown, I sought a place in Sid Grauman's beauty show on the pleasure zone, but Sid is another guy unappreciative of genius and good looks," continued "the Bool."

Now Montana is going to have his own show and says he will meet all comers and throw them as hard and as far as the motorcycle riders slid a few weeks ago.

CHICAGO, May 16.—Urban Faber replaced Kerr today when Philadelphia threatened, checked the rally and won his fourth consecutive victory, the score being 5 to 4 in favor of Chicago. The locals took the lead but were tied when a base on balls and Perkins's homer scored two runs. Chicago then went ahead but Kerr's wildness coupled with a hit by C. Walker tied the count again. Falk's double, a sacrifice by Strunk and sacrifice fly by Sheehey scored the winning run. The score:

PUZZLED OVER CHAMP'S STYLE.

Ed Horemans in Exhibition at the L.A.A.C.

Local Billiard Players Anxious to See Demon.

Edouard Horemans, the European billiard champion, who will be seen in an exhibition game tomorrow night at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, is about the most awkward-appearing player imaginable. His peculiar stroke has been aptly described as a "poke." He never fiddles, but steps up to a shot, aims, and lets go. The Belgian says a man moving his cue back and forth cannot be sure just where he is going to hit the ball, whereas merely aiming and shooting means more certain accuracy. The results he has obtained seem to bear out his theory.

Horemans, a left-hander, plays a system entirely different from that of the American players. He is a novelty, not only in his extraordinary use of the masse every few shots, but also in the section of the table in which he strives to obtain position. Whereas our stars without exception prefer the ends of the table, with near-by cushions to assist in making shots when the balls are frozen or lined up, this foreigner favors the unrestricted space in the center, and often makes a large run without ever getting the balls in balk.

Nearly all authorities insist that the young European takes foolish chances—that if he gets in trouble, with bad alignments of the ivories, there is no ta near-by cushion to play to as a refuge and a safeguard. But there are a few who have figured until their heads ached, and these have come to the conclusion that the percentage is heavily in favor of the Horemans method—provided the player is absolutely accurate at driving and can masse dependably. One of the experts, Shepard G. Barclay, finds that with the same amount of effort that gets an American player 40 points, Horemans scores 140, thus being 100 to the good. The local fans are waiting to see this demonstrated. A technical explanation is too long and difficult.

EAST NOT TO SEE PADDOCK.

Will Not Compete in Harvard or Chicago Meets.

Cinder Sprinter Recovering from Sick Spell.

Promises to Met the Best at Pasadena in July.

Charles Paddock, student at the University of Southern California and Olympic sprints champion, is recovering from an illness which has kept him in bed for more than a week, but through his father today he issued a statement relterating his intention not to compete in meets at Harvard and Chicago next month. He also stated that he would be unable to enter the Pacific Conference meet at Eugene, Or., next Saturday, as his physician had forbidden it.

Paddock said he had not received a telegram from those in charge of the Harvard meet, as stated in dispatches, offering to have Harvard professors conduct his examinations and permitting him to pick his own opponents. He said, however, the former suggestion was not feasible and the latter not in keeping with his idea of sportsmanship.

"I have already lost so much time from my studies this year, because of other meets and my present illness, which has kept me at home for three weeks, that I feel I cannot spare any of the remaining school year to go East," he said.

"My principal object in planning to go East was to meet any runner who wanted to race me. I never have named my opponents, and would not do such a thing.

"Yet, despite all these things, I still would enter the eastern meets if the national A.A.U. meet were not to be held in Pasadena in July. I shall enter that, and shall then meet all the eastern men who care to run against me. I understand eastern timers also will be present, and be they, too, at that time, will have ample opportunity to see for themselves whether western timers have been correct in timing events in which I have competed."

TIGERS TO HOLD PREP PENTATHDON.

Under the auspices of Occidental College fifty high school athletes will compete next Friday afternoon in a pentathlon, to be held at Patterson Field. Five prizes will be awarded the individual winners, silver loving cups going to the preps with the three highest scores, and medals to fourth and fifth.

The pentathlon, which includes the 100-yard dash, shotput, high hurdles, high jump and half-mile, is sure to be hotly contested. Bud Houser, the young Oxnard giant, will be in action. Bennett of Santa Paula will also show his prowess, as will Bob Allen of Redlands and Anderson of Pomona. Coach Fred Johnson of Hollywood claims he has a likely winner in a youngster named Walsh, but with such men as Huston, Bencerbox and Fischer of Lincoln, and Steens, the Bluett brothers, Towel and Dye of Manual in the running, Walsh will have a busy afternoon.

SOFT PICKINGS FOR THE SOUTH.

the Tigers meet the Bees in Beetown.

Of the two, the Angels would appear to have the softer sledding for the week.

Both clubs should materially improve their standing, with the possibility of Vernon shouldering Seattle out of fourth place. The Siwashes have been going stronger than horse radish at a free lunch, and six out of seven from Oakland gave them considerable momentum with which to catapult themselves into San Francisco.

But the Seals carry a heavy slam of their own, and if not actually setting the Siwashes back, may at least hold them stationary.

That is the star series of the week, and a majority of the bugs around the circuit will be pulling for Seattle to put a crimp in the leaders.

Seattle has a much better ball club than it showed here the opening week, when both first-string catchers and Duke Kenworthy were out of the line-up with injuries. Despite that disastrous start, the Siwashes are now only four and one-half games out of first place.

Should Oakland take any kind of a brace against Sacramento, Los Angeles may finish the week in second place.

Portland, being so far north, is believed to have been affected by the Aurora Borealis.

The Beavers are claimed by some to be the worst ball team in the world. That makes them interesting, and being the case we must go out and give them a tumble. There are only two things really worth seeing, and that is the best and the worst of anything.

Los Angeles should not make the easy mistake of regarding the Portland series as put away before it has started. By upsetting the dope, tailend clubs have decided almost as many pennants as the seven other teams.

This is not spoken brutally, nor with the intention of reflecting discredit on Rollie Zeider. Zeider is doing all and more than was expected of him. He was supposed to play only a utility role with the Angels this year, but when the deal with Detroit for a second-sacker fell through it was necessary to stick Rollie in at the keystone. Smart and resourceful, and still a fair fielder, if not worked too long at one stretch, Zeider is a bit too-advanced in playing years for a hard and protracted campaign.

Meantime, he is doing his best to combat the miserable condition of the infield, and playing better ball than appears unless his work is closely analyzed. It was this same Zeider who practically won a pennant for San Francisco back in 1919 by his dazzling work around third. This player was then at the very apogee of his effectiveness, and that was thirteen years ago. In fairness we cannot do less than hand it to him for still being in the game.

Yet that is the point at where the Angel machine seems most likely to snap. The team has driving power, and its pitching staff has developed a greater degree of effectiveness than the most optimistic were inclined to predict. Oscar Stanage is the most finished receiver in the league and a good handler of pitchers. Red Baldwin caught two corking games Sunday, and is of first-string caliber.

Give the club a second baseman who can cover the position thoroughly and co-ordinate with McAuley on double plays, whether he can hit or not, and it will be 15 per cent more effective. Zeider as a utility infielder will be of even greater value to the club, as he can play second, short or third in a pinch.

TRAIN TO FOLLOW RACE.

NEW YORK, May 16.—An observation train will follow the the intercollegiate championship regatta at Poughkeepsie, on June 12, when the eights of Cornell, Columbia, California, Pennsylvania, Syracuse and possibly other universities compete.

The board of stewards of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association announced today that arrangements have been made to use the same observation train that will follow the Yale and Harvard crews at New London on June 24. Thirty cars will compose the train and seats will be provided for 2500 spectators. Immediately after the Poughkeepsie races the train will be sent to New London.

Quarters for the University of California oarsmen have been secured in a private house at Poughkeepsie. A boathouse has not as yet been located, but representatives of the far-western oarsmen looked over several prospective houses today. All arrangements will be completed before the Californians arrive from their race with Princeton, June 6.

BRITISH POLOISTS WIN.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, May 16.—The American polo players, C. G. Rumsey, Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., J. Watson Webb and Devereaux Milburn, were defeated in a practice game here today by the Hurlingham team. The score was three goals to two.

The Hurlingham team was composed of the Duke of Penaranda, Maj. F. W. Barrett, W. S. Buckmaster and Lord Rocksavage. In the second period Rocksavage was badly crossed by Milburn, and the Americans were penalized for the spill. Lord Rocksavage was replaced by J. A. E. Traill. The game was witnessed by about 3000 persons. When Lord Rocksavage and Milburn collided at full gallop, both ponies fell. Lord Rocksavage was hurt, but finished the chukkur. He was then taken in an ambulance to a hospital where the doctors said he had suffered a bad concussion. Later it developed that Lord Rocksavage had suffered a broken collarbone.

COLLIER WINS IN WALK.

"HOTTENTOT" IS HOT STUFF AT THE MASON.

By Edwin Schallert.

At the climax of a very horsey spring season Willie Collier came galloping onto the local theatrical turf in "The Hottentot" last night at the Mason. Probably nobody brought a stop watch along with him to the barbecue, but judging all the points in the steeplechase for laughs, I should say that Collier won in a walk. At least, in a walk and several jumps, caused mainly by explosions, which helped to stimulate the riotous farce, and which are real explosions supposed to emanate from the blowing up of a dam. Well, if it wasn't a dam, it ought to have been, but not the kind of dam I've spelt here. All of which makes it very plain and simple for everybody.

Lest you have any illusions as to what a Hottentot consists of, look it up in the Almanac or some place. If you go to see Willie Collier, you'll find out it's a horse, and in addition a good show, but not a horse show. Even though it has a little horse play. But this won't nag you. Because it's quite thoroughbred.

Anyway, Collier is on the track every minute, and he drives hard and fast too for the laughs, which means that he gets the cup, and incidentally—last night—the honor of making a curtain speech, during which he told several anecdotes about his adventures in the wilds of California, and kidded Doug Fairbanks, who was in a stage box.

The lines in the play are very easy to laugh at, and some of them are roars, while others are very pleasant whinnies. For instance, when Collier tears his riding breeches and the leading lady sews them up, he says, "You've sewed them to my L.O.U.'s." Then the young lady shows him a blue jockey's suit and says, "These are my colors." "Mike who?" says Collier. There's so much horse talk he bursts out with, "This isn't a house, it's a stable."

Collier's support is exceptionally good, Donald Meek as the butler is better than a Donnybrook Fair for entertainment. Georgia Lee Hall is very charming as Peggy Fairfax. Paula Marr (Mrs. Willie Collier) reveals a pleasing presence as Mrs. Chadwick. The remaining members of the cast are good.

BEBAN TO REVIVE HIS FILM CLASSIC.

A few weeks of rest and then George Beban will start to assemble his cast and technical staff for an elaborate film revival of "The Sign of the Rose." This interesting information regarding the popular star and his almost equally popular stage and screen theme, has been given out in advance of his arrival in this city, scheduled for Friday next.

Beban appeared in the film some years ago, and then went on the road and interpreted a stage epilogue to the screen version, a rather remarkable feat at that time for a film actor. He will probably make a similar tour upon completing his new cinema production.

Of course, all the manifold improvements of the film craft will be utilized to enhance the new photoplay. In addition, it is understood that an exceptional cast will appear. The script will be rewritten and amplified, while Mr. Beban is resting.

The actor is returning to Los Angeles from a personal tour of the large cities of the United States and Canada in behalf of cleaner and better pictures. It is said that his tour has been a triumphal one.

The star has been given the key to the cities in which he has spoken and has appeared before the rotary clubs, women's welfare leagues and other civic bodies. Censorship problems were mitigated in three different States, it is averred, through Mr. Beban's efforts, and the star addressed the Legislature on the topic of uplifting pictures at two of their sessions.

As a tribute to his good work for the picture industry, various representative citizens here will assist in giving him a royal welcome. Marco H. Hellman has been appointed chairman of the reception committee, which will consist of picture producers and stars, and business men and social leaders.

Mr. Beban will be met at the depot and escorted by a band and street parade to the Kinema Theater, where he will appear for a week, commencing Saturday.

From the curtain he will personally make his plea in the behalf of cleaner photoplays for the future. The star will talk in conjunction with the showing of his latest photoplay, "One Man in a Million."

SCREEN MELODRAMA AT NEW PANTAGES.

No imaginative scribe has done more than Opie Read to keep alive the popular tradition that the South, and more especially the region said to be studded with grass that's blue, is the one, only and original seat of Romance with a big round R.

As a matter of course, all his novels of a happy yesterday are being picturized in quick succession, the last one to reach the films being "The Kentucky Colonel," which is shown at New Pantages this week, with an admirable cast that includes Joseph J. Dowling, Frederic Vroom, Elinor Field, Francis MacDonald, Cora Drew and Lloyd Bacon. L. V. Jeffetson wrote the scenario.

"The Kentucky Colonel" is full of fine out-door shots—from the cameraman as well as the various feud-fiend characters—and it may therefore be said that the story has a rapid-fire movement that offers too much excitement for us to notice its essential artificiality.

As a matter of fact, almost everybody loses sight of nature and stalks on stilts when he approaches the South in fiction, because of the fine old legend, we suppose—a legend that, after all, has some foundation in fact, like all legends.

Of course, besides the feud, we have race horses, mint julep and a romantic marriage in "The Kentucky Colonel," and everybody, big, little and middle-sized, men, women and children, flourish shotguns with the precision and promptitude of born fighters. 'Twas thus in Kentucky—perhaps. But be that as it may, the story is quick and exciting, full of the breathless interest that glorious adventure is sure to have.

Rhoda Royal's two courteous and beautifully-trained young elephants are really the best part of the show at New Pantages, however. They are as delightful as the pachyderms from Africa and Asia that Kipling writes about. They are noble beasts, with astonishing grace, when you consider their bulk. One of them even dances the shimmie—effectively, too, with quite the correct shaky shiver.

Their Charm Gladdens in Comedies.

Margot Duffet and Dan Bruce, with their company, give a little playlet, "Through the Keyhole," that's a surprise in its amusing denouement. The De Michele brothers, a harpist and a violinist, the latter being also a broad humorist, tickle our ribs and, incidentally, play some beautiful bits from good composers.

Rose, Ellis and Rose, clever jumping jacks; Sammy Duncan, a singing Scot, who reminds us (very remotely, indeed,) of Harry Lauder, and Helen Rinehart and Ermine Duff, quaintly gowned and warbling with some daintiness, are also on the bill, which lasts for two hours and a half.

"How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child!" — King Lear's immortal plaint, finds vivid demonstration in "Over the Hill," the photoplay now in the second week at Philharmonic Auditorium. This is the picture that has had such a remarkable Broadway run. It is a rare story, built around the theme of a mother's love for her children making no distinction between the worthy and unworthy.

More Music Week Plans.

Adding new features to those already listed programs for music week were announced in part at the meeting held by the Los Angeles Music Week Committee, yesterday.

Thursday, June 2, a fete will be given by the Federated Women's Clubs and the Uplifters at the Ambassador Hotel in honor of Charles Wakefield Cadman, the composer, who on this day will return from an eastern tour.

Five prominent clubs were represented at the meeting yesterday, pledging active co-operation. George L. Eastman spoke for the Rotary Club.

Daily events are scheduled by the Matinee Musical Club, the Dominant Club and the Glendale Tuesday Club during music week. The Apollo Club will render a program at Hollywood.

Each week day at noon the Greater Los Angeles Municipal Band will play at Pershing Square, while members of the Los Angeles Woodwind Club will form small ensembles and give daily morning recitals at all the hospitals.

The Elks' Band of this city, of Glendale, Santa Monica and San Pedro also assured their interest. A program is also being prepared by staff members of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company to be given at the Y.M.C.A. Auditorium.

Combined recitals by all the artists having studios at Blanchard Hall Building in the large auditorium there will be given every day.

Music week will start May 29, ending June 6.

George Beban,

Who is to return to this city Friday from a cross-country tour. Mr. Beban probably will shortly film a revival of his story, "The Sign of the Rose."

FLASHES.

FILM FOLKS WED.

EDITH HALLOR IS BRIDE OF JACK DILLON.

By Grace Kingsley.

Business continues good for our friend, Eros, these days, especially among the film folk. A wedding just discovered yesterday is sure to be of interest to film folk and fans alike. This is the marriage of Jack Dillon and Edith Hallor, which took place last Saturday.

Mr. Dillon is a well-known director, now with Fox, and who will be remembered as doing some brilliant work in directing Jack Pickford in two comedies.

The bride is a very beautiful and talented young woman, considered as promising star material. She has played leading roles in Metro and other films, following a noteworthy stage career.

The romance between the two began a year ago. Miss Hallor first came west to appear in a picture which Mr. Dillon was directing. The couple will live in Mr. Dillon's new home in Hollywood.

ORPHEUM PROGRAM IS QUITE EFFULGENT.

I suppose it's too much to ask, but what a pity vaudeville doesn't house more acts somewhere nearly approaching the brilliancy of Alan Brooks's "Dollars and Sense," with players somewhere nearly approaching the brilliancy of Brooks himself. I guess we'll just have to call him the combined Bernard Shaw-John Barrymore of vaudeville, and let it go at that. There are no more playlets like "Dollars and Sense" and no more vaudeville actors like Brooks.

I understand he made a three-act play of the piece last season, but that it did not meet with the luck of the playlet. Well, why should it? It is perfect as it stands, and expanding it would be like trying to extend one of Bret Harte's short-story gems into a two-volume novel!

Besides, the main charm of the play lies in its scintillating dialogue, the lines awarded a disillusioned bachelor, and in the ingenious and novel staging of the three skillfully-devised scenes which together occupy the whole of the stage simultaneously the lighting of each occurring as the action shifts.

At the close Mr. Brooks makes a clever speech, maintaining the note of humorously cynical philosophy which characterizes the lines.

Another playlet adorns the bill, called "The Beautiful Lady," written by Edward Harold Conway. Lolya Adler plays the leading role, that of a girl taking the easiest way. In fact, the play may be called a jitney "Easiest Way," except that its logic is spoiled by a happy ending.

Miss Adler has skill, beauty and an intelligent way of acting, as well as subtlety, but tries seemingly to inject all the personality and acting into a one-act play that she would use during a whole evening.

Larry Comer, as a singer of songs sometimes faintly tinged with blue, isn't a comer, he's right here. Prosper and Maret, billed as "popular college athletes," couldn't possibly have learned anything at college except athletics, they are so clever. Lalla Selbini and Bert Nagle open the bill to a hit with "The Butterfly and the Cat," a novel act; the "Four Gossips" as gossips prove to be fine singers; Jack Dunham and Andy Williams do a female impersonation act—at least one of them does—to good applause; and Franklyn Ardell and Company still ring the bell in "Solomon, Jr."

ARBUCKLE AMUSES IN GRAUMAN FILM.

A double-head bill that's cornering all the noise is that being shown at Grauman's this week. Mentioning company first, there's the Mexican Military Band, which makes the audience give 'em a great hand. Their program is beautifully arranged, with much fascinating Mexican music and some of our own red-fire stuff, including "Dixie" and other numbers. A fetching dancer of Mexican folk numbers gets over sweetly.

The other feature is Roscoe Arbuckle's picture, "The Traveling Salesman," from the farce comedy by James Forbes, at which we used to laugh a decade ago. But it's good enough yet, especially with Arbuckle putting in some of his particular brand of hokum.

I hear that Arbuckle, by the way, is going in once more for the pie pastelles, and that out at the Lasky studio you're liable to run into a prop. pantry at any minute.

All right. We don't care, so long as Arbuckle juggles 'em.

Personally, however, I rather prefer his straight comedies with hokum trimmings, as he's a master actor for all his kidding.

But speaking of "The Traveling Salesman," you probably remember it's about a knight of the sample rooms, who saves the girl's farm from the crooks, and, of course, marries her. Betty Ross Clark as the girl is enough to make any man stop traveling.

The remainder of the cast, I pause to remark, is pretty black with men, but it does all that is required of it in good fashion, and includes Frank Holland, Wilton Taylor, Lucille Ward, Jim Blackwell, Richard Wayne, George Pearce, Robert Dudley and Gordon Rogers.

Warner Baxter Here.

If all goes well Morosco fans are to view no less a person than Warner Baxter as leading man in a play to be put on at the Morosco Theater. This play is "Three Faces East," one of the popular New York successes of a couple of seasons ago. However, the matter is not yet entirely settled.

Mr. Baxter arrived in town a few days ago, accompanied by his wife, known professionally as Winifred Bryson. Both were formerly members of the Morosco stock company. They created leading roles in the Hattons' play, "Lombardi, Ltd.," and left with Leo Carrillo and the rest of the company which played the piece in New York and other leading eastern cities.

Miss Bryson is one of the noted beauties of the stage. She is a Los Angeles girl, and received all her stage training at the old Burbank Theater, meeting Mr. Baxter there. The pair were engaged several months, and wed after they reached New York.

They have numerous friends here, who are entertaining the players at all the luncheon, dinner and supper partied which can possibly be arranged between the hours of 12 to 12 daily.

Tally's Transferred?

It was learned yesterday that the W. W. Hodkinson Pictures Corporation is endeavoring to secure Tally's Broadway for a showing of its pictures. Included in the Hodkinson organization is Ben B. Hampton, whose pictures have lately been scoring a decided success, being noted for keen human interest as well as for cleanness.

Settlement of the deal has been arrived at, but T. L. Tally stated that he does not intend to turn over his house to any film organization except in so far as signing for the output of an organization might be so construed. He intimated he might so sign.

Mary Nash as Extra.

Mary Nash, who appeared in "Thy Name is Woman" last week at the Mason, finished her sojourn here yesterday by appearing in a mob scene for Marion Fairfax's "The Lying Truth."

Miss Nash is an old friend of Miss Fairfax and played with the latter's husband, Tully Marshall, in "The City," the New York success of some ten years ago.

Accompanied by her husband, Jose Ruben, also well known for his characterization of Oswald in Ibsen's "The Ghost," Miss Nash arrived at the studio just as the producer was staging a big mob scene.

"How would you like to earn $5 as an extra in my mob scene?" asked Miss Fairfax of Miss Nash.

"Great!" replied the star.

Mr. Ruben also received an invitation to work as an extra and promptly accepted.

Both Miss Nash and Mr. Ruben were awarded a check for $5 for their afternoon's work, which they stated they would save for a rainy day.

Miss Nash is now en route to Chicago, where she will appear next week.

Play at Trinity.

Presaging a new little theater for Los Angeles, the Caravan Players, a group of stage and screen actors, will make their appearance in this city in "The Valiant," a dramatic prison play, next Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon at Trinity Auditorium. The company have played several times in Pasadena, and hope to build their own theater here next fall.

The Caravan Players were organized by Vesey O'Davoren, Raymond Jarecki and Naomi Bailey, three actors who are also cast for parts in the play at Trinity. Others in the cast are W. Lawson Butt, English actor; Lionel Belmore, screen player; Lillian Sommer, Helene Willis, Maurice Luxford, William West, Pauline Chapman and Dorothea Jarecki.

PARTY FOR CRITICS.

The dramatic and motion picture critics of the Los Angeles daily newspapers are to be guests of the Wampas, otherwise known as "that gang of publicity men," tonight at the Hollywood studios. The meal, it is said, will be the kind "served in the rough" to busy motion-picture stars. A special stage has been set for the visitors at the studios under the supervision of Marion Fairfax, the producer. Here a number of thrills are promised the unsuspecting critics in which some of the screen's celebrities will take an active part. At the request of various nervous critics, the W.A.M.P.A. has engaged three stalwart operatives from the Department of Justice to taste each morsel of food before it is placed before the newspaper folk to prevent deaths from poison. "Mike" Boylan, chairman of the evening's entertainment, threatens to break out in the role of an actor. Ray Leek, president of the association, Adam Hull Shirk, Arch Reeves, Richard Spier, Arthur Wenzel, Pat Dowling, Charles Hertzman, Bradley Smollen, Hunt Stromberg and Pete Smith are among the other P.A.'s who threaten to make things interesting.

GOVERNOR SIGNS SEVERAL BILLS.

Executive Approves Thirty-six Measures.

Hearing Held on Act That Interests Attorneys.

Elevator Operators Must be Given Seats Now.

SACRAMENTO, May 16. — Gov. Stephens today signed thirty-six bills, bringing the total of measures approved to approximately 150. None of the measures signed included any of the administration reorganization or appropriation bills, and it has been intimated at the Governor's office that none would be acted upon until after the close of hearings yet to be held.

The Governor had for this afternoon a hearing on bills in which attorneys were interested, including Senate bill 21, which would prohibit banks and trust companies from drawing wills and performing other legal services. Attorneys also were said to be supporting all measures providing for salary increases for numerous Superior judges.

BITTER FIGHT RECALLED.

Senate bill No. 857, by W. J. Carr and Lyman J. King, designed to prevent a recurrence of the bitter fight that preceded the passage of the King bill, which has fixed the State tax rate on public service corporations, banks, and other corporations, was signed.

The act will require the Board of Equalization to gather data relative to the property and stock and bond values of corporations during the two-year period prior to each Legislature. This data would be filed with the Legislature, and would enable the lawmakers to fix the State tax rate on the corporations.

The Governor also signed Assembly bill No. 895, by Assemblyman Rosenshine of San Francisco, which establishes small claims courts, where debts not exceeding $50 could be legally settled.

Jurisdiction in such cases is placed in the justice courts, and the act requires that the contending parties present their cases without the aid of an attorney. Actions could not be brought in the court by bill collection agencies.

Another bill signed by the Governor, Senate bill No. 341, directs the State Immigration and Housing Commission to investigate and propose to the 1923 Legislature for the building of homes for workingmen with the financial assistance of the State.

PREVENTS PRACTICING.

Attorneys against whom disbarment proceedings were brought will be prohibited under Assembly bill No. 42, which the Governor signed, from acting in their own defense or from practicing pending an appeal from the judgment of a lower court.

The Governor also signed a number of Senate and Assembly bills making minor changes in Probate Court practice and in the filing of records in justice courts, and fixed his signature to a series of bills making changes in the law relating to the filing of articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State. One of the bills provides that the original articles be filed with the Secretary of State instead of with the County Clerk of the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business.

Installation of seats in elevators for the use of the operators is required in Assembly bill No. 199, which the Governor approved. He also signed Senate bill No. 529, validating municipal bonds, and Senate bill No. 773, validating the payment of street assessments by school districts.

WHAT A WOMAN SHOULD DO WHEN SHE IS WEAK AND NERVOUS

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN HAVE SURPRISINGLY INCREASED THEIR STRENGTH, ENERGY AND ENDURANCE IN TWO WEEKS TIME BY THIS SIMPLE EXPERIMENT.

One account of the terrible weakness, nervousness and alarming symptoms, which are often produced by iron starvation of the blood, the sufferer frequently never suspects the real cause of her trouble but thinks she has some other ailment. As a result of iron starvation you may suffer from headaches, dizziness, shortness of breath or heart palpitation, pains across the back, loss of memory, weak, will power, melancholy or the "blues," disturbed digestion, loss of appetite, sleepless nights, night sweats and so on. In such cases do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration but eat more spinach and green vegetables and take organic iron like Nuxated Iron with them for a while and see what a difference it makes. But be sure the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic iron which people usually take. Metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron, while organic iron like Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Beware of substitutes. Look for the name "Nuxated" on every package and the letter N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists. —[Advertisement.

Santa Barbara Man Slain by Freed Convict.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, May 16.—David Gill, known also as Calderon, is dead, having been shot four times, twice in the head and twice through the body, by Leon Rivera, who was committed to San Quentin, from San Diego, Nov. 6, 1917 to serve from one to ten years for embezzlement, in connection with buying an automobile on a lease, and driving the machine from the State.

Rivera served eighteen months and was then paroled. He became involved with Gill in a dispute over a small bill and claims Gill attempted to behead him with a razor, and he was forced to shoot in self-defense. The shooting, which occurred in the rear of Gill's home, in the heart of the town, was unwitnessed. Rivera fled and was pursued two blocks before overtaken.

On Rivera's chest is a deep gash, also one across his spine and on the back of his head, corroborating his claim that his life was in danger. Because of the previous record of the prisoner the police question whether Gill may not have used his razor in self-defense.

Pool Halls to Operate Under New Ordinance.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HANFORD, May 16.—Pool halls, motion-picture theaters, cigar stands and business places where cards are played in all territory outside of municipalities were put under a drastic license law today by the Board of Supervisors.

An ordinance was passed providing that persons desiring to embark in any of these lines of trade must circulate a petition and apply for a license. A majority of all persons living within a radius of half a mile of the proposed location of the business must sign the petition. Applicants must be of good moral character. A hearing is set ten days after the application is filed, and if the license is granted it is in force only at the pleasure of the Board of Supervisors.

Complaints in some unincorporated towns that places of the kind mentioned have been improperly conducted prompted the Supervisors to pass the license ordinance. A nominal license fee is to be fixed, but the ordinance provides rigid control.

EXCESS PROFITS TAX ATTACKED, DEFENDED.

SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE IS SWAMPED WITH PLEAS FOR LAW REVISION.

WASHINGTON, May 16. — The Senate Finance Committee was swamped at hearings today with suggestions for revision of the Federal tax laws. It heard for the first time a defense of the excess profits tax as well as pleas for reduced taxes and elimination of alleged discriminatory provisions against business.

C. C. Hanch of Indianapolis and G. M. Graham of Buffalo, speaking for the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, were chief witnesses from the industrial ranks, and urged removal of the excess profits, luxury, excise, transportation and consumption taxes.

H. A. Harris of Chicago was the champion of the excess profits tax. He also urged exemption of corporation dividends from personal income surtaxes.

Frank E. Heidman of Grand Rapids, Mich., suggested a tax on undistributed earnings of corporations to make good losses caused by repeal of the profits tax.

Attempts of officials during the war to differentiate between essential and nonessential industries had left bad spots in the nation's commercial life, said Mr. Graham.

The subject of high taxes got onto the Senate floor. Senator La Follette, a member of the committee, charged there was a definite trend among members of the Finance Committee to "shift the tax burden from the rich to the great common people."

OLD ISSUE CAUSES CLASH IN SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The old issue of State's rights caused a clash today during Senate Postoffice Committee hearings on the Townsent good roads bill, the proposal to create a Federal highways commission to supervise construction of an interstate highway system being attacked by Senator Heflin, Alabama, who declared it meant "the death knell of government aid to State roads."

MAKES BREAK FOR LIBERTY, KILLS SELF.

Convict, After Daring Escape, Fearing Capture, Ends Own Life.

RAWLINS (Wyo.) May 16. — Al Biscardo, 35, serving fifteen years for automobile theft in the penitentiary here, shot and killed himself on a prairie near Rawlins today after making one of the most daring escapes on record from the Wyoming prison.

After forcing Warden Frank O. Haskell to unlock the door of his cell, while with drawn revolver he forced the prison physician, Dr. Raymond Baker and R. C. Magor, who had come to attend Biscardo, believing he was ill, to line up against the wall, he entered into an agreement with the warden to hold the two men as hostages until he escaped.

Leaving the prison with the three men covered, Biscardo took possession of the physician's automobile, ordering him to drive the machine, with Magor in the front seat. The convict sat in the rear seat, his revolver pointed at the two men. The warden was instructed not to follow until they had proceeded three blocks, under penalty of death of the hostages.

The chase was taken up by the warden and Deputy Warden Keefe after the first automobile passed the line indicated by Biscardo. Three miles from Rawlins, Magor leaped out. He was uninjured and Biscardo made no attempt to recapture him.

The first automobile gradually drew away from the pursuing machine until forced to stop sixteen miles from Rawlins owing to engine trouble. Fearing a plan to trap him, the convict left the physician and ran a short distance to hide from the pursuing party. He took refuge in heavy timber. When the warden's car drew up, a shot was heard and Biscardo was found dead.

WASHINGTON NEWS IN BRIEF.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Secretary of War Weeks today urged President Harding to act on Army promotions which have been held up pending decision on the protests of officers slated for retirement or discharge whose places would be filled.

Publication of slacker lists will continue in spite of possible errors, Gen. Harris said today, particularly in order that such errors might be corrected and every man's service justly recorded.

Automobile manufacturers urged the Senate Finance Committee to repeal the 5 per cent tax on their product and, if additional revenue is needed, impose a general 1 per cent turnover tax applying to all industries.

Representative Tincher, author of the bill restricting trading in grain futures, declared that the warning of Joseph P. Griffin, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, that the grain exchanges would close up in the event of the enactment of the legislation is a bluff.

The Supreme Court handed down an important decision affecting the determination of invested capital computing excess profits taxes, upholding the contention of the government in La Belle Iron Works case.

GERMANY SHUNS WAR IN UPPER SILESIA.

CHANCELLOR WIRTH SAYS TEUTONS PREFER THAT ALLIES RESTORE ORDER.

BERLIN, May 16.—"Germany does not want the job of using its army for a war in Upper Silesia. Germany prefers that the Allies restore order, according to the terms of the Versailles Treaty."

Standing before a map of Silesia, Chancellor and Foreign Minister Wirth, who has just formed the new German government, today gave his first interview touching on the Polish question and Germany's ability to fulfill the pledges it made by accepting the ultimatum to the Allies.

"I have no special message for America," said the Chancellor. "I have not addressed an official note for the three days that I have been in office. So far as giving the press any special message for America, it would only be considered as propaganda."

"Will Germany be able to disarm by June 30, and otherwise fulfill its obligations?" the Chancellor was asked.

"We answered that question 'yes' when accepting the ultimatum," replied Herr Wirth. "We spoke that 'yes' sincerely. We are not satisfied with the word 'alone.' We will in the near future fulfill pledges in disarmament as well as in payment as far as is in human power. We will convince the world of the good will and energy of Germany."

ORLEANS SEEKING LEGION OF HONOR.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, May 16.—Orleans, chiefly famous because of its defense against the English by Saint Jeanne d'Arc, recently suggested through Mayor Laville that the Legion of Honor should be given the city.

Public officials and several newspapers commented that the siege of Orleans and Saint Jeanne's defense occurred before the birth of Napoleon, who founded the Legion of Honor.

The Mayor of Orleans turned the tables on those who smiled at his request by citing instances where the red ribon was given to commemorate deeds also antedating the Legion.

"Poor Jeanne never had any luck," the Mayor said. "First it was Bishop Cauchon who had her burned; now it is the government that grudges her a little bit of ribbon."

ANTIPODES JUSTICE BARS YANK SPELLING.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MELBOURNE, May 16.—American forms of spelling have been barred from official documents in the High Court. The Federal Chief Justice has announced that he will not allow their introduction and ordered the spelling of the words "program" and "center" changed to "programme" and "centre." He remarked that English spelling was good enough for him.

PREDICT PROMPT ACTION ON PEACE.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—After a conference today with President Harding, Representative Mondell, Republican leader, said he saw no reason why there should not be reasonably prompt action by the House in passing a peace resolution. He said the situation resulting from the reparations controversy apparently had been cleared up.

TENNESSEE ON TRIAL RUN.

ROCKLAND (Me.) May 16.—The superdreadnaught Tennessee went into Penobscot Bay today to begin her trial runs. These trials had been delayed several times by major machinery mishaps since the Tennessee was commissioned nearly a year ago.

Chronic Constipation.

This condition is usually brought on by neglect. Neglect to drink as much water as a healthy person requires, which is three pints each day. Neglect to take enough exercise to keep the body in a healthy condition. Neglect to establish a regular habit of having the bowels move once each day, whether there is an inclination or not. It is obvious that to cure chronic constipation you must first correct your habits. Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent, but will not cure you permanently when these neglects are persisted in. Begin now. Get well and stay well.—[Advertisement.

JAPAN ORDERS FLEET CUT DOWN, IS REPORT.

TOKIO DISPATCH SAYS COMMISSION ACTS TO REDUCE MAINTENANCE COSTS.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HONOLULU, May 16.—A Tokio dispatch to Nippu Jiji, a local Japanese newspaper, says a special naval commission, appointed by the Navy Department to investigate conditions of the department relative to finances, has recommended that the second squadron and a portion of the third be retired from active operation to reduce maintenance costs. The dispatch says the government has issued orders to this effect. The Japanese War Department has also appointed a special committee, the dispatch continues, to investigate the army administration with a view to making recommendations for a reduction in expenses.

WOOL GROWERS PLAN TO OUST MIDDLEMEN.

WINNEMUCCA (Nev.) May 16.—Local wool men and merchants have agreed to co-operate with Joseph Wilson, Humboldt county Farm Bureau agent, in a movement to facilitate manufacture of pure-wool suits at $36 to $40. It is proposed to pay 30 cents a pound for the wool clips of Humboldt county and send the wool direct to cloth mills, eliminating the middlemen.

By this method it is said that all-wool cloth can be manufactured at an approximate cost of $1.25 a yard which can be sold at $3.15 to $3.40 a yard to the trade. The plan is intended to benefit the wool grower, manufacturer and consumer.

ENOZ
KILLS MOTHS

Spray your Winter clothes and fine furs thoroughly with ENOZ before you pack them away. And spray the trunk or chest first to kill the thousands of tiny moth-eggs that probably have already been laid in the cracks and seams.

Spray your rugs, carpets and upholstery as soon as Spring cleaning is over and spray the frames of your furniture to kill the moth-eggs and moth-worms that are already there, and to prevent others from coming.

ENOZ positively will not injure or stain the very finest of fabrics nor will it stain mahogany or any other fine wood work. VILNA STILL DEFIES LEAGUE.

Gen. Zeligowski and Troops Hold Lithuanian City.

Declares District Naturally Belongs to Poland.

City Has Changed Hands Often in Few Years.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

VILNA, April 26.—Gen. Lucien Zeligowski, who still defies the League of Nations and who, last fall, marched into the Vilna district at the head of 20,000 or more Polish soldiers and proclaimed himself dictator of Central Lithuania, is a great believer in the old-time proverb that possession is nine points in ten when it comes to law, international or otherwise.

For seven months the general has been supreme in the occupied country while the League of Nations, through its military commission of control, has been endeavoring to act as mediator in the territorial dispute between Poland and Lithuania.

CALLS LEAGUE INTRUDER.

The general looks upon League members who have visited the district as intruders. On the other hand the League representatives apparently view Zeligowski in the same light and have refused to deal direct with the general, all negotiations pertaining to a settlement of the Vilna affair from the one side being carried on through the Polish government in Warsaw, the Zeligowski soldiers in the meantime holding onto the fort.

"I am a Pole, and Vilna is my home," Gen Zeligowski said to the correspondent. "I was born in Vilna. Most of my soldiers are natives of Vilna or adjacent territory. Our reasons for being here are simply these:

REASONS FOR FIGHT.

"In 1919, when Poland was attacked by the Bolsheviki, I went to war for Poland, together with thousands of other poles from the Vilna district. For two years we fought the Bolsheviki, who in the meantime had occupied Vilna, robbed and destroyed our homes and committed atrocities upon our relatives and friends. Eventually came the armistice between Poland and the soviets, and then many conflicting reports regarding Vilna's fate.

"It was some weeks after this that I decided to take action myself, knowing my men felt as I did in the matter. I resigned by commission as a general in the Polish army by telegraph, took command of the Vilna Polish troops and occupied the country. We received a glorious welcome, and we've been here ever since, and naturally we feel perfectly at home, as we are at home, and I don't know of anything which is strong enough to pry us out."

MUCH-DISPUTED CITY.

From the time of the ancient state of Lithuania when Vilna was the capital of that state, Vilna has been a much-disputed city. In the great war and during the struggle between Poland and the Bolsheviki, Vilna was a much-sought prize and changed hands many times.

Within the last few years Vilna has had streets named in four different languages at various intervals. Since Vilna was occupied by the Zeligowski troops, names famous in Polish history have adorned the street corners, replacing Lithuanian names put up after withdrawal of the Bolsheviki. In 1915 Vilna was occupied by the Germans who apparently had hopes of remaining and "Kaiser Wilhelmstrasses," and "Bismarckstrasse" and various other German names replaced the Russian street signs.

HAS OWN GOVERNMENT.

In the spring of 1920, when Poland was at war with the soviets, Lithuania made a separate peace with the Bolsheviki, and the treaty signed in Moscow gave Vilna, at that time occupied by the Bolsheviki, to the Lithuanians. News of the signing of this treaty created a stir throughout Poland which considers the Vilna district, about the size of the State of New Jersey, a part of ethnographical Poland.

The Poles point out to back this claim that Kosciuszko, the Polish patriot and friend of America in revolutionary days, was born near Vilna, and that Joseph Pilsudski, the present Polish chief of state, and Prince Sapieha, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and various other Polish statesmen of note were born and reared on the land now in dispute. It is also contended by the Poles that the majority of the population throughout Central Lithuania is Polish.

HAS OWN GOVERNMENT.

While Vilna looks upon Warsaw for support and supplies, Gen. Zeligowski prefers to have the district known as Central Lithuania, and has set up his own little government. There is a representative of the Polish government who stays in Vilna and is known among the natives as the "Polish ambassador." Soon after taking over the affairs of Vilna, the Zeligowski adherents printed their own Central Lithuanian postage stamps, but the Polish mark has continued as the local currency.

Gen. Zeligowski is of the opinion that the majority of the population favors annexation to Poland but he is perfectly willing that the question to determine whether Vilna should become Polish or Lithuanian be decided by plebiscite.

But Gen. Zeligowski, who in appearance somewhat resembles pictures of the late Gen. U. S. Grant, has little faith in the efforts put forth by the League of Nations to settle the affair.

"Frankly, I haven't any confidence in the League of Nations, so far as our affairs are concerned," said the general, "and why should I have? What have they ever done, anyway? No, I have never recognized the League of Nations!" And then, with a twinkle in his eye; "The League has never recognized Central Lithuania, nor Zeligowski either, and I guess we can settle our own affairs, if they will let us alone!"

FRENCH BRIDES TAKING WING.

Wives of Former Soldiers to Visit Relatives.

Many Swedish Girls Also to See Home Land.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, May 16.—Many French brides of American soldiers are taking wing back to sunny France, according to the April records of the local passport office.

"Presumably they are going back to visit," said Thomas Sells, deputy clerk of the United States Court in charge of passports here. "At least that is the reason most frequently assigned on applications."

Swedish girls, too, are making the pilgrimage to the land of their birth. In fact, the number of women of all nationalities now applying at Chicago for return to Europe decidedly exceeds that of men. American school-teachers also are swelling the flow to foreign shores.

SPENDING SAVINGS.

The hegira to Sweden, Sells thinks, is largely traceable to the handsome wages paid domestics during 1920, which gave the funds sufficient for the trip.

But by far the largest number of passports now being issued here have Germany as destination, Sells said. "Since we are still technically at war with Germany, however," he pointed out, "passports cannot be issued to Germany from this office. Invariably, though, the applicants for German passports come to us first, and in this way we know approximately the number of people going there. We send them, of course, to the local Swiss Consul, who has charge of German affairs pending the declaration of peace; he issues the passports without further formality."

SEEKING RELATIVES.

The flow toward Germany is largely women, who are returning to visit relatives or seek them in case they have not been heard from. Very few men are returning—practically none on business missions.

Passports to Poland are being issued only in cases of extreme necessity, and no passports whatever are being issued for soviet Russia.

The daily grist at the Chicago passport office averages now sixty-as against twenty-five last January. This office is the second largest dispenser of passports in the country, Sells said.

LENINE'S DECISION TOO LATE TO AID.

ABANDONMENT OF FOOD CONTROL FAILS TO RELIEVE PEOPLE'S PLIGHT.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, May 16. — Lenine's abandonment of government control of foodstuffs came too late to relieve the situation in Soviet Russia, according to letters received in Berlin from a family which has lived in Petrograd throughout the Bolshevist regime.

"The conditions are worse for us than they were when food was issued on cards," one letter states. "We are told now that we may buy food and the peasants are told they may sell food without violating government regulations. But there are no food shops. And the peasants about Petrograd have little food to sell. They don't want paper rubles.

"They even refuse all sorts of manufactured articles in exchange for what little food they may have. They are afraid to give it up, as they are not sure that they can get another crop the coming year.

"The Petrograd district is so sterile that little is produced here in normal times. Transportation is so bad, and the peasants in the grain districts have been so badly treated by the Bolshevist requisitioning parties, that the government simply couldn't continue the small rations it was issuing on cards. So it told us to do for ourselves a job which it could not accomplish with all its power and military force.

"The re-establishment of free trade and the announcement that government restrictions have been reduced will not put food into cities which have no supplies and no means of reconciling peasants who attribute most of their troubles to the two great cities in Russia and want to starve them out."

DAILY TRADE TALK.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

While other businesses have been going through a process of readjustment traction companies have been bumping along as best they could. In many cities rates have been raised, and make shift financing of all sorts tried out, but there has been very little constructive legislation or intelligent understanding of the fundamental requirements of this most important cog in our every-day life.

Municipal ownership has failed because politics and business have never yet been known to establish affinity. Borrowing good money to throw after funds already sunk tied to the rock of deficit is only a way of temporarily averting the inevitable. Zone systems create a furore of passionate denunciation. Insufficient revenue necessarily results in poor service.

William E. Clayton, vice-president and general manager of the Spreckels interests in San Diego says the answer is co-operation, and the education of the people out of the thought that the street-car business is a bonanza. He emphasizes the thought that the business of selling transportation must be looked upon in the same light as any other business. It must afford a fair return on the investment while giving the public the best possible service.

Street car systems throughout the country, Mr. Clayton is quoted as saying, have been forced to operate on the lowest margin of profits, or in many instances, on no profits at all, while the cost of operation and maintenance has gone up continually and while all other lines of business were meeting increased expenses by an increased price to the consumer.

It is unreasonable to ask the street railway company to operate at a continual loss, especially when such operation means bad service and run down at the heel equipment. It is as unreasonable to demand that a street railway system put away any thought of reasonable profit as it is to ask the merchant to dispose of his goods at a loss.

Transportation is a commodity. It is all the traction companies have to sell. When the merchant is unable to sell his goods at a profit he establishes a new level. The jitney is a very convenient price for a street car ride whether it be ten blocks or ten miles, but if that ride costs the company 6 cents to deliver, or even 5 cents, the ultimate consumer gets the worst of it.

Many investigators favor the system adopted in a few eastern cities where a sliding scale is in effect with a rate sufficient to insure good service, and proper maintenance fixed every six months. When operating costs and conditions warrant the price of the ride automatically comes down; when more revenue is imperative it goes up. The public gets what it pays for and pays for what it gets.

A car ride in Los Angeles costs exactly what it cost twenty-five years ago only we can ride much farther and in greater comfort now, and yet those who habitually use this greatest of conveniences complain that the service is slipping. Certainly the balance sheets of our traction companies give no cause for unrestrained jubilation on the part of stock and bondholders.

Is it not about time to take the bull by the horns? Los Angeles without an adequate street car service is unthinkable. A consultation is better than a post mortem. Let's find out what's the matter and, in characteristic Los Angeles fashion, apply the remedy.

CROP MOVEMENTS.

In summarizing seasonal crop movements on four important products of Southern California, the development board says, under the citrus classification that between 18,000 and 20,000 carloads of Valencias are predicted. The last of the navel crop is being moved from local markets. Citricube Company of Anaheim, has been organized for the manufacture of concentrated marmalade cubes. The National Orange Company of Riverside has shipped a trial consignment of 9000 boxes of citrus fruit in cartons to New York with satisfactory results. A market has been opened for orange wood, used in making dentists' tools, manicure sets etc., through the Fruit Growers' Exchange.

Under the head of cantaloupes, it is said that the Imperial district will probably ship about 20,000 cars.

The olive pack this year will be about forty per cent of normal, with a tendency toward oil production.

In the shipment of the 1920 crop of walnuts the Saticoy Association led with 5,370,500 pounds; Santa Barbara County Walnut Growers' Association was second with 3,053,646 pounds; Santa Ana third with 2,628,781 pounds; La Puente fourth with 2,579,942 pounds; Whittier fifth, 2,035,813 pounds; Anaheim, El Monte, Fullerton, Placentia, Irvine, Richland and Santa Paula all shipping over 1,000,000 pounds. United States imported in 1920 15,818,025 pounds shelled walnuts and 16,072,807 pounds unshelled from France, China, Italy, Japan, Spain and Chile, ranking in quantity in order named.

CURB MARKET OPENS.

The Los Angeles curb Exchange opened yesterday at No. 118 West Fourth street, in rooms formerly occupied by E. F. Hutton & Company. There was fair trading for the initial day, and the development of this latest addition to the financial district will be watched with interest.

PERSONAL MENTION.

William W. Clary of Los Angeles has been appointed by the Railroad Commission assistant to attorney Hugh Gordon. Mr. Clary is a graduate of Pomona College. For two years he was in the office of the Public Defender in Los Angeles and was deputy county counsel of Los Angeles. He also served as assistant special counsel for the Los Angeles county flood control district.

NIAGARA FALLS POWER.

E. H. Rollins & Sons, syndicate managers with Spencer Trask & Co., in the issue of $6,000,000 Niagara Falls Power Company first and consolidation bond mortgage 6 per cent gold bonds, report that the syndicate books have been closed on the issue. The bonds are secured by a first mortgage on the real estate interests, power plants, transmission systems, and other properties of the company, having a valuation of more than $55,000,000.

The equity in these properties over and above the total funded debt outstanding is more than $25,000,000. The net income of the company for 1920 was in excess of 2 2-4 times the interest requirements for that year, and more than 1 7-8 times the requirements of the present outstanding funded debt. The bonds are redeemable in whole or in part at the option of the company upon sixty days notice at 105. Bonds of this issue are being offered to the investor at $88 and interest, to yield about 8 per cent.

BRAZIL LOAN OVERSOLD.

External gold bonds, noncallable, of the United States of Brazil to the amount of $25,000,000 were offered yesterday by a strong syndicate composed of Cyrus Peirce & Co., Dillon, Read & Co., Blair & Co., White, Weld & Co., Union Trust Company of Pittsburg, Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, Halsey, Stuart Co., Inc., Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank, Union Trust Company and the Cleveland Northern Trust Company of Chicago. This issue is in the form of twenty-year 8 per cent gold bonds, and is not callable in whole or in part. The offering price is $97.50 and interest, to net more than 8.25 per cent.

Bond & Goodwin & Tucker, Inc., are advised by Dillon, Read & Co., the syndicate managers, that the issue has already been heavily oversubscribed. The bonds will be a direct obligation of the Brazilian government, and will be especially secured by a first charge on the consumption tax and stamp tax, and by a second charge on the government's receipts from customs duties. The proceeds of this loan are to be employed in part for the purchase in the United States of material required by the government.

A TIE THAT BONDS.

"While I have had some small part in the efforts to consolidate the handling of the cotton, it yet remains to be seen just how successful

European News Checks Sales on Cotton Market.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, May 16.—The European political news and consequences of British labor troubles checked buying but did not materially stimulate selling in the cotton market during the day's early trading.

Business was comparatively quiet in consequence, and after opening unchanged to 4 points higher, fluctuations were irregular, with July ruling between 12.68 and 12.77 cents, compared with 12.71 cents at the close of last week.

Owing to the holiday there were no quotations from Liverpool, and very few orders from that quarter were reported around the ring. The South was credited with selling some cotton here early, but spot houses bought and there was some early buying by Wall street, encouraged by reiterated reports of improving conditions in the domestic goods trade.

There was a rally on covering later. This followed the publication of the weather map showing more rain than expected in eastern belt sections and prospects for lower temperatures in the Southwest. July sold up to 12.87 cents, or 6 points net higher, while late months were relatively firm, showing net advances of 10 to 15 points, but after the spurt of covering subsided, trading was very quiet and prices sagged off again during the middle of the day.

NEAR-BY BARLEY MAKES GAIN; FUTURES WEAK.

An undercurrent of strength developed for the immediate shipment of barley on the local exchange yesterday, although the futures were weak and lower at the close of the call. The market was very quiet throughout the session, and there were no transactions recorded. Ten and fifteen-day barley made a gain of 25 cents during the call, while the twenty-day shipment closed 50 cents higher. In the future months, May dropped to the extent of 6 cents, while there was 25 cents per ton below the quotations of the preceding day. December barley held firm and unchanged. Four carloads of the new crop Imperial Valley barley arrived on the local market yesterday.

A Real Public Service

BONDS of the San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric Company fitly illustrate the safety and earning power of a well managed Public Service Corporation, under wisely drawn California laws, subject to the rulings of an eminently fair and able State Railroad Commission.

The Company operates without competition over a territory of about one thousand square miles, furnishing gas and electricity to a population slightly over 100,000. Since 1906 its number of gas consumers has increased six-fold; its miles of gas mains have increased six-fold; its electric consumers have grown from 2212 to 28,200; the number of motors its current is driving has increased from 150 to 2905. This represents constructive growth—good for the Company, good for the territory it serves.

The Company's operating franchises are satisfactory in scope and duration. Its public relations are excellent, because it supplies a dependable service—only recently it was granted a substantial increase in rates. Net earnings for year ending April 30, 1921 were $913,346, against $277,314 in 1910, an increase of over 325 per cent. The Company's total electric generating capacity is now 19,450 K.W., and its gas plants have a daily capacity of 6,125,000 cubic feet.

Here is a growing "Public Service" [illegible] a growing community, paying the interest on its moderate bonded debt regularly, paying good dividends each year upon its preferred and common stock—earnings for year ending April 30, 1921, more than twice over its funded debt interest charges, including this present bond issue. The money from this $2,750,000 issue goes partly into refunding prior issues and partly into improvements and extensions—factors that will increase stability and production and extend service, that will enhance earning power.

These bonds are exempt from personal property tax in California, and application will be made to certify them a legal investment for California Savings Banks. The Company [illegible] to pay interest without deduction for any [illegible] Federal Income Tax to an amount not exceeding 2% per annum which it may [illegible] pay at the source.

Price 87 and interest, to yield 7.30%. Let us send you circular giving facts and figures in detail.

TALKS To Investors

Promises of large dividends are characteristic of new enterprises. If the venture be successful the reward is large; and so it should be, for the risk has been equally great.

When the temptation to speculate is strong ask yourself this question: "Can I afford to lose it all?" On that basis most of us will find that we have no business gambling against the odds presented in speculative ventures.

Our experience has taught us that in the long run bonds are the safest investment for large or small sums. A personal interview at our offices may be of real help to you in the protection of your savings.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, May 16.—Selling of stocks for both accounts, principally the short interest, was resumed in moderate volume today. It continued until the final hour when a covering movement canceled many losses and effected a few substantial gains.

Early recessions ran from one to three points in the prominent motors and their accessories, as well as steels, equipments, shippings, metals and food shares. Low-priced oils were under constant fire.

Miscellaneous issues, embracing the mail-order, motion-picture, leather and less distinctive groups, also gave way variably to professional offerings, but a few utilities, rails and tobaccos were inclined to strengthen.

The belated recovery was guided by Mexican Petroleum, International Paper, Sumatra Tobacco and some of the other oils, as well as motors and investment rails at gains of one to fully five points. It occurred in the face of a rise of call money from 6½ to 7 per cent. Sales, 700,000 shares.

Dealings in bonds were relatively more active, though the tone was uncertain. Liberty issues rallied after early irregularities. Total sales, par value, $11,450,000.

Sound Economy

is not only avoiding extravagance, but foreseeing any loss and providing against it. In times like these, it is the soundest kind of economy for every manufacturer, every wholesaler, to safeguard against unforeseen, abnormal credit losses.

Money invested in a premium for the American's Unlimited Policy of Credit Insurance is the wisest money you can invest.

Consider firms like the Berkshire Cotton Mfg. Co., Adams, Mass. They write:

"We acknowledge receipt of your draft for $14,000.00, in payment of excess loss under recently expired policy with your company.

"We have carried your Policy for 26 years, and although this is the first year we have had a loss, we are such firm believers in your system of Credit Insurance that we felt it the part of good business to carry the protection, being better satisfied to have our customers pay their bills than for us to call upon you.

"When the loss did come, as it did this year on two highly rated customers, you responded with the utmost promptness and to our entire satisfaction."

PRODUCE MARKET WEAK UNDER DULL DEMAND.

CABBAGE, NEW POTATOES AND CORN DROP; FIRST CANTALOUPES ARRIVE.

The undertone of the local produce market was weak yesterday under a sluggish demand on the part of the retail trade. Country and rail arrivals were liberal, and the movement was slow, with the result that the trend was sharply downward for many of the leading lines. Sweet corn, which was in heavier supply, declined to 50 and 60 cents per dozen. Cabbage slumped 25 to 50 cents per crate, the best stock bringing from $1.75 to $2, while the poorer offerings were ruling around $1.25 to $1.50 per crate. New potatoes were also down, showing a drop of 25 cents per log to sales at $1.25 to $1.50. Peas, however, were in light supply, and the market for this commodity was slightly firmer, moving up about 2 cents per pound. Strawberries advanced 25 cents per crate, moving readily at $4.75 to $5.25 for the best offerings. The first shipment of Imperial Valley cantaloupes arrived in Los Angeles yesterday morning, and were in good demand at $10 per standard 45-crate.

Very few carlot sales of potatoes were reported over the week-end. Idaho Russets were in slow demand at $2 to $2.10 per hundred, while the Burals were selling at $1.60 per sack. Oregon Burbanks held steady at $2.10 to $2.20 per hundred for the best offerings.

The shipping market for lettuce was weaker. Demand was only moderate, and the heavy shipments of last week, together with the generally poor quality of the offerings and the lateness of the season had a depressing effect on the market. Cash sales were ranging from $2 to $2.15 per crate, while sales over the wire were reported at $2.25 to $2.35. A heavy movement of Coachella Valley onions is now under way, shipments of 27 cars being reported on Saturday. The demand is moderate, and prices are steady at $1.25 per crate for the yellows, and $1.50 for the way variety, in carlots. It is expected that the movement will reach its peak this week.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 16.—Wheat and the corn and oats markets were divorced today, the coarse grains being weak and lower and wheat strong and higher. Surroundings were bullish on wheat and bearish on corn and oats. Trade was not large except in July wheat and in the coarse grains hedging sales were a feature. Highest prices were made for the coarse grains around midday and the lowest at the close with corn off ¾ and oats ¼ to ⅞ cent, while May wheat was strong at around the top prices with a net gain of 1 cent. July was practically the same as Saturday. Rye was unsettled with September 2 cents higher and other months ¼ to ¾ cent higher.

Provisions were 10 to 15 cents lower on lard, 5 cents off on short ribs and 25 cents lower on pork.

The wheat market was a striking one. Cash premiums were higher with gains of 1 to 4 cents, the Southwest leading. At the same time prices were 1 cent lower at Winnipeg with reports that it was coming out too fast. While there was nothing heard of the export demand, the absence of pressure of cash wheat in the face of liberal arrivals and the constant decrease in the visible supply stood out as a strong factor.

May advanced from $1.45 to $1.45⅝ with the close within 2 cents of the top. Buying of May and selling of July was liberal at 22 cents difference, the widest premium so far.

Crop news from the Southwest was more favorable with rains over the greater part and moderate country offerings. At the same time reports from Illinois and Indiana were less favorable. The feature in July was the heavy selling by three houses with New York connections who were the heaviest sellers last week and were said to be covering by shorts. This made an advance from $1.14⅛ to $1.16⅜, with the finish 1¼ to 1½ cents from the top. The selling was mainly by local interests and it was surprising at the amount supplied within a 2-cent range.

Corn derived its strength from wheat, showing nearly 1 cent over Saturday's finish with July at 68¼, and May 69¾ cents. Hedging sales by country and elevator houses supplied the offerings and made a break of 1¼ to 2 cents on futures from the top. Illinois and Iowa offered corn on the bulge but shut off on the break. It is only a question of time when they will be selling at the market, it is believed.

Trade reports at a number of points in Iowa created moderate buying of oats and made an advance early which met good sales and prices declined. Local traders sold on the early break and covered later on the advance but there was not a heavy trade in all.

Rye exporters bought 14,000 bushels at Chicago and paid 32 cents over Chicago July c.i.f. Buffalo. A little May was wanted while July was bought against spread in wheat and shorts bought September which gained 2 cents. Local stocks decreased 8000 bushels to 28,000 bushels.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, May 16.—Wheat and the corn and oats markets were divorced today, the coarse grains being weak and lower and wheat strong and higher. Surroundings were bullish on wheat and bearish on corn and oats. Trade was not large except in July wheat and in the coarse grains hedging sales were a feature. Highest prices were made for the coarse grains around midday and the lowest at the close with corn off ¾ and oats ¼ to ⅞ cent, while May wheat was strong at around the top prices with a net gain of 1 cent. July was practically the same as Saturday. Rye was unsettled with September 2 cents higher and other months ¼ to ¾ cent higher.

Provisions were 10 to 15 cents lower on lard, 5 cents off on short ribs and 25 cents lower on pork.

The wheat market was a striking one. Cash premiums were higher with gains of 1 to 4 cents, the Southwest leading. At the same time prices were 1 cent lower at Winnipeg with reports that it was coming out too fast. While there was nothing heard of the export demand, the absence of pressure of cash wheat in the face of liberal arrivals and the constant decrease in the visible supply stood out as a strong factor.

May advanced from $1.45 to $1.45⅝ with the close within 2 cents of the top. Buying of May and selling of July was liberal at 22 cents difference, the widest premium so far.

Crop news from the Southwest was more favorable with rains over the greater part and moderate country offerings. At the same time reports from Illinois and Indiana were less favorable. The feature in July was the heavy selling by three houses with New York connections who were the heaviest sellers last week and were said to be covering by shorts. This made an advance from $1.14⅛ to $1.16⅜, with the finish 1¼ to 1½ cents from the top. The selling was mainly by local interests and it was surprising at the amount supplied within a 2-cent range.

Corn derived its strength from wheat, showing nearly 1 cent over Saturday's finish with July at 68¼, and May 69¾ cents. Hedging sales by country and elevator houses supplied the offerings and made a break of 1¼ to 2 cents on futures from the top. Illinois and Iowa offered corn on the bulge but shut off on the break. It is only a question of time when they will be selling at the market, it is believed.

Trade reports at a number of points in Iowa created moderate buying of oats and made an advance early which met good sales and prices declined. Local traders sold on the early break and covered later on the advance but there was not a heavy trade in all.

Rye exporters bought 14,000 bushels at Chicago and paid 32 cents over Chicago July c.i.f. Buffalo. A little May was wanted while July was bought against spread in wheat and shorts bought September which gained 2 cents. Local stocks decreased 8000 bushels to 28,000 bushels.

What the "Standard" Field Man Saw Near Golden Dome

Last Sunday, a field man from the Standard Oil Co., checked samples with the driller of the Peerless well, which is within a stone's throw of Golden Dome and on the next lease north of us. He found the structure to be identical with the STANDARD BOLSA CHICA well. This should make GOLDEN DOME another Bolsa Chica territory, something we have always claimed.

Three hours after leaving Peerless, Standard was delivering lumber on their W. S. Thompson lease, AS CLOSE TO GOLDEN DOME AS THEY COULD GET.

What more proof do you need?

Golden Dome looks like the most promising lease in Huntington Beach. We are on DIRECT LINE between Peerless well and Standard Surf well. Standard is ready to erect a NEW DERRICK on this line also.

There can be little "hit or miss" about "getting oil" on this sort of territory. We have THE LAST OF THE THREE GREAT OIL DOMES IN HUNTINGTON BEACH. WE ARE NOW ACTUALLY AT WORK CONSTRUCTING OUR FIRST DERRICK. GET IN WITH US NOW, WHILE YOU MAY. TIME WON'T WAIT FOR YOU, NOR WILL OUR PROGRESS.

Huntington National "Up and Doing"

It didn't take us more than a few hours after our first announcement to start machinery and boilers moving on the ground, so that operations may start on our first well within a very short time.

From all appearances, the management of the Huntington National Oil Company—the same as that of Huntington Central Oil Company, whose well No. 1 has made such a recent production success at Huntington Beach—will repeat with even a GREATER degree of success.

The investing public has implicit confidence in us. The crowds that have been to our offices and to our properties in the field, and the manner in which they have started to buy Huntington National shares is ample proof of it.

The early rush that is on for Huntington National indicates an early closing of the present allotment of shares. The minute actual drilling commences, we believe the demand for shares will be so great as to close out entirely what shares may remain at that time.

In fact, because Huntington National acreage is largely proven property, we expect an early unprecedented demand to force the price of shares upward at a lively rate.

Our new Booklet on Huntington Beach and the Huntington National Oil Company is just off the press. Better send for your copy today before the supply is exhausted. Call at room if you can; if not, write or telephone us, or Use the Coupon.

FINANCIAL AND TRADE REVIEW.

the effort will prove to be. The whole situation is so uncertain that it is extremely difficult to foresee the ultimate outcome, but it is an unquestioned fact that the attitude of the Los Angeles banks in helping out the situation here this year has, in my judgment, done more to permanently tie up the interests of Southern California with those of Arizona in a way that must be beneficial to both sections, than anything else that has ever been accomplished.

"In my experience I have never met with a more whole-hearted spirit of helpfulness and general good will than has been expressed by those in charge of the banking institutions of Los Angeles during the last few months."

LOS ANGELES STOCKS.

The shakedown which the home market has been getting for several weeks continued yesterday, led by Tom Reed, which appears to be headed cellarward with undiminished speed, although it is questionable whether much of the stock is coming from inside sources. The opening transaction was at 65 cents, the closing trade was ten points lower, and four bits was the best bid obtainable. There was considerable activity in Gold Ore at 4 cents, and several thousand shares of United American went over from 25 cents down to 22 cents.

In the oils, Mascot lost four points, declining from $1.75 to $1.71. Associated was at par, and General Petroleum sold down to $118. Republic was slightly stronger, opening at 30½ cents and selling up to 31½ cents. Delaware Union was at $23.12½, California Union at $149 and United around 46½ cents. Bonds were steady and industrials inactive.

TWO BIG WELLS.

Oil men were interested yesterday in reports of two new big wells in Mexico. One is said to be the property of the Mexican Eagle Oil Company in the Naran Jose district. It came in at 1937 feet with a flow of 80,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day and then developed an oil flow, spraying 500 feet over the derrick. The capacity has been estimated at more than 100,000 barrels a day.

The bringing in of a 100,000-barrel well by the Mexican Petroleum in Cerro Azul Hacienda is said to establish the producing possibilities of that property. This well, it is claimed, encountered the sand at a depth of only 1834 feet, making it the shallowest well in Mexico.

The First of the Month

The first of the month means pay-day to thousands of Breckenridge investors—men who have paid $100.00 for Breckenridge units.

Oil men, seasoned investors, shrewd business men who demand to know, are the men who draw big monthly dividend checks from Breckenridge Syndicates.

Breckenridge units are not sold for 10 cents—$100.00 is the price. Oil men don't usually buy in Ten Cent Oil Companies, they buy all—not stock.

When a man buys a Breckenridge unit, he buys a specified percentage of the oil specified wells produce, and knows that he is going to receive, every thirty days, a check for his share of all the oil produced by these wells.

$100.00 is the price of one unit in the H. & S. Oil Syndicate. Each unit calls for one barrel out of every 1150 H. & S. receives from its entire 40-acre tract. Each unit is perpetual, shares equally with all other units, and is non-assessable.

No board of directors determines what your monthly check will be if you are an H. & S. unit holder. The amount of oil that H. & S. receives is the one and only thing that determines how large your profits shall be.

H. & S. units are worth an investigation and an investment.

SCHUMACHER'S PLEA OPPOSED BY POST.

APPLICATION FOR PROBATION SUPPORTED BY ATTORNEY; "LEARNED LESSON."

The application of Sidney F. Schumacher, former assistant adjutant of Post No. 8, American Legion, for probation is meeting with opposition. Schumacher, who pleaded guilty to embezzling funds of the American Legion, has been in the County Jail for four months.

Officers of Post No. 8 said, in their opinion, substantial reasons exist why Schumacher should not receive probation. They testified he had made out vouchers and appropriated the money. They also said that Schumacher had written a letter to a young woman declaring it was his intention to take her to the Orient, although he is a married man.

Testimony also was given against Schumacher connecting his name with a young girl. However, it was stated by officers of the post that Schumacher had done wonderful work in building up the organization. He is represented by Attorney S. W. Thompson.

HUNT ROBBER GANG.

Following confessions made by Oliver C. Dyer, 25 years of age, captured by Dr. J. A. Colegrove in his dental offices on South Broadway Sunday, police detectives yesterday continued their search for other members of what is known as the "gold tooth" bandit gang. The members of the band, according to the police, rob only dentists' offices and steal gold.

Dyer was surprised by Dr. Colegrove in the act of looting the office last Sunday. The dentist captured the thief and drove his companion from the office. At least a dozen men are members of the band of burglars, according to the police.

In the Midst of Gushers

The public rarely gets the opportunity to share in the really big, fortune-making oil enterprises. Investment in these ventures is usually restricted to the principals, and only the less attractive propositions placed on the market.

The offer of Elk Hills Consolidated is one you cannot afford to overlook. This company has 100 acres in the richest district of California. It is close to the Tupman lease of the Standard Oil Company, wher the first well brought in has produced $4,000,000.00 worth of oil since February, 1920.

Oil land here is tremendously valuable. The Doheny interests on April 5, 1921, paid $1,160,850 and a 25 per cent royalty for a three-quarter section. The big companies are on all sides of our holdings. The Barlow and Hill and the Union Oil companies are just west of us; the Pacific Oil Company, which, next to the Standard, owns the most gushers in the field, is north, and the Standard is now drilling on the section adjoining us to the south, with the Associated Oil Company lying next.

A Gusher is Worth Fifty Ordinary Wells

Glance at the record of the Standard's wells in the Elk Hills field, brought in from February, 1920, to January, 1921, and you will appreciate what we are offering, compared to the company that may strike a 50 or 100-barrel well.

Officials of Elk Hills Consolidated are well-known Pacific Coast business men. They have their own money invested and are confident a fortune is ahead. It took cash and fast action to get this lease in the midst of the big oil companies, and to finance the undertaking they are making this public offering. Subscriptions are accepted subject to prior sale, as the entire issue may at any time be taken by friends of the present stockholders.

Armenians Pledge Funds to Feed Thousands in Far East.

A square meal for 42,000 starving children of Armenia and Syria, living in orphanages or with their destitute parents, was provided by Los Angeles Armenians at a solemn mass meeting yesterday in the Armenian church, on South Central avenue.

A subscription of $4620 was quickly raised among the people who understand through intimate knowledge and kinship the suffering of their race in the Near East. The money was asked for by and given to F. L. Sims, executive secretary of the Near East Relief of Southern California, the organization authorized by act of Congress to carry on "first aid to humanity" in the stricken land.

Besides giving the money donations, considerable quantities of old clothing were pledged to the "cast-off-clothing" campaign which will close with "Bundle Day," May 25, when every home is expected to contribute some cast-off garment or cloth to cover the nakedness of a people.

The receiving depot for the clothing, which will be accepted at any time, is maintained at 1303 East Seventh.

EXTEND FIGHT ON BOLL WORM.

Cotton Experts of Country Meet in Washington.

Texas Blamed for Foothold Gained by Pest.

The Government Has Spent $2,000,000 in Fight.

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Cotton growers and experts from all over the country met today in the National Museum to participate in a conference to protect American cotton from the ravages of the pink boll worm, which has already caused great damage and on the eradication of which the government of the United States has spent more than $2,000,000.

After some discussion it was charged and admitted that the reason for the menace of the pink boll worm was the failure of Texas to properly protect against the importation of the worm from Mexico. A committee was appointed to work out a plan for the co-operation of Texas with the Federal Horticultural Board by which a strict quarantine may be enforced. This committee is in session today and will report tomorrow morning.

CAME FROM MEXICO.

The pink boll worm came into the United States from Mexico in the autumn of 1917, appearing first in Texas. Although the Federal government took immediate action, unfortunately the Texas authorities failed to provide quarantine and control restrictions which the United States Department of Agriculture believed necessary. The pink boll worm has now limited foothold in five areas in Texas, two in Louisiana and two in New Mexico.

The seriousness of the situation is recognized by experts, who declare that basing their estimates upon the destruction the worm has done in recent years in Egypt, Brazil, Hawaii and Mexico, failure to control the pest in this country undoubtedly would mean an annual loss of 20 to 40 per cent of the cotton crop in the United States, or a money loss of several hundred million dollars a year.

CROP CUT IN HALF.

This estimate has been supported and even exceeded, recently, in the report of a commission appointed by former Gov. Hobby of Texas, whose members investigated the ravages of the worm in the great cotton-growing region of Laguna, Mex. The loss to the crop in that region in 1920 was approximately 50 per cent, and the destruction has been increasing gradually since the worm began its work about ten years ago. Considering climatic conditions in the two adjoining countries the commission did not believe the damage in Texas and other parts of the South would be less severe.

NATIVE OF INDIA.

The pink boll worm is a native of India, and was carried from there to Egypt in 1906 and 1907 in shipments of unginned cotton, and since then has been scattered to most of the cotton producing countries of the world through the agency of Egyptian cottonseed. As soon as its occurrence in Mexico became known, in 1916, the Department of Agriculture obtained a special appropriation of $50,000 from Congress to protect Texas and other States from the entry of the insect. Following the discovery in 1917 of its presence in Texas there have been several appropriations to continue the work of preventing further entry from Mexico and to eradicate the pest in Texas and other States, amounting in all to $2,500,000, of which $554,540 is available for the coming fiscal year.

The conference had before it a map showing all infested areas thus far detected by the department's agents, and considered, among other things, the possibility of exterminating the pest.

FINANCING EXPORTS.

The War Finance Corporation announces that, in connection with its recently announced approval of an advance of $2,000,000 to assist in the exportation of cotton to warehouses in foreign ports, it has to date advanced $1,600,000 against cotton actually exported. This financing of cotton will assist in maintaining adequate stocks near the points of consumption, and thereby facilitate business. The distributing points to which the cotton has been consigned are Liverpool, Havre, Trieste, Genoa, Venice and Bremen. Cotton consigned to Havre is distributed to the near-by mills, and also to mills in the interior of France and Alsace-Lorraine, as well as in Switzerland. Cotton to the Italian ports will be distributed to Italian and Austrian mills. Cotton warehoused in Bremen will be distributed to Czecho-Slovakia, Austria, Poland and Sweden.

A new application for an advance of $1,000,000 in connection with shipment of cotton to foreign ports for warehousing and distribution has just been approved by the board of directors. This cotton will go to Liverpool, Havre, Genoa, Bremen and Kobe, Japan.

Another asked for an advance of $1,000,000 to finance the exportation of cotton from American interior points and American ports under contracts calling for shipments from October to December, inclusive, has been approved.

KERNEL COOTIE—I HATE THAT KIND OF A GUY

IMPORTANT TAX DECISIONS.

Government Wins Two Cases Involving Incomes and Inheritances.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Through decisions of the Supreme Court today the government won two important victories in controversies involving interpretation of income provisions of the revenue acts of 1916 and 1917. Increased value of a capital asset could not be added to "invested capital," the court ruled in the appeal of La Belle Iron Works, an Ohio concern, from a ruling by treasury officials, but, on the contrary, must be considered in computing profits of the corporations on which the taxes were to be assessed.

INHERITANCE TAX.

In the other decision the court ruled that inheritance or succession taxes paid to a State would not be deducted from the "net estate taxed under the Revenue Act."

This suit was characterized by a high government official as "the most important legal suit affecting Federal finances to arise in several decades."

The specific point at issue was whether ore lands in the Mesaby range of Minnesota, purchased for $190,000 prior to 1904, could be returned by the iron company at a new valuation of $10,000,000 in 1917, the increase being covered by a stock issue and carried under invested capital.

MEANING OF ACT CLEAR.

"We think the meaning of the act as to 'invested capital' is clear" said Justice Pitney, in delivering the decson

"It defined this term to mean (one) actual cash paid in, (two) actual cash value at the time of payment of assets other than cash paid, and (three) paid in or earned surplus and undivided profits used or employed in the business, but not to include money or other property borrowed.

"When speaking of the capital of a business corporation or partnership, 'to invest' imports a laying out of money or money's worth with a view to obtaining income or profit from the conduct of a business.

"To adhere to this restricted meaning and avoid exaggerated valuation, the draftsman of the act resorted to the test of including nothing but money or money's worth, actually contributed or converted in exchange for shares of capital stock, or actually acquired through the business activities of the corporation as part of its gain and coming to ab extra by way of increase over the original capital stock. How consistently this was carried out becomes evident as the section (Section 207) is examined . . .

"The same controlling thought is carried into the proviso. Every line showed evidence of a legislative purpose to confine the account to such items as were paid for in stock or for shares issued for it, and to their values 'at time of such payment.'"

MILLIONS AT STAKE.

Hundreds of millions of dollars in taxes hung on the decision, there being but few partnerships or corporations which did not have on their books an item showing material sums resulting from appreciated value of capital assets.

The inheritance tax case was brought to the Supreme Court by executors of the estate of the late J. Harsen Purdy, of New York.

No less than five States had collected tax on the turnover of portions of the estate within their jurisdiction and the executors claimed all these sums should be deducted before Federal taxes on the "net estate" could be legally computed. Refusal of tax collectors to agree to this contention was upheld by the Treasury Department and the Federal courts and today by the Supreme Court.

GRAIN EXCHANGES HIT BY TINCHER.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Warning by Joseph P. Griffin, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, that grain exchanges will go out of business rather than submit to the terms of the pending legislation affecting them, was termed a bluff today by Representative Tincher of Kansas, author of the bill passed last week by the House.

"This is a bluff," said Representative Tincher. "It is an attempt upon the part of the grain exchanges to tell Congress what they can and cannot do.

"Mr. Griffin says that the farmers' condition will not be relieved until we open up the markets of the world to what the farmer has to sell. If we leave to the best judgment of gamblers in food products how we open these markets, God help the farmer.

"When the representatives of the grain exchanges were before the committee and we looked them in the eye, and called their attention to the evils that existed in the trade, they, of course, said they had no objection to a law that would cure this evil. But when they went back home and a lot of their gambling customers got on their backs, they immediately began to get out telegrams and letters to all of the trade to protest violently against this legislation.

"I hope that the day and time have passed when the American Congress will let any set of men say 'you can' or 'you cannot pass a law.' This attempt to explain their change of front by saying that the bill has been changed to meet the views of the Secretary of Agriculture and is therefore objectionable, is camouflage."

Milk Price Conspiracy?

CHICAGO, May 16.—Federal and State investigations of an alleged conspiracy to cut Chicago's milk supply in half to keep prices up was requested today by officials of the Council High Costs Committee.

GLOVE INDUSTRY IN NEED OF PROTECTION.

CALIFORNIA RANKS FOURTH AMONG STATES OF UNION IN VALUE OF PRODUCTION.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—California is now the fourth State in the Union in value of production of fine gloves for men and women. This is the surprising statement filed in the Senate today by Senator Shortridge, who made a plea for protection for the glove manufacturers of California and those associated with them in the production of fine kid skins and other leathers from which the gloves are made.

Those behind the proposition to secure adequate protection declare that with a proper tariff California will lead the United States in this product within a very few years, and without adequate protection the surprising growth of the industry will be ruined and all of the pioneer work done for nothing.

RAIL PORTERS NOT PUBLIC OFFICIALS.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Railroad porters were not public officials of the United States when the railways were under government control, the Supreme Court decided today in reversing the conviction of Harry Krichman in the District Court of New York on charges of attempted bribery of a Pennsylvania Railway porter.

Krichman, a fur dealer, was charged with having offered the porter $45 to turn over to him a trunkful of furs belonging to another dealer. The government contended that the attempted corruption came under Section 29 of the Criminal Code prohibiting bribery of a public official.

LOS ANGELES IS THIRD.

Far Ahead in List of Cities Sending Out Vessels in Ship Strike.

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Los Angeles was third in the total number of ships sent out from port in the two weeks of the seamen's strike from May 1 to May 15. Its record was only exceeded by New York and Philadelphia. It sent away during the fortnight sixty American ships, and this was seventeen more than San Francisco dispatched during the same time. Philadelphia dispatched only ninety and New York but 120.

San Francisco, of all the ports of the United States, in these two weeks had the greatest tie-up of American ships due to strike conditions, holding fifty-five ships in port for this reason, while Los Angeles only held fourteen in port for the same reason. This is a striking comparison as to the advantage of the open-shop conditions of Los Angeles as against the union domination in San Francisco.

These figures were made public today by the Department of Justice after a very careful checking of the figures. The comparison of the various ports as given by the department is as follows:

	Am. steamers tied up	Am. steamers sailed
New York	5	120
Philadelphia	15	90
Los Angeles	14	60
Portland, Me.	3	..
Boston	1	..

Norfolk	12	27
Charleston	2	12
Savannah	..	15

New Orleans	11	33
Portland, Or.	..	16
Seattle	9	17
Total	142	490

*Sailed May 1 to 15, inclusive.

"In a statement Chairman Benson announced the Shipping Board was "entirely satisfied" with the record of sailing last week, and declared that "the achievement of obtaining the requisite number of men to sail these vessels is taken to indicate the real feeling among the men."

Engineers, he said, continue to report sailors and firemen have been available in numbers, while the percentage of Americans is in excess of the precentage prior to May 1 when the wage cut was made effective.

"The fleet corporation," he said, "does not anticipate a declaration that an emergency exists because such action is not necessary. All ports report the situation well in hand."

FORCE GERMANY TO PAY FOR MISDEEDS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LILLE (France) May 16.—With Germany still disclaiming responsibility for the war, there is no other course than to deal with her as one who must be compelled to make good her misdeeds, declared President Millerand in an address delivered today in the presence of King Albert of Belgium.

"If the citizens of Lille and Northern France and Belgium are too generous to claim revenge," he said, "they nevertheless, in accordance with the remainder of the people of France and the Allies, demand justice against the government and the nation which brought on the war, which throughout the hostilities pursued a systematic course of ruin and devastation toward the mines and industries, employing pillage and arson as a means of insuring their own industrial and economic ascendancy upon the coming of peace.

"As long as Germany continues to deny her responsibility which her plenipotentiary acknowledged at Versailles, there can be no real peace.

"It is not to the democracies eager for work and peace, that one must look for imperialism. We cherish no ambition other than to assure to future generations, liberty, fraternity and peace, in which individual happiness shall be the fruit of interested devotion to the right ideals."

Replying to President Millerand, King Albert said:

"Your words will find among my compatriots in Belgium a sympathetic echo."

M. Millerand today opened an exhibition of social welfare work. He inspected the American Red Cross and complimented Lieut.-Col. R. E. Olds of St. Paul, Minn., Red Cross commissioner for Europe, and also the American Red Cross nurses.

A word to producers of SAND, GRAVEL, STONE, CEMENT, BRICK, PLASTER and all BUILDING MATERIALS: No city in this country has a larger program laid out for building and construction work for this next year than Los Angeles and Southern California. These Figures Tell the Story

The first day's trading on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange has fulfilled the prediction contained in the "Last ad from The Bolsa Chica Oil Company" run in Sunday's papers, that this stock would increase in price immediately. Here are the figures as taken from the board at the close, 1 p.m. Monday.

We Consider Bolsa Chica Oil As Good a Buy at $1.50 a Share As It Was at $1.00

Previous to the time it was taken off the market. Bolsa Chica Oil, we believe will prove to be one of the most active stocks on the L. A. Curb Exchange.

Mr. T. S. Trebell, Vice President and General Manager of the Bolsa Chica Oil Co., has predicted in a signed statement that Bolsa Chica Oil is a good buy today and a good investment at $10.00 a share. That means that buyers of Bolsa Chica Oil stock at $1.50 a share are in line for some good profits if this prediction comes true.

In all the advertising, this company has been very conservative in their statements. They have kept faith and to filled every promise made. The company took their stock off the market Saturday night at eight o'clock.

It's your move now. We will deliver Bolsa Chica Oil stock at the present asked price of $1.50 per share. Call personally if you can, as we expect a heavy demand for this stock. Remember, the Bolsa Chica Oil Co. will drill through the cement this week and they emphatically expect to have production by the end of the week or Sunday at the latest.

Orders will be handled in order as received. Personal calls first.

BOARD TO CONSIDER CAR TERMINAL KICK.

Following the protests by patrons of the First-street line of the Los Angeles Railway against the present location of the terminal on Olive street, between First and Second streets, the Board of Public Utilities will hold a public hearing on the matter next Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Preceding the hearing, the Commissioners, Chief Engineer Osborne of the board and officials of the company will make a personal inspection of the present terminal and the one proposed on Broadway, between First and Temple streets.

The Business Men's Co-Operative Association, as well as individual residents and property owners on Bunker Hill, have stated in communications to the board that the present terminal is inconvenient and unsatisfactory.

ACKING CORNS EASILY REMOVED

How Anybody Can End Tortures of Corns and Calluses at Once.

"Many an otherwise pleasant hour is made agony by the aching and stinging of corns. These painful growths interfere with walking, dancing and other pastimes and have a bad effect on the nerves.

This suffering, however, is needless. All drug stores have now a "paint" which stops the pain of corns and calluses almost at once and causes them to soon dry up and fall off. It is called Cactus Corn Compound.

A small bottle of Cactus Corn Compound, costing only a few cents at any drug store, is sufficient to end dozens of corns. Get it and be relieved. Your druggist will refund your money is it fails.—[Advertisement.

P=S

P.-S. not only stands for Potter-Strutz superiority but is commonly used as an abreviation for Postscript. Postscript is defined as something added, coming after etc.

Potter Gas Radiation came after and is the result of something added by capable, highly trained men who have given years of thought to the gas heating and ventilating business.

To the thinking man, the fact that we have heated thousands of schools, churches, hospitals and homes in the year just past is abundant evidence of Potter-Strutz Superiority. In schools and hospitals especially, where long hours of confinement are necessary, clean, instant, absolutely odorless heat is demanded.

PRESSMEN'S STRIKE JOKE, SAYS BEACH.

Reports Only Thirty-one Out in Sympathy Move to Aid Union Printers.

Thirty-one pressmen and pressfeeders were the net loss of jobprinting establishments in this city when pressmen went on strike yesterday in sympathy with the movement of union printers for a forty-four-hour week.

Seneca Beach, manager of the Master Printers' Association, stated yesterday, following a luncheon attended by the employing printers, that "the strike is a huge joke." He admitted that the small shops were affected, but declared that the big plants hardly knew that a strike had been called.

Some of the big plants, working from fifteen to twenty pressmen and feeders each, lost only one or two men, Mr. Beach said, and others, which lost six or seven, got as many or more recruits during the day.

Realty at Sixth and Flower Sold; Stores Will Rise.

The sale of the property at the southeast corner of Sixth and Flower streets, formerly owned by Dario Orena, to Dwight Hart, for a consideration of $160,000 cash was announced yesterday by the Wright-Callender-Andrews Company, through whom the transaction was handled. This property, 92x110 feet, will be immediately improved with an attractive one-story building to contain nine stores, and will be under the management of the Wright-Callender-Andrews Company.

Sixth street, from Main to Figueroa street, has undergone rapid development as a retail street during the past few months, among the largest improvements on this street being the structures erected by Lee Phillips and associates, the Pacific Mutual and the Pacific Finance buildings.

About a year ago, George Hart, a brother of Dwight Hart, bought through the same agency the northwest corner of Sixth and Flower streets, diagonally opposite the property just purchased by Dwight Hart. The Hart brothers, confident of the future of Los Angeles, have invested heavily in downtown realty, now owning property on Main, Spring, Broadway, Hill, Olive, Grand and West Sixth streets.

Charles G. Andrews, vice-president of the Wright-Callender-Andrews Company, represented Mr. Hart in the purchase of the Sixth and Flower-street corner, while Mr. Orena was represented by Glenn N. Deuel of the business property department of the firm.

THEOLOGY DEAN ASKS TO RETIRE.

Dr. Ezra A. Healy Gives Up U.S.C. Faculty Place.

Dr. W. E. Tilroe Resigns His Pulpit for University.

President Bovard Granted Leave of Absence.

Dr. Ezra A. Healy, dean of the college of theology, University of Southern California, will retire at his own request from that position at the end of the college year, it became known last night, following the announcement of Dr. W. E. Tilroe, pastor of the Lake-Avenue Methodist Church of Pasadena, that he will retire from active ministry this fall to devote his entire time to his duties at U.S.C.

Coincident with this, it was announced at the residence of President George F. Bovard of the university that Rev. Charles E. Leitzell, who has been executive secretary in charge of a campaign for funds for the institution, has been released at his own request in order to take charge of a camapign for the First Methodist Episcopal Church. A. E. Pomeroy, chairman of the board of directors of the church, said last night that Mr. Leitzell will be assistant pastor, aiding Dr. E. E. Helms, particularly in the campaign work.

The vacancy to result from the request of Dr. Healy will be filled, it is believed, by a minister now living in an eastern city. These matters, together with other possible changes, will be fully considered at the next meeting of the board of directors, probably late this month.

The announcement from Dr. Tilroe was to the effect that he will withdraw from the active ministry of the Pasadena congregation when the fall conference of the Methodist church is held. He said he is reluctant to give up his Pasadena church and associations, but feels that the university work will require all his time next year. He is head of the department of church homeletics and pastoral theology.

Dr. Bovard, whose sudden illness a few weeks ago almost resulted in a complete breakdown because of overwork, returned to his home Sunday evening after an absence of two weeks. He was considerably improved in health, and proceeded atonce to resume his duties in connection with the closing of the college year.

The board of trustees of the university has voted Dr. Bovard a six months' leave of absence with pay, but the veteran president, who has been for eighteen years head of the university, decided not to avail himself of this opportunity until after commencement, which will take place June 19 to 23.

Plaster Company Cuts Prices to Boom Building.

A reduction of from 10 to 25 per cent in the price of plaster materials, to become effective within a few days, was announced last night by J. W. Jameson, president of the Blue Diamond Plaster Company. The cut, he stated, has been made possible by the reduced cost of labor which has taken a very noticeable drop since last year.

Following a conference of the company officials, held yesterday afternoon, it was agreed that the drop in prices would be a timely move to increase building activities in the city. Prices of plumbing materials and lumber experienced a decrease of a similar percentage some time ago, Mr. Jameson said.

Among the building commodities which are affected by the slump are plaster, which may be purchased at wholesale at from $22 to $28 per ton; casting plaster, from $30 to $34 per ton; and hydrated lime, from $21 to $30 per ton.

Light Showers for Foothills Skip Over City.

The prospect of a shower loomed large here early yesterday when a heavy mist fell in the western section of the city, but in spite of dark clouds, which lingered throughout the day, Los Angeles remained dry.

The foothill districts between this city and Ontario caught a light rain early in the day. Glendora registered .11 of an inch. The precipitation ranged from a trace to .10 of an inch at different points in the county.

Last night the Weather Bureau report said that there was only the merest chance that the heavy clouds hovering over the city would bring a rain. The state of things was characterized officially as "ordinary May weather."

PLEADS GUILTY AGAIN.

Woman is Fined Second Time on Liquor Selling Charge.

Mrs. Jessie Jaconia is no less backward about pleading guilty than she is about selling liquor. This, however, did not aid her yesterday when she stood before U.S. District Judge Trippet, who fined her $200 and sentenced her to spend six months in the County Jail.

Several months ago Mrs. Jaconia pleaded guilty to running a blind pig at 695 Santa Fe avenue. Then she was fined $500 and the government agents took away her stock of bottled goods.

Mrs. Jaconia yesterday pleaded guilty to keeping a blind tiger where formerly she kept a pig. It was the first instance of a second indictment of the same person for violation of the National Prohibition Act.

Mrs. Jaconia wept bitterly when she was sentenced to jail.

PLAYS WAY INTO HARDING'S HOME

Conrad J. Waller, who wears eight wound stripes below his three chevrons, has returned to his home in Pasadena, after serving with his regiment of engineers in France and Germany, and after having played the piano at the White House. His fighting record is enviable, but strangely Pasadenans yesterday were a good deal more interested in his piano-playing record.

Sergt. Waller, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Waller, 1040 North Hill avenue, explained last night how it had all happened. Not long ago he was a patient, a "walking case," in the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington. He plays the piano by ear, but prefers what is called good music by those who like it. One day, however, he was playing the "Home Again Blues," at request, when two ladies entered the recreation room. Sergt. Waller deftly switched from the Blues to the Baracolle from the "Love Tales of Hoffman." When he had finished, the elder of the ladies said:

"The President would enjoy your playing. That is his favorite piece. Won't you come in at the White House some day and play for my husband?"

Sergt. Waller said he would be delighted.

"We had to wait for the President a little," Sergt. Waller said last night. "In the meantime Mrs. Harding chatted with me. With her was the woman I had seen in the hospital, Miss Harlan, her secretary. Well, finally the President came in. I felt at home right away. They are everyday folks.

"The President asked me to play the Barcarolle and I did. Then he asked for the 'Evening Star' from 'Tannhauser,' and I played that. Next he wanted Shubert's Serenade, and he got it."

Then Mr. Harding was so pleased he wanted to sing, and so all gathered about the piano, Mrs. Harding, Miss Harlan, the President and the soldier pianist made the quartet. Mr. Waller sang tenor and the President, whose voice Mr. Waller said, is baritone, faked a bass. They sang "Just a Song at Twilight," "Annita," "Oh, Genevieve" and finished up with two hymns, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Thy Will Be Done." These latter, Mr. Harding explained, were President McKinley's favorites and are his favorites, too.

Laddie Boy, the White House Airedale terrier, was present and would have joined in the chorus except that Mr. Harding was there. Mr. Waller says the President had a little whip with him and that Laddie is the best behaved dog he ever saw.

Body of Mayor's Son to be Sent Here for Burial.

Mayor Snyder received word yesterday from the War Department that, in accordance with the Mayor's request, orders had been given to ship the body of Capt. Ross Snyder, the Mayor's son who was killed in action in France, to Los Angeles for burial. The Mayor's son was buried in an American soldiers' graveyard in France, following his death at Surgey, near Chateau Thierry. The War Department officials stated as soon as the body arrives in the United States notification will be sent here by telegraph so that arrangements for the funeral can be made. Capt. Snyder, who commanded Co. M of the Forty-seventh Infantry, was killed on July 31, 1918.

CONTRACTS FOR TWO SCHOOLS GIVEN OUT.

Architectural contracts were awarded last night by the Board of Education for two elementary schools. A ten-room addition will be built on the Custer-avenue school site at Custer avenue and Temple street, to cost not more than $80,000; Elmer Gray, architect. Edelman and Barnett were given the contract for preparing plans for a ten-room addition to the Fifty-second-street school, 817 West Fifty-second street, to cost not more than $80,000. This last is in lieu of the Sixty-eighth-street school.

NEW COMET

Belittled by Comparison.

Stupendous as astronomical figures are, yet things close at home are even more wonderful. For instance, while the Pons-Winnecke comet travels 2,000,000 miles a day, it would take it more than twelve days to go the distance represented by a single year's issue of Times want ads.

A line of want ads measures approximately two inches and in an average issue of The Times is printed more than 100,000 times. If such a line were cut out of each copy of The Times in a single day's issue and pasted end to end there would result a ribbon of printing more than three miles long. During 1920 The Times published 7,776,000 lines of want ads, each two inches wide, each reproduced more than 100,000 times, making a type line 1,555,304,800,000 inches in length. Reduced to miles, it would extend 24,000,000 miles into the stellar depths, marking a path which the Pons-Winnecke comet would need nearly two weeks to travel.

The man who pays 34 cents for a two-line want ad in The Times gets a total type line over six miles long—a value so great as to rank with conceptions of space and eternity.

WILL :: TELL :: OF :: DANGERS.

Woman Says She Shot in Self-Defense.

Mrs. Lulu McBride and Her Husband, Ernest McBride.

WHEN Mrs. Lulu McBride comes to trial for the murder of her stepfather, Charles Edwards Everts, she will plead self-defense, it was disclosed yesterday while she was being arraigned before Justice Hanby. As a means of proving self-defense, it was understood that testimony would be presented to show that on three occasions the deceased attempted to enter Mrs. McBride's home at 623 Agatha street, where the shooting occurred, and several times was warned by her husband, Ernest McBride, and her two brothers-in-law, to stay away from the house.

It is also declared by counsel for Mrs. McBride that the widow of Mr. Everts had purchased the revolver with which the shooting was done, in order that Mrs. McBride might protect herself. The defense asserts that for five months Mr. Everts tried to enter the McBride home, but was told not to do so unless Mr. McBride or Mrs. Everts were present.

Mrs. McBride has maintained the same calm she possessed when arrested. Her hearing was set for the 24th inst., when it was stated the facts relating to the life of Everts will be gone into to strengthen the self-defense theory. S. W. Thompson appeared as defense attorney.

NEW YORK, May 16.—Changes in the transcontinental tour of Mme. Marie Curie, following her presentation at the White House with the gram of radium offered by American women, were made today through her desire to visit the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

After her trip through the canyon she will visit Los Angeles, June 7; Pasadena, June 8, and will return by way of Los Angeles to Chicago. She will then journey East, sailing for home June 25.

Mme. Curie's hand has been shaken by so many admirers that she is now carrying it bandaged.

CHOSEN CITY PLANNER.

O. A. Vickrey, former president of the Los Angeles Realty Board, was yesterday appointed a member of the City Planning Cammission by the City Council.

NEW CHARGES IN SOUTHARD CASE COMING.

Four Murder Complaints to be Issued, Says Woman With Extradition Papers.

Four new complaints will be issued, each charging murder, against Mrs. Lyda Trueblood Southard, according to Mrs. V. H. Ormsby, who arrived at San Francisco yesterday from Twin Falls, Idaho, with papers for Mrs. Southard's extradition from Honolulu.

Mrs. Ormsby, who is matron of the Twin Falls County Jail, explained the extradition would be based on the charge for which Mrs. Southard was arrested, the murder of her fourth husband. In addition there is evidence that the brother of one husband and a child of the first marriage, died of the poison that killed the four husbands.

Mrs. Ormsby and her husband, a deputy sheriff of Twin Falls, will leave on the Matsonia, due to sail Wednesday. Mr. Ormsby said if necessary he would send by cable formal charges against Mrs. Southard. This would prevent her release after the legal limit under which a person may be held on advices by wire before a legal charge is made. Mrs. Southard, however, has made no effort to take advantage of this right.

A dispatch yesterday from Twin Falls quoted Mrs. W. J. Trueblood, Mrs. Southard's mother, as saying:

"If she is guilty not all the money we have or could raise would save her, and if she is guilty of all that is charged against her she should be punished."

William J. Trueblood, Idaho farmer of 57 years, and his wife, five years his junior, occupy a little farm seven miles southwest of Twin Falls. Mrs. Trueblood spoke for the couple.

"This is hard for a mother to say," she added, "but I am sure our decision must be the right one. We have hoped and believed all along that Lyda is innocent."

Mr. and Mrs. Trueblood have known of the suspicions against their daughter since the death of Edward Meyers, the fourth husband, and the inquiry that showed all four husbands had died of poisoning. The father visited Los Angeles in vain quest of his daughter about the time of her marriage to a fifth husband, Vincent Paul Southard, a chief petty officer of the Navy.

"We heard from Lyda only once after she left here following Meyers's funeral last September," said Mrs. Trueblood. "That was a telegram telling us she had arrived in California. She had written to us frequently whenever she had been away from home before."

Lyda Trueblood was one of eight children, who range in age from 7 to 33 years. She was christened Ann Eliza, her mother explained yesterday, but has been known as Lyda. She is the third child and the second daughter. Her age is 28, and not 27, as originally reported.

PICKPOCKET GETS FAT ROLL.

Norman A. Hoganson, a guest at the Alhambra Hotel on North Broadway, reported to the police last night that a pickpocket had robbed him of his purse on a downtown street car some time yesterday. The purse contained $100 in currency and some valuable warehouse receipts on Detroit business houses, he said.

TO BRING JOY TO ORPHANS

More Automobiles Needed to Take Them to "Times" Party Saturday.

THEATER PARTY EDITOR, LOS ANGELES "TIMES":

I will furnish automobile and driver to help carry children to the Mission Theater, Ninth and Broadway, Saturday morning, May 21, at 9 o'clock and back to their homes at 11 o'clock.

Name .....

Address .....

Not even the announcement that a schoolmaster will be present dampened the enthusiasm of the children who will be guests of honor at the theater party to be given by The Times next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the Mission Theater. Anyway, Charlie Murray isn't the joy-chasing, frowning type of schoolmaster. He will be there dressed up as the funniest schoolmaster that ever went to a party, and he will help the children to enjoy the film plays by reading the subtitles to them.

Mary Pickford in "Through the Back Door" acts the part of a little girl. She has a lot of fun in the play, and also encounters some real hard luck, so the audience of children will feel like laughing with her some of the time and weeping with her at other times.

"Home Talent" is one of the funniest pictures made by the Mack Sennett Company. Its presentation next Saturday will be unique because its principal players, Charlie Murray, Ben Turpin and Phyllis Haver, will be there in person, so they can step right out of the screen and talk to the children, as well as be seen in the play.

C. Sharpe Minor, who plays the big organ just as easily as if it were a little one, hasn't decided yet what to play in addition to Mother Goose melodies until he hears from some of the children who are going to be there so he can find out what they would like. The Broadway Department Store will give a little present to every one of the children, something for the boys as well as for the girls.

The only thing needed now to make the party 100 per cent happy and joyous is for more people to volunteer the use of their automobiles to take the children to the Mission Theater and back again to their homes. All those who are willing to help bring a little happiness into the lives of bereft children should fill out the coupon printed in this issue and send it in promptly to the theater party editor of The Times. All such volunteers will be notified Friday where to go and at what hour.

Nearly 1000 children have been invited, and every one has accepted. They come from various homes and institutions, and most of them are orphans. Many of them have never before had the opportunity to attend a party, and all of them have been deprived in large measure of childish pleasures and comforts.

BOUNTY FOR MAIL YEGGS.

Postoffice clerks, mailmen and special delivery boys were overjoyed yesterday upon receipt of the spring of 1921 game schedule. The prices to be paid for dead or alive captures are considered more than generous. The Postoffice Department official announcement stated the rates as follows:

Ordinary postal thieves will range from $50 to $100, according to quality. A "star route" thief may come as low as $25 or as high as $200. The government will pay from $50 to $200 for postoffice burglars, which, however, should not be too badly damaged. Those found guilty or caught in the act of accessory to theft will come at $50, as a minimum, or $300 as a maximum. Bonafide mail robbers of the Johnny Yegg type will bring $5000 each, regardless of damaged condition or previous condition of servitude.

Postal employees have been complaining that the war didn't increase their pay, but did their living costs, and some consider it likely that the government is seeking to aid them by making more than liberal allowances for bravery in the field.

The Postoffice Department very recently supplied all clerks with nice revolvers and shotguns, and a generous supply of .45 and buckshot ammunition, and it is believed the rewards announced yesterday are in the way of a stimulus to duty.

Only one difficulty is anticipated. So valorous are all arms of the service that it is considered probable that the first thief who sticks his head into a postoffice will be removed from the premises by a broadside, which might make difficult equitable division of the reward moneys.

Yale Resumes Super-Express Run to North.

The steamer Yale, with complete crew and more than 100 passengers, sailed from Los Angeles Harbor exactly on schedule time at 3 p.m. yesterday, bearing out the prediction of Manager A. J. Frey of the Los Angeles Steamship Company and discrediting rumors to the contrary. The Yale is due in San Francisco this morning and scheduled back here tomorrow morning.

DOROTHY DIX TALKS

BY DOROTHY DIX.

A correspondent writes:

"Do you think a man appreciates his wife more if she was hard to win than he does if she did the wooing?"

Surely. The more difficult a thing is to get, the more we esteem it. It is one of the cardinal principles of human nature that we set little value on things that come to us easily, and it is only that for which we have toiled and agonized and striven that we prize.

It is the peach that hangs highest on the tree that allures us, not the overripe one that is ready to drop into our mouths. If diamonds were the same price as soft coal and we could buy them by the ton we should never think of setting them in a ring or adorning our necks with strings of carbon.

People who are born with a full pocketbook in their mouths, so to speak, are nearly always wasters and spenders. They do not know how hard it is to earn a dollar, and so they do not value it. It takes the men and women who have worked and pinched and scrimched, who have gone hungry and shabby to rake together, one by one, the pennies in their savings accounts to know how to appreciate money.

So it is with everything in the world. Easy come, easy go, seems to be the universal ruling. The more a thing costs us, the more we value it, and the more carefully we cherish it. It's the price-tags have written with our blood and sweat before which we knock our foreheads on the ground in reverence.

This is as true in matters of affection as it is in material things. You see it exemplified every day in family relationships. The children who have had adoring and self-sacrificing mothers, take their mother's affection for granted. They are not grateful for the ceaseless care that broods over them, for the labor that ministers to their every want, for the sympathy that never fails them.

It takes some poor little homeless chap, who has never had a mother to tuck him into bed, or a mother's breast to weep out his sorrows on, or a mother's cookies to eat, to thrill at the touch of a woman's hand, and to follow like a lost puppy any woman who will show any motherliness to him.

Men so almost universally prize love in proportion to the difficulty of winning it, that it may almost be said that the average man never wants the woman who wants him, that that the more a woman cares for him, the less he cares for her. Of course, this is a little exaggeration of the situation, but it is a fact that nothing makes a woman so desirable to a man, either before or after marriage, as for him to be never quite certain whether he has caught her or not.

This is why the women who want to marry, and who are frankly and boldly out on a husband hunt, nearly all die old maids. Once let a man realize that a woman desires him for a mate, and is determined to have him, and it's all off with him. The woman may be pretty, and attractive, and intelligent, but the mere fact that she is pursuing him, instead of him pursuing her, puts him on the defensive and makes him use every ruse to escape her.

Everywhere you see girls who never have any beaux, who have never had any attention from men, whose only lack of charm is that they want the attentions of men too much. Their mothers scheme for them too openly, and try to bribe men to come to see them, and take them about feeding them and automobiling them, and the girls themselves are too pleased, and too grateful when men notice them.

Their trouble is that they are too willing. They are not difficult enough. Any man knows that he can have one of them whenever he asks for her, with a nice chrome from papa thrown in, so he never asks. Men are the artful dodgers, and when a woman throws herself at one's head, he nearly always sidesteps her.

Nothing queers a girl's chance of getting a man so quickly as letting him see that she wants him. It is to be remembered that our grandmothers always played coy, and reluctant, and always told the suitor when he proposed that they were so surprised, and had never thought of such a thing. It is also worth bearing in mind that there were few spinsters in those days, and that the tactics of our ancestresses in handling men have never been improved upon.

And just as the man is most anxious to marry the woman who is least anxious to marry him, so is the man most anxious to please the wife who takes the least trouble to please him. Of course, men will rise with one voice and denounce this statement, but every woman knows that it is true.

Theoretically, the most cherished wife should be the woman who works her fingers to the bone to make her husband comfortable; who is meek, and patient, and forbearing, and thrifty, and saving, and who spends her days in adoration of the god-like creature to whom she is united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Practically nobody ever saw a woman who made a doormat of herself, who didn't get trodden upon and kicked about. The woman who is queen of her husband's heart, and who keeps him a lover to the end of the chapter, is the astute dame who demands much of him, who is hard to please, and who keeps herself looking so desirable that he doesn't see why some other man mightn't want her. So he keeps wanting her himself.

The French have a proverb that says that in love one kisses, and permits oneself to be kissed. If a woman desires to be the kissee, she must never be the kisser.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Mercenary Motives.

GLENDALE, May 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I have sent the following letter to the American Legion:

Do you realize that in stopping the German film at a local theater Saturday that you were only acting as a tool for the lounge lizards at Hollywood? The fact of it being German was not what bothered them. If it had been English, French or Italian they would have been just as bitter against it.

Do you remember before the war, when we used to see good pictures for 10, 15 or 20 cents? In those days the actors got reasonable salaries and it did not cost the companies a small fortune to get out a picture. Nowadays these stars demand tremendous salaries, and of course you and I have to pay three or four times as much as formerly to see a picture. Just think of it, some of these powder and paint girls and simple-minded man who have practically no education at all receive more salary than our President, Governor or college professors. Ye gods! Just because they have a pretty face or figure, or photograph well. They sit back in luxury with their lap dogs and high-powered automobiles, while our poor wounded soldiers have to beg for a living.

Just imagine, one of our cowboy actors paid $9000 for an imported wrist watch last Christmas. He could have bought an American watch for about $100 and given the other $8900 to our wounded soldiers. But the movie actors were not thinking about our soldiers then. Now, when they begin to have competition from abroad and they are afraid that they will have to work for a living they rush to the American Legion and raise the cry "Pro-German!"

But, boys, the handwriting is on the wall. Other big foreign films are coming, some from Italy and England, and also the big French film, "J'Accuse." Watch out that they don't try to slip something over on you again. They won't be able to call them "Pro-German," but the lizards will try to work on your passions some way to get you to boycott the films.

Here's hoping that we get more foreign films. It will bring these stars to their senses and give us a chance to see a film at the good old price. ROGER MONTGOMERY.

Gives Him the Chills.

LOS ANGELES, May 12.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I noted with a chill-fear the article on the editorial page of The Times on the 11th inst. in which you take to task Mr. Upton Sinclair for his criticism of The Times and other Los Angeles newspapers, he falsely asserting, as you take due pains to show, his candidacy in the recent primary elections had been ignored. It was with a sense of nausea that I learned—for I had not read the political news closely—that Mr. Sinclair was running for public office at all.

I say, I felt a chill-fear. I have come to view public intelligence with such unspeakable disdain that I have reached a depth of despondency where I am not unable to fancy Mr. Sinclair elected by some accident or other. It is not that it is Mr. Upton Sinclair of Pasadena, fancy-free novelist, muckraker and Bolshevik, but that this personage files all that is nasty in the peculiarly nasty social arrangement of the present day. He is the essence of toying parlor radicalism, weak-tea anarchism and pesvish, meddling unmanliness generally. He and his social species represent no contact with the realities of life. They have contributed nothing, nor even torn down constructively. They are destructive drones, vampires of public confidence to me, unutterably loathsome.

Mr. Sinclair has essayed to write a book attacking the press. I have not read the book, nor do I know anything about the workings of an American newspaper. But assuming the newspapers have all the faults Mr. Sinclair charges, I cannot but fall to rally to their defense, not because I have any faith in their innocence but because Mr. Upton Sinclair accuses them. I believe he has done the press a great service as far as discerning people go, but how far his extract of sour grapes has been stomached by the generality I hesitate to say.

If I should ever engage in a public controversy (which God forbid) I could think of no more suitable ally than Mr. Sinclair as my adversary. I cannot congratulate you on your article of the 11th inst. because I fear that by giving him the lie, supported by proper proofs, you have afforded him that degree of satisfaction a cur experiences at being kicked by his master.

JOHN McGREAGOR.

The Rancher's Side.

LOS ANGELES, May 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] As president of one of the orange exchanges, I would like very much to correct Mr. E. R. White in his letter in The Times issue of May 5, entitled "Not the Railroads." I do not know where he could have received such information of cost of shipment of oranges and lemons to New York for 3 cents per dozen, but he missed it a mile. He shut both eyes. Getting down to facts, it costs $5 per box to land a box of oranges in New York, not taking into consideration the cost of producing the box of oranges. Now take an average box of oranges that will pack 150 per box, that would equal twelve and a half dozen. At $5 per box divided by twelve and a half dozen would make 24 cents per dozen, which represents the cost from the orchard to New York and the railroads take from $1.75 to $1.95 per box.

Then he takes a whack at the "poor" railroads. Poor, yes, because they are in the grip of the labor unions who are still drawing down their war-time salaries, and who are doomed to be pulled from their throne if they have not the good judgment to come down voluntarily. And the next whack is that oranges are a luxury. Apparently they are, but they were put here for a purpose, and that appears to be a regulator of the human system.

When hot weather comes you have got to eat oranges, apples or some other fruit of that class.

The laws of human nature compel you to do so, or take pills from a doctor. Perhaps Mr. White can figure the latter to be the cheapest, as apples and other fruits are also handicapped by the railroad freights. Therefore, for the good of the country at large, the railroad employees must permit their salaries to be reduced so the railroads can reduce the rates so the people can eat.

OSBURN BURKE.

Signs of the Times.

INGLEWOOD, May 14.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Your editorial, "Coercion or Liberty," is one of best, or rather the best, most sane and logical deduction of our present conditions that I have ever had the pleasure of reading.

It should be printed in pamphlet form and mailed to every schoolteacher and preacher or "would-be" preacher in the United States of America.

When I was a young man attending a well-known military academy, I listened to a sermon by Henry Ward Beecher, His text was: "Cannot you discern the sign of the times?"

It would be a good thing if long noses, long hairs and the flat chests could be induced to stop for a moment—and "discern the sign of the times"—or, at least, read some of The Times' editorials.

There are millions of our loyal Americans, who are now wandering close to the line of anarchy. There is a reason."

They Were Very Observing Even in The Days of 1875

Human Nature Is Pretty Much the Same Year In and Year Out, Judging by What We See Today and Read in the Papers of '75

—They didn't have funny pictures 46 years ago, but they did have humorists, and they recorded many funny things that they saw on the streets of those days! From the Express we quote:

—"Yesterday we witnessed a very amusing scene near Dr. Franklin's office. A very pretty young lady with a very neat ankle, was coming across Spring street with her skirts slightly raised to keep them out of the recently sprinkled street. A gentleman who was walking on the west side of the thoroughfare was so absorbed in admiration that he failed to notice that he had got out of a right line. The first intimation to that effect was his coming slap-bang against a post, rubbing the skin off his nose and nearly landing himself on the back of his head. Next time he must not be so absorbed, however attractive the demoiselle."

—In this day of short skirts Sir 1921 probably wouldn't have given a second look at what brought disaster to the '75er, but he is not slow to observe other things, among which are the worthwhile offerings in this Anniversary!

—We wonder how many stores today can boast with us that their business for May, 1921, is 60 per cent ahead of May, 1920. It seems as though all Los Angeles has observed our phenomenal growth and is talking about it!

ON THE BEACH.

They are going to censor moving pictures and bathing suits in Long Beach. People who visit cafeterias in negligee must keep their bath robes buttoned during the meal. Since Commissioner Peek took charge of the morals of the beach they call it Peekaboo town.

THE COMMUNITY CHEST.

The city of Indianapolis has raised a community chest of half a million dollars which is to take the place of all local charity drives and be administered by a municipal board. This simplifies charity and takes off a lot of overhead, but it puts out of commission a number of people who don't seem able to do anything except in the name of charity, but mistake it for notoriety. There are many good points to the community-chest idea, but there is doubt about it finding general favor. It destroys some of the joy of giving.

ALSO A CROOK.

Big Bill Haywood is supposed to have forfeited his $15,000 bail and fled to Russia to avoid serving a sentence in prison for traitorous words and acts. Ordinarily that would make him a hero with his class. But it now appears that his accounts as treasurer of the I.W.W. are $35,000 short and he is merely a common embezzler of the funds of his fellows. He lived a life of ease and glory at the expense of his organization and now, having milked it dry, he flees the country to become a leader and grafter on the Russian soviets. The I.W.W. will remember Bill as their $50,000 beauty. But as he dare not return to America the country is still the better off.

MAKING THE DOUGH.

Men who furnish the equipment for our doughnut foundries are advertising the fact that at 40 cents a dozen there is 400 per cent profit in these palate ticklers. The air for the hole in the doughnut is always free and by starting the doughnut with a massive cavity a profit seems assured from the jump. Space in a newspaper is valuable, but space in the middle of a doughnut is not supposed to be important. But what became of the financier who wished to clear 300 per cent profit by making the holes in the doughnuts twice the usual size? Is he in Pelton or Wall street? It is very evident that the people who make doughnuts are making the dough. Possibly it is because they knead it to start with.

PIECEWORK AND PRODUCTION.

Under government operation and the abolition of piecework in the Union Pacific wheel shop at Omaha the output was reduced 24 per cent, while the time taken to perform the same work was increased 319 per cent. No business can live and thrive upon those terms. If all industry were placed upon a piecework basis and without extra pay for overtime there would be no wrangling for shorter hours and fewer disputes over wages. Production and volume of work would also be enlarged. No just objection could be made. No man can rightfully protest against a wage scale which pays him for work actually performed. It is not for the time, but for the task, that the workman is hired. Industrial America will be saved and assured when placed squarely upon a piecework basis, with bonuses for efficiency, fidelity, service and production. When a man is simply paid $50 a week for his time, with no understanding as to production, there is bound to be a shirking. The man will want a shorter week and will not produce the results that are shown under a piecework plan.

IN FAR SEAS.

Far away, in Turkish waters, is a United States naval detachment. California boys are doubtless among the members of the crew. The commander is Rear-Admiral Bristol and his flagship is the U.S.S. Pittsburg. One should not forget these Americans. Their presence over there denotes that the United States is among those who have shouldered the white man's burden in the Immemorial East. Our bluejackets are making an impress on Constantinople. Of course, they have initiated the mixed races over there into the mysteries of baseball. They have a diamond which is alive with men from the ships every afternoon and naturally they have American movies. A newspaper called "The Far East" records the activities of the detachment and from it one gathers that there is a bit of America on Turkish soil. The navy lads find some queer things in Constantinople. Goats riding on street cars, caravans of camels parading down the main street and a city of 2,000,000 with no gas are among some of the curiosities reported by the editor of the newspaper. One learns also that the United States warships have done noble work in saving thousands of refugees from Russia, many of whom must have died had there not been succor available under the Stars and Stripes. Rear-Admiral Bristol, who is also the United States High Commissioner of Turkey, recently made a cruise to Egypt, Palestine and Syrian ports. Thus many of the natives for the first time saw an American warship. Many must have gazed with longing eyes at the flag which means so much to millions. Numbers of them would dearly love to exchange the star and crescent for Old Glory.

POLITICAL RISK IN FOREIGN TRADE.

At its recent annual session the Chamber of Commerce of the United States passed a resolution recommending that the Federal government organize a Political Trade Risk insurance bureau. It was the sense of the convention that the political risk is a highly important factor in foreign trade with European countries, one that the individual exporter cannot afford to carry, and that the government could conduct it better than a private association, because the political risk depends upon the stability of the government of states.

Prior to 1914 the political hazard was not a factor in foreign trade. All the governments of Europe were stable and the risk of revolution was negligible, while that of Communistic confiscation did not exist. An exporter who intrusted his goods to a European agent or client did not run the risk of having them seized by some revolutionary party or confiscated by Communistic groups or governments.

Radicalism has enormously increased the hazard of foreign trade. Revolutions, insurrections and government confiscation have become of common occurrence. The risk of pillage during the last two years has been vastly greater than was the war risk when the German submarine campaign was at its height. Lesser states in Central Europe have been begging for supplies from this country on credit. Scores of exporters took a chance and lost their shipments through revolution or pillage. There are countries in which this risk is now rated as high as 20 per cent.

American exporters will now ship to those countries only on condition that the premium on the political risk shall be paid by those who receive the goods, and they, in turn, pass it on to the ultimate consumer. Such is the price that the starving but turbulent peoples of Central Europe must pay for their political folly. They are learning to their sorrow that confiscation is a very shortsighted policy. They are beginning to discover that pillage does not cease to be theft when it is committed by virtue of some Socialistic or Communistic pronunciamento.

Political revolutions are fatal to economic stability, although peoples often attempt them under the delusion that they will remedy onerous economic conditions. Economic security is always greatest in countries where the political institutions, regardless of the form of government, are the most stable. Millions are suffering extreme want in Europe, while the stores of which they are so badly in need are depreciating in American warehouses, and the political hazard is one of the factors that prevent shipments.

The world is beginning to understand that Socialism is a malady, rather than a theory; and the experience of the last seven years has demonstrated that anarchy is simply applied Socialism. Wherever Socialistic theories have been embraced anarchy has followed. Revolutions have been brought about in almost every instance by a revolt of the working classes, generally fomented through the trade unions; and every one of those revolutions has added to the misery of the classes of the population dependent upon their labor for their sustenance.

While a temporary stability has been restored in most of the countries of Central Europe, they all contain groups still clamoring for Communism, and economic risk has not been materially lessened. The peoples pay the price of their insanity in the scarcity of the necessities of life and the increased cost of living. The American exporter must calculate the political risk in fixing the selling price of his goods, and the foolish and needy Middle-European populations are thus made victims of their own false ideas.

The Times seriously questions, however, whether the Federal government should be drawn into creating a department to handle political insurance. We have too many governmental departments now, and the policy of placing political insurance in the hands of politicians is not appealing. Creating new departments that drag the government into industry is not a good way to keep the government out of business.

It has become a pernicious practice in this country to pass every knotty question in trade or industry up to the government. At the first alarming symptom the state is called in, as though it were the family physician, despite the fact that the quacks in the average government greatly outnumber those in the medical profession. The result is invariably to be found in a higher cost of government and an increased cost of living.

Undoubtedly the political risk in European trade is one that must be reckoned with. It will continue to be a menace until the last sparks of Bolshevism and Communism are stamped out; but we are of the opinion that it is a risk which should be carried by some kind of foreign trade clearinghouse, rather than by the Federal government. It will avail little to force the government out of business through one door if it is to be dragged back through another.

TRANSMUTATION OF SEX.

A member of the French Academy of Science having successfully transformed a male frog into a lady specimen talks of the possibility of changing the sex of human beings at will. The patient is starved to a point of inanition and then, after a slight operation with a can opener or some other surgical instrument, the body is built up under a laboratory process of feeding that develops the attitude of the other sex. A coarse male person might by this process be transformed into a perfect lady with a penchant for embroidery and auction bridge. This seems like a fine business. We can make a peach of a moving picture out of it, anyhow. There might be some suffragette on a hunger strike and when she was at the point of collapse the doctor would drop in with his tweezers and his formula and build her up into a regular Bull Montana. Or somebody might kidnap the King of Sardinia and, after starving him for a few weeks, turn him into a chorus girl, who wins back the throne by fascinating the usurper. As a matter of fact, the playwright is apt to do a bigger business in the matter of switching sexes than is the scientist.

THE SMITH-TOWNER FEDERAL EDUCATION BILL.

With an assurance born of ignorance of actual conditions, we have rather prided ourselves that America, educationally speaking, is in the forefront of the nations. It is therefore rather disquieting to learn that in literacy the United States occupies ninth place, with most of the civilized world ahead of us. The Congressional Committee on Education makes the startling statement in a recent report that 10 per cent of the adult population of this nation are illiterate; that is, cannot read or write in any language. The report continues:

Our alarming condition was graphically disclosed by the examination of the draft registrants during the late war. The Surgeon-General's report showed that of the men called to the service between the ages of 21 and 31 nearly 25 per cent were practically illiterate. The nation's defense is thus doubly impaired. First, because one-fourth of the sons of America called to serve are incapacitated for efficient service by being so ignorant and illiterate that they cannot even understand the orders given to them; and, second, because in a free country its safety is jeopardized when its voters cannot read the ballots they cast and only know how to vote as they are told.

The economic loss is tremendous. Secretary Lane estimated the annual loss to the nation because of illiteracy alone at $825,000,000. The Director of the Bureau of Mines states that of 1,000,000 men engaged in mining in the United States 620,000 are foreigners and that 460,000 of them cannot speak English. He states that the removal of illiteracy among the miners would save annually 1000 lives and 150,000 injuries. Investigation has shown that one-half the industrial accidents are the result of ignorance, because the workers cannot read the danger warnings or understand the orders given.

To meet this serious condition there has been introduced into the present Congress a measure known as the Smith-Towner Federal education bill. It provides for the establishment of a Department of Education with a Secretary in the President's Cabinet. It shall be the duty of the department to undertake investigations regarding illiteracy, education of immigrants, public-school education, especially rural education, physical education, preparation of teachers for the public schools and such other matters as, in the opinion of the Secretary, may require attention and study.

Adequate appropriation must be made to establish the department and enable it to carry on its work effectively, and it is provided in the bill that 15 per cent of such appropriations shall be devoted to the training of teachers, 20 per cent for physical education, health and sanitation, 7½ per cent for the Americanization of foreigners, an equal amount for the removal of illiteracy and 50 per cent for the partial payment of teachers' salaries, the promotion of general education, especially rural education, and the equalization of educational opportunities.

The cry for retrenchment and economy in governmental expenditures is general and insistent and this demand is so imperative that all measures calling for large appropriations should be closely scrutinized.

At present the educational activities of the government are scattered in thirty or more parts of the government service. The Smith-Towner bill would combine and coordinate these many bureaus, which would result in considerable saving.

The fear on the part of some sincere citizens that such a department would arbitrarily invade the States and assume more or less control of educational matters is not well founded. The bill specifically guards against this danger by a provision that reads:

> All the educational facilities encouraged by the provisions of this act and accepted by a State shall be organized, supervised and administered exclusively by the legally constituted State and local educational authorities of said State.

Appropriations will be allotted to the States accepting the provisions of the act according to the proportion of illiteracy, school population, alien immigrant population and number of teachers.

The National Education Association, the largest and most influential body of educators in the country, is warmly supporting the Smith-Towner bill, although for many years it has maintained a consistent attitude of opposition to all efforts to centralize education.

In recent years the Federal government has come into our States and taken from them their most fruitful sources of revenue, while leaving them the most expensive functions of government. Under the terms of this bill Federal revenues will be available to the States for educational expenditures.

Education is no longer simply a State affair. It is a national problem and can be met successfully only from a Federal approach. Here again the report of the Congressional Committee on Education presents some significant facts:

> It has been said that illiteracy is a southern problem. The facts do not warrant that conclusion. Georgia has 289,000 illiterates, but New York has 406,000, Alabama has 352,000, while Pennsylvania has 354,000. Louisiana has 352,000, Mississippi has 290,000 and Texas has 282,000, but Illinois has 168,000, Ohio has 124,000 and New Jersey 113,000. Even Massachusetts has 141,000 and undertakes to partially solve her illiteracy problem by depriving them of the right to vote.
> It is thought by many that illiteracy is a race question. But it is more than that. There are over 1,000,000 more white illiterates in the United States than illiterate negroes.

Recent history proves that ignorance and superstition in Alabama or Maine imperil popular government in Southern California. We are one nation, not a mere combination of States, and the integrity of our institutions rests upon the intelligence and conscientiousness of the entire people.

When the Smith-Towner bill was introduced into the last Congress it contained some provisions that brought question and criticism from certain quarters during the hearings before the Committee on Education. Some of these sections were eliminated and are not incorporated in the bill now pending before the Congress. The removal of the objectionable features greatly strengthened the support of the bill.

No other legislation now before Congress has awakened such a nation-wide interest. On Monday morning The Times printed numerous excerpts from sermons delivered by local clergymen indorsing the Smith-Towner bill and urging their congregations to write to President Harding and to our California Senators and Congressmen requesting them to vote for the bill. The unanimity of approval by the ministers, including orthodox and liberal, Christian and Jewish, is a convincing proof that, no matter how divided they may be in theology, they unite in loyalty to the public school system as the bulwark of republican institutions.

Eighty years ago Theodore Parker declared that "the common school is the cradle of America's greatness." When we match this axiom with the recent statement of H. G. Wells that "human history becomes more and more a race between education and catastrophe" we understand the reason for the intense enthusiasm aroused for the Smith-Towner bill among educators and publicists.

A Department of Education with a Secretary in the President's Cabinet and adequate appropriations for the development of popular education would give our public school system support and prestige. THE ONLY QUESTION IS, WHERE IS THE MONEY COMING FROM?

COMMENTS BY DR. CADMAN.

"What we want is a real melting pot and not a garbage can," said the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman last night at the Central Y.M.C.A., in reply to a question as to whether he thought immigration should be limited. "I do believe in selective immigration. Capitalists should not be allowed to exploit labor," he said.

"What do you think about Harvey?" he was asked.

"He is a clever editor. He unmade and made a President. But I would not have given him the Ambassadorship to the Court of St. James in payment of a political debt," was the reply.

Dr. Cadman dismissed a question regarding former Gov. Whitman, saying, "I'd rather not tell what I think of him. Let the dead rest in peace."—[Brooklyn Eagle.

PROTECTING MASCULINE MODESTY.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

When the Literary Digest devotes two issues mainly to feminine clothes and manners, this is obviously a vital national question. It appears that pretty nearly every newspaper, magazine, college professor and clergyman holds pronounced views on the subject and the majority of 'em are against us. What our styles are doing to the morality of the country is simply appalling. The men positively cannot be expected to maintain any sort of standards of self-control so long as they can gaze upon ten inches of female leg, six inches of female chest and twelve inches of female arm.

But it is patent that we women are enjoying our sartorial emancipation. Even for the sake of masculine decorum, we can't find it in our hearts to go back to three petticoats and lengthy flapping skirts, to tight bodices and chokey necks. Even our nicest Mrs. Grundys of unimpeachable character are allowing themselves quite a comfortable latitude and feel that one meager petticoat and an extra inch on the fashions fills the bill. They are all showing SOME leg and SOME neck, with a marked leaning towards georgette crepe in sleeves.

So obviously gallant masculinity, no matter what its moral trials, would not wish to victimize the whole sex for the sake of their doubtful salvation. They, being the stronger and nobler sex, can surely be relied upon to heroically meet the embarrassing conditions with that resourcefulness for which they have ever been famous.

For instance, they met the sensitive palpitations of the shy and timid horse with blinkers. Why not blinkers and blue goggles for men? What the eye doth not see the heart doth not grieve. Nobody dreamt of eliminating and confining all the other traffic on the streets just because horses were oversusceptible. Certainly not. It was the susceptible horse that carried its own remedy. And a pretty good remedy, too.

Or why not a new and evidently much-needed vogue of chaperons for men? If we are to believe the old-timers, chaperons were most effective in the protection of artless femininity in the days when the male of the species was the wicked lure and all the modesty was centered in woman.

In those dark and dreadful days when men were the baneful menace and no nice girl dared go out on the street alone, did they muzzle and shackle the men? They did not. It was accepted as man's natural right to be a menace, and the enemy was defeated with proper guards. Masculinity itself undertook the protection of its own womankind—and incidentally gained quite a little eclat out of the attitude.

Very well, then. The obvious remedy for the present menace to masculine modesty and susceptibility is the assumption of protective duties by the women. No man should be allowed to sally forth alone without a woman escort who, knowing the naughty instincts of her sex, will prove highly capable. Or, in any case, when female escorts are unavailable, men should walk abroad in pairs, properly blinkered, and accept the responsibility for each other's good conduct, just as nice girls used to do. Not so long ago, smart restaurants insisted upon women having male escorts, and certainly no nice girl ever went to a ball unaccompanied, her partners dutifully returning her to her chaperon after each dance. It worked very well on the whole and there is no reason to believe that similar protection would not be adequate for these innocent, susceptible young men. The ladies might find the chaperonage a little irksome at first; but, since their political and social emancipation, they have never shirked any necessary duties for the uplift and salvation of man. Excepting perhaps that of retaining a monopoly of all the modesty.

For a good many years now Legislatures have been passing measures for the protection of women against their protectors. But they invariably took the form of sumptuary laws against the protected. Now therefore that the shoe is on the other foot, it only seems reasonable that like measures should be instituted for the protection of the male.

One of the most immoral times in history was when the gentlemen wore knee breeches and silk stockings and the ladies wore miles of clothes. Yet no one blamed the masculine leg. Yet, if clothes are so demoralizing, whatever the men wore during those eras of compulsory female chaperonage must have been altogether too dangerously seductive. But there was never any legislation against male apparel. Our weakness for the male sex was always regarded as within ourselves, the protection had always to be against our own tender susceptibilities. They could not help being alluring, dangerous Romeos, so the only remedy was to provide us with proper guards. And quite right, too.

But now we are assured the case is reversed. Juliet is the dangerous menace to the weak susceptibilities of Romeo. Voila. Romeo needs guardians and he ought to have them pronto. For, after all, this business of being a menace is rather attractive and it is our turn. We will gladly, individually, undertake the protection of Romeo against ourselves collectively—just as Romeo so gallantly (and inadequately) did in the eras of masculine wicked seductiveness. And when he gets into trouble we shall endeavor to be as magnanimous about it as we can, not forgetting to blame the relaxed vigilance of his chaperons, while duly punishing the sinner.

Oh, it is jolly to be a menace, boys, don't deny us this first triumphant flush of our emancipation.

Col. E. M. House is spoken of as the possible Ambassador to Germany when international affairs begin to function again. House is a Democrat. But so was Col. Harvey.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

BY SUSAN SNAPP.

If I could have two personalities I would choose Santa Claus for my running mate; no one else appeals to so many children as he does. Next to our Christmas saint good teachers do more for the child than any other class. In working with the child one connects with the past, the present and the future.

The school system reveals the ideal of a community more than any other single factor of its life. The citizens of this wonderful State have shown great appreciation of the value of a child, if one may judge from the amount of money and effort they have expended in maintaining and improving our public schools.

The true Californian is enthusiastic over many attributes which he claims for his beloved State; among these one may mention climate, first, foremost and always. Naturally there follow the products of so perfect a climate; birds, flowers, fruits, tropical verdure and natural scenery of mountain, plain and ocean; not overlooking the attractive bungalows, elegant residences and complete office buildings. Granting all these attractions, still a close observer of other cities finds the public-school system more complete and unusual than any of those factors yet mentioned.

There is so much reason for the boosting and boasting of the Californian that even a newcomer finds it easy to imagine himself a native son as he throws up his hat and shouts with the enthusiasm of an old-timer who deserves a share in the city's success. A newcomer is made so welcome he soon wishes to lend a hand, become a real part of the place and make his contribution to the public welfare of his new home.

As one reads the school law of the State he sees a breadth of view and a generous provision, which were the prevailing characteristics of the pioneer in this western country. With a rapidly growing population there should be a corresponding appropriation. It is natural for the school to become impatient at the slow process of the law, but this delay develops patience—a virtue we Americans are said to lack—and such delay tends to a stricter economy when the funds are finally available.

With the State back of it the school stands on a permanent foundation for present and future activities. With the evolution of the modern city the school has become associated with it at several points; as the medical and sanitary departments and especially the milk supply for babies. Please note that I say associated with, not connected with, for the city and school are not connected, but they increase their work by harmonious co-operation.

In some school districts there goes from the school into the home an experienced and wise worker whom I call "a school mother," though I doubt that is her title. She serves as a connecting link between the school, the home and the city. When there is a sick child he is cared for promptly and properly, not, as formerly, left to die while authority discussed its prerogatives and limitations. In no former time has the child had so much individual and scientific care. Today the entire child goes to school to be trained physically, manually, mentally, morally and spiritually. To develop the best possible individual into the best possible citizen is the object for which our public schools are established and maintained.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

HOURS OF SADNESS.

We all have hours of sadness, when we abandon mirth and talk about the badness of everything on earth. Perhaps the grub we swallow has made our innards ache, and we say life is hollow, a grim and ghastly fake. Perhaps some firm is busted whose stock we lately bought, and we are sore disgusted, discouraged and distraught. Perhaps the neighbor's Dorking has scratched our beans again and we, with language corking, denounce that active hen. But after eight hours' sleeping we're glad and gay once more, and have no use for weeping and think that grief's a bore. Unfortunate the mortal who rises from his couch and feels no wish to chortle, but airs a beastly grouch. Man's sorrow should be driven by slumber from his mind, for that's why sleep is given to weary humankind. A grouch is, in the gloaming, a common thing with us, for then tired men are combing their souls for things to cuss; their feet are full of thistles, their whiskers full of hay, and no one sings or whistles at closing of the day. But in the brilliant morning, when all the world is bright, the healthy man is scorning the specters of last night.

BIG BUSINESS JUSTIFIED.

Big business men are only little business men tried out and approved; every big business man has had experience with little business—he is simply a man more capable than the average. To abuse him is not only unfair, but foolish. We might as well say the best workmen are scoundrels; that sober men should be turned out and drunkards put in their places. We demand efficiency in everything, justly and naturally; but as soon as we get it in business we make ugly faces and charges against it.

Still, let the efficient man remember that there is always a big demand for his services from everybody. We fool Americans do not mean half we say.—[E. W. Howe's Monthly.

IN THE EXEMPT CLASS.

A country doctor went to a city to see noted experts in his line and have an operation performed on himself. "Don't you know," they said to him, "that operations are for patients and not for doctors?" And the country doctor returned home without an operation.—[E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Sidelights on Banking

Believing that a great many people are not taking advantage of all the varied services of modern Departmental Banks, the Guaranty Bank presents this series of short articles on banking, intended to clear up many common misunderstandings and to point out ways in which your bank can be of greater benefit to you. The rest of the series will appear in this paper at an early date.

NUMBER NINE

Departmental Banking

Twenty years ago the business man carried his checking account in a commercial bank. His savings he deposited in a savings bank. He arranged for commercial loans and credit with a commercial bank. If he wished to borrow money on a mortgage to build a home he negotiated a real estate loan with a savings bank.

But progress and development in banking have tended toward centralization of banking services, until today we have the modern "department store of finance", of which the Guaranty Bank is a typical example. Here under one roof every requirement of banking service can be satisfied.

Department Store of Finance

Our Commercial Department, backed by the bank's membership in the Federal Reserve System, makes available every service rendered by any commercial bank. The Savings Department offers all the advantages of a complete savings bank. A fully equipped and modern Safe Deposit Vault is conveniently at hand. Our Bond Department offers sound investments and an advisory service to those who wish to safely invest their funds. The advantages of a complete Trust Department are another outstanding feature of the departmental bank. Foreign exchange, escrows, collections, traveler's checks and innumerable other banking accommodations are conveniently grouped within a single institution.

We would welcome an opportunity to extend to you any or all of our many helpful banking services.

Disabled Veterans Listen to Welcome from Mayor.

Committees Are Appointed by President Bueter.

Delegates to State Meeting Guests at Theater.

Committees were named and interesting addresses made at the first session of the first annual convention of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, which opened yesterday at the Los Angeles headquarters of the Los Angeles Post, 111 West Third street. Mayor Snyder opened the convention with an address of welcome to the delegates gathered here from all parts of the State.

The Mayor urged the men to be unselfish in their demands. He called attention to the fact that they did not go to France with selfish motives, and that they fought and many of them became disabled as a result of unselfish ideas.

I. W. Kibby, supervisor of the Federal Board for Vocational Education in this district, told the veterans that the department he is directing is anxious to help the disabled men, and that everything possible is being done to make them contented. He spoke of the work already done and declared that a larger amount is being planned, and that more men will be taken care of as soon as it is practicable.

Visiting delegates were last night the guests of the management of the Morosco and Majestic theaters, and tonight further entertainment is planned.

The committees appointed yesterday are: Constitution, Charles S. Winslow (chairman,) G. E. Wright, O. O. Jones, E. L. Goodspeed, Louis McGrath and Guy E. Garrett; resolutions, Carl Marks, J. F. Doran, S. Miller and A. A. Smith; auditing, D. H. Smith, G. E. Doheny, F. Bryant, Charles Quest and Sterling Brooks; financial, O. O. Jones, Carl Goodspeed, Louis McGrath; credentials, Jerry De Vine, A. A. Smith and G. E. Garrett; vocational training board and hospital, G. E. Wright, G. E. Doheny, Sam Miller, H. Gerkens and John Silverton.

Reports of the committees will be received today and tomorrow. The convention will continue in session all week and there will probably be entertainment arranged each night for the visiting delegates and their friends. The session this afternoon will convene at 1:30 o'clock.

THREE NEW COMPANIES FOR GUARD.

Authority to organize three new National Guard companies here was received yesterday by Maj. E. E. Kirk from Adjt.-Gen. Borree. The order calls for the creation of a service company of 168 men with one captain and three lieutenants; a headquarters company with sixty-five enlisted men, one captain and two lieutenants; and a howitzer company of sixty-two enlisted men, one captain and one lieutenant.

Coincident with this announcement, Maj. Kirk made known that the Los Angeles regiment is now looking for several good officers, who have had experience as commissioned officers. This, he declares, is a particularly good time for men to join the National Guard, because new companies are being created and changes are being made because of the recent shake-up, which resulted in the resignation of at least two officers.

Maj. Kirk has just announced the promotion of William B. Heinecke, a deputy District Attorney, from captain of Co. A, to major of the junior battalion. Since a colonel and lieutenant-colonel for the Los Angeles regiment are soon to be chosen, it appears not unlikely that Mr. Heinecke may soon be senior colonel of the regiment.

Following close upon the heels of Gen. Borree's request for the resignation of Lieut.-Col. James McKnight came an order Friday for Capt. James Doorley, commander of Co. L, to resign. Capt. Doorley could not be reached yesterday, but officers of the National Guard said they understood he complied with the request shortly after receiving it. Capt. Doorley was secretary of the Los Angeles National Guard Association, when Lieut.-Col. McKnight was its chairman. He was not involved in the charges centering upon the handling of guard funds.

MILK PRICE INQUIRY.

Why is the price of milk in Los Angeles higher than in San Francisco?

This is the question the City Councilmen desire to have answered and, more important still, they would like to see the price of milk in this city reduced.

To the end of ascertaining if any municipal inspection requirements, as some declare, are acting as a bar to price reductions, the Council yesterday took steps to learn the facts from Health Commissioner Powers. "If these restrictions do exist, and if they can be removed without endangering the health of the milk users of the city, the City Council should do everything in its power to wipe them out," said Councilman Criswell, who introduced the resolution calling on the Health Department for a report.

Young Girls Need Care

FROM the age of twelve a girl needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time.

If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter make life easier for her.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions. It can be taken in safety by any woman, young or old.

Read How These Mothers Helped Their Daughters

Guttenberg, N. J.—"My daughter was all run down and had fainting spells often, had a bad complexion, and suffered at her monthly periods. Her grandmother had been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the Change of Life, and got a bottle of it for her. She began to improve with the first bottle and took five in all and was entirely restored to health. For a time she had not been able to attend school, but she does now. She recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to her friends and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. Catharine McGlove, 304 34th St., Guttenberg, N. J.

Roxbury, Mass.—"My daughter is a schoolgirl and she suffered very much with irregular periods, painful cramps and dizzy headaches. She was sometimes as long as three months between her periods and when they came she was not able to do her school home lessons because she could not even sit up. A copy of one of your little books was left in my letter-box and she began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for her troubles. She is now in good health, is regular and can help me with the housework when not in school."—Mrs. Victoria G. Spitsberg, 74 Bragdon St., Roxbury, Mass.

THOUGHT HE HAD HEART TROUBLE

Gains 28 Pounds and Feels Just Fine, He Says.

Gives Tanlac All the Credit For His Recovery.

"When Tanlac relieved my stomach trouble I also got rid of what I thought was heart trouble and picked up twenty-eight pounds in weight, besides," said E. P. Nelson, well known carpenter, residing at 1849 West 20th St., Los Angeles.

"It was in nineteen and four that I began having indigestion, and ever since then, that is, until I got Tanlac, I've had no end of trouble with my stomach. Gas bloated me until my heart acted so queerly I thought I had heart trouble, and I simply suffered agony. Many days I just had to drag myself off to work and was brought home sick. I got worse in spite of everything I could do. I got to where I was afraid to eat anything. I had to live on olive oil, bran and milk.

"One day I saw a Tanlac testimonial in the paper that described a case so much like mine that I started taking it, but as I failed to improve as fast as I thought I should, I quit. I was then living in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and decided to move here to see if the climate would help me. At that time I was in an awful condition, and had gone down from a hundred and eighty pounds in weight to only a hundred and thirty-four. Several months after reaching Los Angeles, I decided to try Tanlac again, as I seemed to be still growing worse. Well, I stuck to it that time, and it certainly has paid me well, for, to make a long story short, I'm now in the best of shape, eating anything I want, and nothing hurts me. I tip the scales at one hundred and sixty-two, and am in tip top condition in every way. I'm glad to give this statement for what it may be worth to others."

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POMONA, May 16.—Ranking the highest in scholarship of their class, Miss Gladys Hatch and George Stone were today chosen as the speakers at the graduating exercises of Pomona High School at the annual commencement, which will be held in the Greek Theater at Ganesha Park, June 10. Miss Hatch will represent the class as valedictorian, while Mr. Stone will deliver the salutatory address.

Commencement week will begin on June 3 and close with the graduating exercises the following Friday. Dr. Stanley B. Wilson of the State Board of Education will deliver the graduation address.

JOHN L. JOOS DEAD.

He had lived in Pomona for the last ten years and is survived by the widow, two daughters, Miss Minnie Joos of Pomona and Mrs. Flora Fitzpatrick of Guthrie, Ill.; and two sons, J. W. Joos of Los Angeles and Harry Joos of Claremont. The remains will be taken to Gibson, Ill., for burial.

LOCKJAW FATAL.

Contracting lockjaw from a splinter wound received in an automobile accident a week ago, I. D. Sell, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah H. Sell of San Dimas, died today at the Pomona Valley Hospital.

While riding in an automobile with his brother, an obstruction in the road broke a steering knuckle of the machine and sent the car careening through a fence. The brother escaped with minor bruises, but the younger boy received a deep wound in his thigh from a fence splinter. The wound failed to heal and infection set in. His condition grew suddenly worse and all efforts of physicians failed to save his life.

He leaves, besides his parents, four sisters and a brother.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, May 16.—Despondent because of ill health, Mrs. D. Yoshida, wife of a Japanese truck gardner of Perris Road near Anaheim, ended her life today by hanging herself. The woman, the mother of four children, was found dangling from a rope from the kitchen rafter by two young sons who broke in the door. Dr. C. H. Woods was summoned and pronounced the victim dead. The body was removed to the Mottell undertaking parlors.

GRAIN DEALER DIES.

Fred K. Smith, 85 years old, for the last twenty years a member of the Chicago Board of Trade and a member of the Kansas City Board of Trade for a similar period, died today at 1144 Loma avenue. He was a prominent grain operator of Chicago. He leaves a brother, Sidney N. Smith of Los Angeles and two sisters. The body is at the Cleveland undertaking parlors.

FINED FOR CRUELTY.

C. L. Settles of Wilmington was fined $50 and given a sentence of ten days in the County Jail by Justice S. H. Underwood today after pleading guilty to cruelty to animals.

The judge later suspended the jail sentence. Settles was arrested by Detectives Robberson and Mitchell while conducting, it is alleged, a game of coursing in the local harbor district. More than 1000 persons, it is said, had assembled to see rabbits run down and killed by dogs on a course said to have been erected by Settles. Six rabbits had been killed in this manner when the arrest was made and the game stopped.

CLAIMS SPITE ARREST.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, May 16.—J. W. O'Day, aged Los Angeles mining man, will be brought before Justice of the Peace Cox tomorrow, to answer to the charge of embezzling $500 and for obtaining money under false pretenses.

O'Day, who was arrested on a complaint sworn to by Milton MacMillan, declares that $30,000 worth of mining property is tied up by his arrest, and that the complaint was issued through personal spite.

SAYS HE SAW WOLF.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, May 16.—Y. S. Jenkins, 1030 Topeka street, says he saw a full grown wolf at a point where the Lamanda Park wash crosses Huntington Drive, a few days ago. He is certain the animal was a wolf and not a coyote as he is familiar with the appearance of both.

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, May 16.—Squatters on city tide lands at Beelerville, near Terminal Island, are up in arms over the reported action of the Harbor Commission in deciding to tax residents of Beelerville $5 per month for rent of the land.

The residents have united in opposing the move, and have drawn up a protest addressed to the commission. They declare that the monthly rental will be unfair, coming at the present time, on account of the shortage of homes, complete absence of improvements on the tide lands, and also on account of the unemployment situation.

A majority of the residents at Beelerville are longshoremen, but since the first of the month nearly all of them have been out of work on account of the tie-up of ships.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WHITTIER, May 16.—Funeral services for the late Mrs. Carrie J. Mendenhall, age 67 years, were held this afternoon and interment made in the Whittier Heights Memorial Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Ernest E. Day, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church, of which Mrs. Mendenhall was a member.

Mrs. Mendenhall had been a resident of Whittier for the last thirteen years. She is survived by a daughter, Miss Alice Mendenhall who was devotedly attached to her mother during her years of semi-invalidism.

ELDERLY CONVERT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDONDO BEACH, May 16.—Seeking absolution from seventy-three years of sin, Mrs. Isabel Needham of Hawthorne was baptized in the Pacific Ocean at Redondo Beach yesterday. Accompanied by her pastor and a few of the faithful, Mrs. Needham drove over from Hawthorne early that morning for the baptismal service. It was not possible, however, for the ceremony to take place until 1:26, the time of low tide. Just before that time, rain began to fall.

This was not according to Mrs. Needham's plans, and she asked her friends to pray that the rain would cease, and the sun shine upon her baptism. In accordance with the request, the party knelt on the sands and offered prayer. Just before time for the service, the sun broke through the clouds and the baptism was held.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

HANFORD, May 16.—Under a voluntary agreement on the part of Hanford publishers and job-printing shop proprietors, printers here began today to receive forty-eight hours' pay for forty-four hours' work.

No change in the wage scale was made, but workmen now quit at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, receiving an eight-hour pay for seven hours and twenty minutes' work. Printers here are not organized and had asked no concession from employers.

Workers on the night shift begin work forty minutes later, quitting at the same time as formerly and receiving eight hours' pay.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, May 16.—Funeral services for Ebert Hunter, well-known young business man, whose death followed a very brief illness, will be held from the First Congregational Church at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. Hunter was born in the province of Ontario, Can., in 1881. Upon his removal to this city in 1904, he became identified with the dry goods firm of G. Besides the widow, he leaves three brothers, J. George Hunter of this city, T. Will Hunter and Milfred H. Hunter of Detroit, and his mother, Mrs. Margaret Hunter of this city.

TRAFFIC COP AT DAM.

PASADENA, May 16.—City Manager C. W. Koiner will station a traffic officer at the Devil's Gate flood control dam and bridge over the Arroyo Seco between Pasadena and Flintridge, to keep vehicles moving and prevent motorists from parking on the bridge itself or at the approaches. Many sightseers visit the dam every day, stop their cars on or near the bridge and block the traffic.

Crystal, jade and amber are the vogue now. If you wish to select from a complete stock visit Grace Nicholson's Famous Pasadena Oriental Shop. The finest specimens at the lowest prices, and a new shipment direct from China just opened. Also some beautiful old brasses, pewters and enamels, jade inlay boxes, mirror frames and make-up boxes.—[Advertisement.

...URT UPHOLDS "BLUE SKY LAW."

...Supreme Judges Brand It Constitutional.

...is Demurrer in Fight on San Diego Case.

...vate Injunction Move Against Prosecution.

...an opinion of the State Supreme Court, handed down yesterday, the constitutionality of the corporate securities law, popularly known as the blue sky law, is affirmed. Justice Wilbur wrote the opinion.

The action arose in a suit appealed from San Diego county in the name of John A. Jose and others against H. S. Utley, District Attorney of that county, to enjoin their agents from prosecuting Margaret Truax for violating the blue sky law. The lower court sustained the demurrer to the complaint, and gave judgment for the defendant, which the Supreme Court sustains.

Margaret Truax was engaged in the enterprise of selling 1,000,000 shares of the capital stock of the Imperial Pacific Oil, Gas and Refining Company.

The corporation had placer mining claims in fifty-six quarter-sections of surveyed government land in Imperial county. More than 200 locations of the plaintiffs had located additional lands, amounting to 8,320 acres, to be exploited for petroleum and oil. The corporation was financed by the plaintiffs under the laws of Arizona for the purpose of operating in such corporation the said fifty-six quarter-sections, consisting of 8960 acres. The consideration was to be 1,000,000 shares of stock, fully paid and nonassessable, of the capital stock of $1,500,000, divided into 1,500,000 shares at $1 each. The remaining shares went to L. [illegible], F. S. Hess and M. A. [illegible].

The Supreme Court finds that the value of the stock of the corporation was fraudulent as against the creditors and stockholders, and that the extravagant valuation had been placed on the property.

The records show that there was no commercial discovery of oil on the property. Margaret Truax was the promoter to get rid of the stock and the proceeds for the purpose of paying the expenses of the drilling operations. She sought to get the corporation's permit. The stock was sold by the company 10 cents a share, and all in excess of that amount received by it was to get as commission for her services.

Two-Legged Calf That Walks Erect Missing; Complaint Asked by Its Owner.

If anyone sees a calf, without any front legs, walking half-erect along the highway, they will know its name is "Minus" and that the owner, M. H. Theodore Karcher of 238 Eagle Rock avenue, is looking for the two-legged animal.

Mr. Karcher yesterday asked Dep. Dist.-Atty. Glover to issue a complaint against a certain man, as he says the man and freak animal disappeared at the same time. Mr. Karcher valued the calf, which stands half-erect and walks much like a man, at $10,000. It was born on May 6, 1920, at Metmora, Mich., and, he says, has been used for show purposes.

SEIBERLING QUITS TIRE POST HERE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

AKRON (O.) May 16.—The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of California, at Los Angeles, is in no way affected by the reorganization of the parent company, but F. A. Seiberling will retire as president and possibly from the directorate.

These two announcements were made today by E. G. Wilmer, recently made president of the parent company, and Mr. Seiberling, who retired as president and director last Saturday.

"Any statement regarding the future of the Los Angeles plant, as well as any statement regarding the parent company, must come from Mr. Wilmer, but I am going to leave the Goodyear organization at Los Angeles. Beyond this I have nothing to say," Mr. Seiberling said.

Mr. Wilmer expressed himself as being highly satisfied with the entire Goodyear organization, and although no special reference was made to the Los Angeles company, the inference is that his statement includes the western subsidiary.

"The Goodyear organization has shown unusual courage and unusual efficiency in meeting all difficulties and I am entirely satisfied with the qualities so displayed and I firmly believe Goodyear is ready now for a complete comeback. The Canadian company is now being reorganized, but the Los Angeles company is not affected by the reorganization," Mr. Wilmer said.

He is 28 years old, unmarried, and a law school graduate, but has never practiced. He has been reorganizer for four large concerns.

Albert F. Osterloh, vice-president and general manager of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of California, stated last night that no action will be taken by the local company until Mr. Seiberling's resignation has been received here.

"It would be somewhat embarrassing for Mr. Seiberling to be connected in such a capacity with this company, and not with the parent organization," said Mr. Osterloh.

Dozier Tells Clubwomen They Crowd Outside Head.

Municipal Candidates Heard by Woman's City Body.

Ebell Asks Grand Jury Quiz Regarding Milk Price.

BY MYRA NYE.

Saying there was so much gray matter inside his head it had to crowd outside and show itself as gray hairs, Melville Dozier thus jocularly introduced himself in a speech in behalf of his own candidacy for membership on the Board of Education before the Woman's City Club yesterday. His gray hair was but the index of his experience with educational matters, he said further when he told of his six years as principal in the grammar schools, ten years as principal of a high school, twenty years as vice-principal and his six years on the Board of Education. He asked for the votes of these women citizens at the municipal election June 7.

"I'm going to let all above my hair grow and show its grayness the rest of the campaign," said R. A. Odell, another candidate. "Up to this time I've asked my barber to clip it short and just let the black on the top of my head show. If gray hair is a requisite for a member of the board I can show some, too."

Others who appeared, giving two-minute speeches, were Mrs. Martha C. Harmon, Mrs. Grace B. Ashley, Egerton Shore, Elliot Craig, M. C. Bettinger, C. E. Seamon, Miss M. Jessie Yorke, Mrs. Mary Garbutt, Mrs. Mary C. Millspaugh and C. J. McCormick.

Mrs. Ashley and Mr. Seaman told the voters why the present members of the board might become unpopular during the next three weeks. They have to prepare the budget for next year, which will be larger of necessity, than the last year, they will have to decide the salaries of teachers, drop some teachers and hire others. But as Mrs. Ashley said they intend as in the past to do this conscientiously, with all the wisdom at their command, regardless of the approaching election. Mrs. Herman (Ida Works) Darling, candidate for the City Council, presided.

Ebell Club.

The need for an announcer for the Ebell Club was shown yesterday when no fewer than fourteen announcements were made from the platform by almost that number of people.

An important resolution, presented by Mrs. Grantland Seaton Long, was unanimously passed. It stated that since the high price of milk in the city mitigates against the health of adults and against the welfare of children, the 2000 members of Ebell, all voting citizens, request the county grand jury to authorize an investigation that a better understanding may be reached between the consumer and the milk merchants and dairymen. The resolution further recommended that the matter be taken up with the Mayor and all in the power of the club be done to make the necessary food more easily obtained.

Mrs. William S. Bullis, chairman of art exhibits, announced that through the exhibitions in the club this year, sixteen valuable paintings had been sold. She reviewed Anthony Anderson's criticism of the pictures that are now hanging.

Already 125 members have made reservations to go in the Ebell special, which leaves the Southern Pacific Station, Saturday, at 6:15 p.m., for the State convention in Yosemite Valley next week, it was announced by Mrs. Charles H. Toll, president.

Mrs. H. V. Wurdeman, president of the Badger Club, asked for the use of twelve automobiles to take disabled veterans to the dinner to be given them Thursday night at the Big Sisters' League Training Home, fifty for the pleasure drive for wounded soldiers who are visiting here during the State convention this week, and 400 for next Sunday. She also announced the military funeral for a soldier who died in France and whose body will lie in state in Pershing Square for three days preceding the funeral, the 29th inst.

Next week will complete fifty years of service to the public on the part of the Public Library, and Mrs. J. Wells Smith of the Friday Morning Club, in contrasting the activities of the library ten years ago and this year, said this year 2,000,000 books will be circulated, as against only 885,000 in 1911. This year four new departments, successful in every respect, have been added: science and industry, sociological, music and arts, and foreign extension. Mrs. Smith made a strong appeal to the women to vote "Yes" June 7 on No. 2 on the ballot on the proposition asking for $2,500,000 for a new building for the library.

The speaker of the afternoon was G. Bromley Oxnam, who repeated his address given before the federation at Pomona three weeks ago, entitled "Citizenship."

Today the speakers at the Emerson-Browning luncheon will be Wilsie Martin of the Methodist Church of Hollywood and Mrs. Margaret La Grange of the Emerson Church.

University Women's Club.

This afternoon at the Y.M.C.A. Building, 1622 University avenue, the speaker before the Women's University Club of Southern California will be Mrs. Alice Harriman, author and authority on California bells. She will lecture on "Famous Bells" and give stereopticon pictures. Members may bring guests. A silver offering will be taken for the Great National Peace Carillon to be erected in Washington, D. C.

W.C.T.U.

The Los Angeles Federation, W.C.T.U., will meet at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium. Presidents of the unions are urged to be present in the morning. In the afternoon the candidates for the various municipal offices will speak. The public is invited.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A Kirkman

ANSWERED LETTERS.

Walt.: "Is it customary to fee one's minister when he baptizes your child or to make a contribution to the church at that time as a sort of return for his services?"

Answer: I never heard of such a practice. Of course, if you wished to make a contribution to your church, this would be a very nice time to do it—but I don't believe many persons do.

Anxious: "We have just built a bungalow and have some double windows in it. Shall I drape these as one window or as separate windows? And is pongee suitable to use for window drapery? I would also be glad if you could tell me how to take grease out of wall paper?"

Answer: If the ceiling of the room is unusually high, treat the double windows as one window, having two separate pairs of white "glass" curtains, which touch between the windows (thus giving the effect of one unbroken sweep of white) and running a valance down the outsides and across the top of the two windows like a picture frame (with no valance-strip running down between the windows.)

If the room is average in height, or is low-ceiled, have two separate pairs of glass curtains and have a single valance-strip running down between them and another strip at the outside edge of each window and, of course, the ruffle across the top. You will have to run a very long rod across both windows to do this. Pongee is perfectly suitable for valances, especially the silk pongee in shades of brown, green and blue.

To take grease out of wall paper, place a piece of blotting paper over the spot, and put a hot iron on top of the blotter.

Willie: "Please tell me what kind of draperies to use in the living-room, dining-room and bedrooms of our new home? We have ivory woodwork, light paper, and cream-colored shades."

Answer: You did not tell me the color of your wall paper—but I'll assume it is buff. Nor did you tell me the exposure of the various rooms. North rooms need light tans (to suggest sunlight;) and rooms which get a good deal of sunshine require the more subdued colors such as cold blues, greens, grays or browns. Old blue is a popular choice for a bright room. Bedrooms may have light hues such as pale blues, pinks, yellows and lavender; so if I were you I would do my least sunny bedroom in yellow or buff, and my sunniest bedroom in pale blue. A bedroom which gets some sun but not much, might be done in pink or lavender.

Downstairs, I would use this plan: Sage green or brown for the sunniest room; old blue for a room which gets a little sun; old rose or light tan for a sunless north room. China silk is, perhaps, the nicest material for valances if one can afford it; but crestonne, pongee or one of the mercerised silks (which manufacturers declare will not fade in the sun) are very nice for a limited pocketbook. At the doors, velour is, perhaps, the nicest, but cotton rep is used a great deal by those who can't afford expensive hangings. Of course, the door curtains should match, or at least, harmonize, with the window valances.

G. N. J.: "Can a light bread be made with cornmeal mixed with flour?"

Answer: No, not a very light bread. Such bread is coarse-grained and has a sort of nutty flavor.

Tomorrow: More practical salads.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman, in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department, will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received, so if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be inclosed with the question.—The Editor.

DEFER GUGLEIMER CASE.

Divorce Fight of Motion-Picture Pair is Postponed.

The contested separate maintenance-divorce suit of Harriet M. Gugleimer against Rudolpho Valentino Gugleimer, cinema stars, set for Judge Walton J. Wood's court yesterday, was continued until next Monday, owing to the absence from the city of W. I. Gilbert, attorney for Mr. Gugleimer.

The latter has filed a cross-complaint asking for a divorce on the ground that his wife deserted him. Mrs. Gugleimer, known on the screen under her maiden name of Jean Acker, charges her husband with desertion. Mr. Gugleimer, as Rudolpho Valentino, played a leading part in the cinema play of the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." Attorney Finkenstein was in court representing Mrs. Gugleimer yesterday.

The Daily Fun Hour.

BY HONOR WALSH.

DR. HOWE.

In "Dr. Howe" one player leaves the circle while the others agree upon a word, which must have two or more meanings.

Let us suppose that the word "bill" has been chosen. The leader calls, "Come in, Dr. Howe," and the absent player, returning, asks, "How do you like it?" referring to the secret word.

No. 1 may say, "I like a curved" (the bill of a parrot;) No. 2 answers, "I like it large" (a $10 or $20 bill,) and No. 3 says, "And I don't like it large" (a monthly account bill;) No. 4 gives a closer clew to the word when he declares, "I like it about his size," indicating a player named William (Bill.)

So Dr. Howe goes all around the circle, asking "how" he likes the mystic word. If he has not guessed it by that time he begins again with player No. 1, and asks, "When do you like it?" No. 1 answers, "When it is eating crackers" (the parrot's bill;) No. 2 makes response, "Any time but the first of the month" (account bill;) No. 3 says, "I like it seven times a week" (money bill,) and No. 4 adds, "And I like it all the time" (the boy Bill.)

If he is still puzzled, Dr. Howe circles around once more, asking: "Where do you like it?" Then No. 1 might reply, "I like it in a cage"; No. 2 may say, "I like it in my pocket;" No. 3, "I like it on the receipt file," and No. 4, "I like it right here" (again the human Bill). It will be noticed that the answers convey closer information with each round. The player whose answer gives the questioner the clew to the word then becomes Dr. Howe when the next word is to be selected.

As the result of an injury received yesterday while performing a picture stunt, Larry Semon, Vitagraph comedian and director, is in the hospital.

The stunt was not dangerous in itself, but the injury, which affected his side and back, aggravated the suffering to which he has been subject since his former injury a few weeks ago. From that injury he has not recovered, but went back to work against the advice of his physicians.

According to the statement of Mr. Semon's physicians, he will be kept in the hospital at least a month.

Mr. Semon's fiancee, Lucille Carlyle, was with him all day yesterday. She has been ill during the past few months, but will once more resume her position as Mr. Semon's leading lady in his comedies as soon as she has fully recuperated.

WILL INCREASE PORT PRESTIGE.

First Step in Development Plan is Announced.

Much Uptown Work to Go to Water-Front District.

Issuance of a permit here yesterday for the erection of a $305,000 administration building for the Union Oil Company at its refinery in Wilmington marked the first step in a big development plan, which will shortly give Los Angeles Harbor greater importance as an oil-shipping port.

John McPeak, secretary of the company, said last night that there is no probability that the concern will rip up its big plant at Oleum on San Francisco Bay and transfer it to Los Angeles Harbor, but he admitted that present developments mean much to the future of the port.

"The company already has its refinery and other equipment at Wilmington," said he, "and the erection of a big administration building will complete the layout. It will probably take a great deal of our uptown work to Wilmington. The building will be of reinforced concrete."

Activities of the Union Oil Company's fleet of oil tankers now seem to be fairly evenly divided between the harbor and Oleum. There are seven of them tied up here, several of which are undergoing repairs while the marine strike is on.

POEM IS INSPIRED BY LINCOLN PARK LIGHTS.

GENE STRATTON PORTER TO READ ORIGINAL VERSE AT CELEBRATION.

Gene Stratton Porter, author of "The Girl of the Limberlost" and other well-known novels, has written a poem entitled "The Lights of Lincoln Park," which she will read tonight at the celebration which will commemorate the turning on of the Lincoln Park lights. The program will occupy the afternoon and evening. At 2:30 p.m. one of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will take part in a competitive drill. A review of competitive bands will follow. Mrs. Sloan-Post will be in charge of the distribution of awards and prizes, including souvenir buttons which are to have special gifts.

The evening program will include short talks by Mayor Snyder, Mrs. Metcalf, recruit and others, dancing, musical selections, club chorus singing and the unveiling of the "Pipes of Pan" statue in the middle wing of the conservatory. The program has been arranged by Alfred Moore, president of the North Main-Street Improvement Association.

FALSE CHECK CHARGE.

Accused of passing a fictitious check for $425 on S. Simons, a jewelry firm in buying a diamond ring, Frank A. d'Angoise was arrested yesterday by Detective Sergeant Murphy. He was arraigned before Judge Brown, who set the hearing for the 16th inst. He was lodged in the County Jail in lieu of bail. d'Angoise said he had expected money to be made to his credit.

HUSBAND :: AND :: BABY :: GONE.

Wife Tells Pitiful Story of Broken Home.

Mrs. Mildred Getts.

WHEN Herbert S. Getts, a salesman, failed to appear in Judge Walton J. Wood's court yesterday in divorce proceedings brought by Mrs. Mildred Getts, a bench warrant was issued by the court.

Mrs. Getts was in court represented by her attorney, Samuel A. Miller. She testified that Mr. Getts sent her to Los Angeles from Great Falls, Mont., promising to join her. She said she corresponded with him and finally when he did not appear, she placed her baby daughter, Elizabeth, in a home, and obtained work in order to support herself and child.

Subsequently Mr. Getts telephoned her, she testified, to give out their baby for adoption. She indignantly refused, she said. On April 21, last, she asserts he asked to see his daughter and the charge is made that he placed Elizabeth in a home. Since that date she says she has not seen her baby or her husband.

CELEBRATE NORWAY'S INDEPENDENCE DAY.

LOS ANGELES CLUB MEMBERS TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY ON MT. LOWE.

The independence of Norway will be celebrated today on Mt. Lowe. Members of the Norway Club of this city will observe the natal day of their native land with an outing at Alpine Tavern and Mt. Lowe Observatory.

Arthur Steele, well-known violinist, will start the celebration by playing Norwegian airs near Observation Point. N. B. Nelson of this city will talk on "Voyages of the Norsemen to America."

An address on "Radioactive Substances" will be delivered by Dr. Albert Solland. Ingall W. Bull will deliver the patriotic address of the day. Other talks will be made by Maj. M. Talbot of Gen. Allenby's staff, K. M. Turner, Charles Farwell Edson and Phyllys Dryenforth-Fortune. Mrs. Edward J. Qually will act as toastmistress.

During the afternoon there will be dancing in the ballroom of Alpine Tavern, and in the evening the entire club will be entertained at Mt. Lowe Observatory, where, after the members have viewed Jupiter and Saturn through the telescope, Dr. Edgar Lucien Larkin will talk on astronomy.

BROADEN AMUSEMENT LAW.

The City Council yesterday adopted an ordinance under which licenses may be issued by the Board of Police Commissioners permitting amusement concessions in privately owned parks in the city.

BULLDOG IS BLAMED.

Shed Hair, Damaged Furniture, Charge in Suit Against Actress.

Testimony in a suit on trial in Judge Valentine's court, in which H. P. Bingham demands $1042.50 damages for injury to furnishings in the house at 262 Benton Way, shows that the defendant, Leta Jane Moody, a cinema actress, was a model tenant of the house for a year. The second year, Mr. Bingham charges, she brought a bull dog into the house and the canine shed hair and damaged the furniture. It is also charged that furniture was scarred by cigarette butts.

Barker Bros. Offer a Distinct Service to Piano Buyers

There is a phase of Barker Bros.' service to piano buyers that cannot be obtained at the average music store, and that is tremendously important to the prospective piano buyer. Barker Bros., being essentially a home furnishing establishment, make it possible for you to ACTUALLY SEE the piano you propose to buy in an ACTUAL HOME SETTING before you purchase. You can then better appreciate just how the dainty little BRAMBACH BABY GRAND, for instance, will look when transported to your home. You can realize exactly what its relation to the other furnishings of the room will be; how best you can place it; and how imposing it is in a room setting.

Brambach Baby Grands fit admirably into rooms that regular size grands would make appear crowded and over-furnished. These splendid instruments may be had in either plain or Queen Anne period models.

ORANGE SHOW'S PHONE TESTED.

Words of Executive Will be Repeated to Throng.

Seventy-five persons at midnight last night heard conversation over the long-distance telephone between the White House, Washington, and Anaheim, this being the final test in preparation for the opening of the California Valencia Orange Show at Anaheim by President Harding at 10 a.m. today.

The final control was made over an independent wire into President Harding's office, the connection being made through Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, Ogden, Salt Lake City, Denver, Chicago and thence direct to Washington.

For many days arrangements to have the nation's Chief Executive open the Valencia show have been under way. President Harding, when asked to participate by Senator Shortridge and Congressman Swing of the Eleventh District, agreed to do so in the interests of an exposition that has for its purpose the fostering of one of California's greatest industries.

Just what President Harding will say today beyond the greetings that he will extend to Charles C. Chapman, Orange county's most prominent orange grower and capitalist, is problematical, but, judging from the wire received from his personal secretary, it is said he fully appreciates the importance of the Valencia orange industry to California and especially to Orange county, the center of the Valencia industry in this State.

TO REPEAT WORDS.

Efforts to secure an amplifier, which would permit the entire assemblage to hear the President's words were unavailing, but as his words are uttered, they will be announced directly to the huge assemblage that is expected to be present at this unusual ceremony. Seventy-five receivers have been arranged for.

Among the special guests will be Mrs. E. E. Remsberg of Santa Ana, sister of President Harding. It has been arranged that Mrs. Remsberg shall converse personally with the President at the conclusion of his message and well wishes for the success of the first Valencia orange show ever held.

At the special section provided for the guests will be city and county and State representatives, officials of many big fruit-shipping concerns, in addition to representative men and women in all walks of life. Only the telephones used by Mr. Chapman and Mrs. Remsberg will be provided with transmitters permitting them to greet the President. This will be the first time that an exposition has ever been opened by the President of the United States or any other person over the long-distance telephone.

Yesterday Anaheim boosters paraded the downtown business section of Los Angeles, a number of pretty young society matrons of Anaheim bombarding pedestrians with choice Valencia oranges. They were nattily attired in orange show colors, and were on a float which carried for its motif the thought that the Valencia orange is king at this time. The young women were Mrs. A. Shipkey, Mrs. R. E. Phillips, Mrs. H. D. Ackerman, Mrs. Harry D. Riley, Mrs. William Goodrum and Mrs. G. A. Prince.

The visitor to the orange show will be amazed, for the exposition has been founded on a very extensive scale. The Anaheim Chamber of Commerce is responsible for the exhibit. Herman Stern, executive chairman, and Malcolm A. Fraser, general manager, have made the show ready for the throngs who will visit Anaheim for the balance of the week, including Sunday, May 22.

There are many departments, the feature being the display of the finest of Valencia oranges entered into competition for $2000 in prizes, as well as other awards. The interest will center in the contests for the orange and lemon sweepstakes. The main portion of the big top is given over to feature exhibits, wonderfully beautiful creations constructed of oranges, lemons, flowers and greenery.

The illuminated decorative scheme is very elaborate, in fact it may be termed the exposition beautiful. There is an industrial section, a special tent housing 100 fine paintings, presented by the Laguna Beach Art Association, another tent housing the Child Welfare Conference and a section devoted to amusements of various kinds.

Daily programs will be given by bands, orchestras and soloists, the latter including Miss Bessie Lyons, former prima donna of "The Chocolate Soldier," Vera Esmay, Orange county's sweetest singer, and many others.

The organization is a non-profit affair, the Valencia show being given because Valencia oranges are not ripe in time for the National Orange Show held at San Bernardino each February.

Three Safes Are Cracked, Looted; No Clews Left.

Bursting the doors from two large safes with nitroglycerin and tearing off another door with hammers, a gang of safe crackers early yesterday morning looted three safes in downtown offices and escaped with about $2000 in cash and other valuables.

First visiting the offices of the Coca-Cola bottling works at 1334 Central avenue, the yeggmen poured their "soup" into two safes and blew away the doors. Some cash and a quantity of papers were taken by the burglars, who escaped through a side door of the establishment. The loot from these safes, according to the management of the plant, was small.

Ripping the lock from a small safe in the offices of the Graham-Loftus Oil Company, 508 Chapman Building at Eighth street and Broadway, a gang of thieves secured $100 in cash, a quantity of jewelry and some stocks and bonds. Pass keys were used by the burglars to gain entrance to the office.

Although police detectives examined each of the three safes, no trace of finger prints or any other clews were discovered.

BLOW AT NATION SEEN IN STRIKE.

Japanese May be Enabled to Get Commercial Rule.

The steamship strike has reached a stage where, in opinions expressed by shipping men here yesterday, difficulties of getting skilled employees may cause shortly the docking of ships that since the end of the war have been carrying American goods under the American flag into foreign Pacific ports. Such a shutdown would not be merely of temporary loss to the companies, but possibly of permanent loss to the nation, they say, for the present admittedly is America's golden opportunity to regain the prestige of the clipper ship days. A strike that paralyzed would give Europeans, but particularly the Japanese, the chief competitors of America in the Pacific, the chance to secure the trade, steamship and shipping men fear.

The steamship companies of the Coast, as represented by their co-operative organization, the Pacific American Steamship Association, are presenting a united stand to the strikers. The companies are attempting to operate under the scale installed by Admiral Benson for United States Shipping Board vessels. It was only a 15 per cent cut of the war levels and was based on the lowered living costs. When the companies attempted to adopt the Benson scale the union men struck, demanding a continuation of the war-time scales. The new scale was effective May 1 on Shipping Board bottoms.

Under the Benson scale a chief engineer of a class C ship, the usual Shipping Board vessel of 8500 deadweight tons, receives $345. The chief engineer of the same type ship in the British merchant marine gets $152. This, shipping men point out, is evidence of the impossibility of competition under the union demands of 15 per cent excess of the Benson scale.

In the period of the war America built 3,500,000,000 tons of ships, the first American merchant marine in forty years. Foreign trade in foreign bottoms never has been successful, because European countries and Japan regulate rates for the advantage of their home manufacturers, shipping men say, and the selling and banking agencies in foreign ports are aligned nationally.

Freight Ships to Link Boston to Los Angeles

Freight steamers from Boston via New York and the Panama Canal hereafter will arrive at Los Angeles Harbor every ten days, says a statement issued yesterday by the United American Lines. Eight modern steamships will be engaged in this freight traffic, operating between the eastern cities and the Hawaiian Islands, via Los Angeles.

Weekly passenger steamers now arrive in Los Angeles operated by this corporation and the additional freight service is believed to be the forerunner of additional service between the two American coasts.

The new freight service was placed in operation on April 5 when the Texan sailed from Boston. The Arizonan sailed on April 19 and the Floridan on May 7. Other sailings scheduled are the Alaskan on the 28th inst., the Mexican on June 8, the Ohioan on June 18 and the Pennsylvanian on June 29. The ships of the United American Lines dock at shed No. 2, pier A, Wilmington.

TINY DEFENDANT LAYS TROUBLES TO VANITY.

WANTED TO LOOK NICE FOR FIANCE, ASSERTS GIRL IN FRAUD CASE.

Dolly La France, less than 5 feet tall, the littlest defendant of mature years who has appeared before Justice Forbes, told the court yesterday that it was not with the intention of committing an offense that she rented $390 worth of clothes from Matt Silverstein, but that she obtained them to make herself look attractive to her fiance. She is accused of defrauding Mr. Silverstein out of the clothes.

Miss La France, who is 19 years of age and the daughter of a well-known jeweler of Chicago, testified she was to meet her fiance at the Coronado Hotel and paid a rental of $15 on the clothes. She asserted, though Dep. Dist.-Atty. Burke adduced testimony indicating she used a fictitious name, that she intended to return the garments. Unfortunately, she said, she ran up a hotel bill of $165 at San Diego and could not take the clothes away until she received her allowance from her parents. Her fiance left, she said; the bill was unpaid, and she was arrested.

The little defendant was released on her own recognizance until today, when the court stated he would make disposition of the case.

HOUSE HUNTING IN ARM CHAIR.

Carfare and Time Saved by Reading "Times" Want-Ads.

As a city grows big, house-hunting would be an endless task except for one thing—there is always one newspaper in every community which acts as the great renting medium.

Nearly all vacancies in and about Los Angeles are advertised in The Times. The person seeking living quarters can sit at home in an easy chair, visiting city, beach and suburbs, and seeing virtually all rentals that are available.

FEARS FOR SAFETY.

Commerce Chamber Department Head Appalled by Accidents.

"Los Angeles is going to be the most unsafe city in America," said E. B. Lefferts, manager of the safety and fire prevention department of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday, "unless people follow the common laws of safety."

The chamber is attempting to make it the safest city, but the list of motor accidents in the course of the past week is alarming to the chamber's safety department manager.

Mr. Lefferts points out that while the loss of life among children is always high, in Los Angeles the figures are beyond reason, one child being killed accidentally every four days. Three-fourths of these are victims of preventable accidents, he says.

SUSPECT IN ROBBERY ATTEMPT REARRESTED

The man giving his name as T. M. Wilson was rearrested yesterday and will be tried on a charge of having attempted to rob Mrs. T. L. Girard, 470 East Thirty-eighth street, while she was walking on the street Saturday. He was released because Mrs. Girard's address had been mislaid. The man was taken into custody by Traffic Policeman Fisher. The police declare the prisoner's description fits that of a notorious pickpocket.

ONE KILLED AS AUTOS PILE UP.

Injured Motorist is Arrested After Patching Up.

Four Machines and Street Car in Smashup.

Accident is Due to Reckless Driving, is Charge.

One man was killed and another seriously hurt yesterday morning as the result of a peculiar accident in which three passenger automobiles, a motor truck and a street car were involved. Reckless driving, according to the police, caused the fatal accident. The driver of one of the machines was arrested. In the evening another was fatally hurt when he fell from a street car.

Frank B. Husk, 44 years old, of 441 West Thirtieth street, the dead man, was a passenger in a small automobile driven by John W. Kleinham, 39 years old, of 203 West Forty-third street. Kleinham was seriously injured and was arrested while being treated at the Receiving Hospital.

Ted Bird, of 240 West Thirty-seventh street was driving the second automobile while J. J. Brooks of 317 South Johnson street was at the wheel of the truck. The third automobile was parked at the curbing.

According to the police reports of the peculiar accident all three of the automobiles were headed north on Moneta avenue near Forty-second street. The truck was also being driven north while the street car was running south.

TRIES TO PASS.

Mr. Kleinham, at the wheel of his machine, driving in the rear of the truck, which was following the machine driven by Mr. Bird, attempted to pass the truck and swung his automobile onto the street-car tracks. The street car running south caused him to turn his machine in front of the truck and his car was hurled into the air falling on top of the small machine driven by Mr. Bird. Mr. Bird's machine in turn crashed into the standing automobile at the curb.

Police learned from witnesses of the accident that Mr. Husk was thrown clear of the machine driven by Mr. Bird when the first crash took place, and probably was run over by one of the other automobiles. The body was removed to the Moneta-Avenue Undertaking Company.

Mr. Kleinham was taken to the Receiving Hospital and treated for a fracture of the left arm and many cuts about the face and body. He was placed under arrest at the hospital. None of the others in the accident was injured.

Jordan Hamilton, aged 56, of 27 Boyle avenue, was fatally injured last night when he fell from Los Angeles Railway car No. 508 at Fourth street and Santa Fe avenue. He was rushed to the Receiving Hospital, where Police Surgeon Beggs found that he had a basal fracture of the skull caused by striking his head on the pavement. He died a short time later.

In a peculiar accident at Sixth and Figueroa streets, John Munnell, a 12-year-old schoolboy, suffered a broken leg when he was caught between an automobile and the step of a street car as he was about to dismount from the car. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment.

Harold A. Baker, of 711 Citizens' Bank Building, the driver of the automobile that figured in the accident, reported that there was so little space between the car tracks and the curb on Sixth street that his machine was crushed between the car step and the curb. He stated that he did not know the boy was standing on the step until after the accident, when he learned that the lad was caught between the front of his automobile and the street car.

BUNKO PACKAGE TOLD OF AT BERRY TRIAL.

WAITED LONG TIME, BUT GOT ONLY WORTHLESS PAPER, SAYS IDAHO MAN.

J. W. Taber of Wallace, Idaho, testified yesterday in Judge Reeve's court, during the trial of Otis B. Berry, former assistant cashier of the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank, that he waited for a long time for a package of money to arrive for him, after he had given bunko men $7200. When a bundle did come, he said, it contained only paper and a typewritten letter from one of the bunko men. He stated he had expected heavy winnings in a supposed stock deal. He told the court he sold $2200 in Liberty Bonds and cashed $5000 in drafts at the Hollywood branch bank, of which Berry was then manager.

Berry's trial will be resumed today. Dep. Dist.-Attys. Stafford and Keyes are prosecuting the case and Paul Schenck is defense attorney.

"TIMES" TO GIVE MOONEY FACTS.

Special Investigator Writes Complete Account of Bomb Outrage.

The truth about the Mooney case, with an expose of the dangerous radical propaganda campaign conducted by those who would set Mooney free, will be published in The Times next Sunday.

Martin Swanson, the special investigator employed to round up the perpetrators of the San Francisco Preparedness Day bomb outrage, has, for the first time, written a complete account of the investigation that led to the conviction and sentence to life imprisonment of Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings.

Swanson also uncovers the story of the activities of Mooney's sympathizers and former associates, who have spent hundreds of thousands of dollars and resorted to threats, bribery and perjury in their efforts to defeat the ends of justice.

The statement by Swanson was prompted by an attack on Theodore Roosevelt, whose letter denouncing Mooney propaganda inspired the attack. The Roosevelt letter also will be printed in The Times.

OLD COLONY CLUB'S BRANCH HERE OPENS.

ORGANIZATION REACHING ALL PARTS OF WORLD HAS LOCAL QUARTERS.

The formal opening of the Los Angeles branch of the Old Colony Club of New York was held yesterday at the organization's headquarters in the Alexandria Hotel. The opening was celebrated with a luncheon given by the club officers to the local members. All day and last evening members and their friends visited the clubrooms.

The local branch is the twenty-fifth to be opened in this country. Rooms are maintained in hotels in the larger cities of the world for club members and the Los Angeles chapter is a link in the organization's world-wide service.

Work on the local clubrooms began in November of last year when the organization officers came here after establishing clubs in Portland and San Francisco. The Los Angeles branch is in charge of Charles A. Duffy, for eleven years with the Van Nuys Hotel. Many of the Coast and eastern officers arrived yesterday for the formal opening, among them being Eugene C. Batten, executive secretary of the New York club and H. E. W. Wilson, manager of the Pacific Coast branches. Among others who are here for the opening and will remain for some time are H. E. Mitchell, field secretary, and George F. Rogers, chairman of the Membership Committee.

The club is unique in both purpose and personnel. It was organized several years ago in New York to render certain types of service to business executives. The work has extended until branches which were established in the principal cities of the world, now perform services for members in other cities. The organization is composed exclusively of business executives, about 300 of the leading men of this city belonging.

The northeast corner of the second floor of the hotel has been leased by the Old Colony as its headquarters. At the present time this includes four conference rooms, a large lounging-room, writing-room and cafe. The rooms are all handsomely appointed and are to be used by Los Angeles members as well as members visiting this city.

Aged Follower of Race Track Pleads Guilty.

James M. Ryan, 71 years old, known all over the country as a follower of the race tracks, pleaded guilty amid tears before U. S. District Judge Trippet yesterday to a charge of forging the name of James Ryan, a disabled soldier, to a government pension check for $72.

The plea carries the penalty of a $5000 fine and a possible sentence of not more than fifteen years in the penitentiary.

"I thought the check was for me," he sobbed. "I was getting them every day."

He had shown the check around the Tia Juana race track for several days before he got a friend to cash it. At that time Ryan said the government owed him money, it is said.

Judge Trippet continued the case a week to see if the bank had been reimbursed. Some of the friends of Ryan had promised to make the check good.

HELD AS BURGLARS.

Two Lodged in Jail as Suspects in Series of Robberies.

Held on suspicion of committing three burglaries, Felix Saucedo and Miguel Contreres were arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriffs Couts and Bell and Chief of Police Higgins of South Pasadena.

The officers, after questioning the two, took them to various places where, it was stated, about $1100 worth of articles stolen on April 21 from the Mission Curio Store, San Gabriel, were recovered. The place was looted of about $2200 worth of curios. The officers say the two were implicated in burglaries of the residence of Edward R. Bowen, 1918 Fletcher street, South Pasadena; E. A. Churchill, 2051 Meridian street, South Pasadena, and Charles F. Helden, 333 El Molino avenue, Alhambra.

The two were lodged in the County Jail.
